

THE COURIER.

Too Many Advertisements.

There is a class of Oregonians who urge as a reason for the meagre support they are willing to give Oregon newspaper, that "they are too much filled up with advertisements." We propose to address ourselves briefly to such people. In the first place, we desire to ask those who complain of "too many advertisements" if they would under any circumstances be willing to see Oregon destitute of newspapers? We presume there are none who could so desire. Then we tell them that there is not a paper in the State that could live a single year were advertisements excluded from its columns and the same replaced with reading matter. Taking the COURIER for an example in miniature, and the following figures cannot fail to be understood. To set sufficient type to fill the columns of the COURIER to the exclusion of advertisements, would cost $40 00 a week, equal to $2,080 a year. Then suppose every voter in Yamhill county to be a paying subscriber, we would have 1,200 subscribers, equal at $3 00 each to $3,600 00 a year. The cost of the white paper to supply these subscribers would be $15 00 a week, equal to $780 00 a year. Then suppose the editor able to write up the paper, impose the forms, do the press work and the financing and business necessary to be done in connection with the concern, besides serving as mailing clerk, he certainly would have his hands full, and no one would undertake the job for less than $1,000 00 a year. The interest on cost of press, types, &c., at 12 per cent. per annum would amount to $120 00 a year. Wear and tear of material, 10 per cent. or $100 00 more. Office rent, fuel, lights and stationery, at a very low estimate, will foot up $175 00 more.

So it will be observed that by only including in the account, the larger and more obvious items of expenditure incident to conducting a small newspaper enterprise, we have a grand total for one year's operations the sum of $4,275 00 against an income, supposing we had 1,200 subscribers, (which number very few papers in the State can boast,) of $3,600; leaving the snug little sum of six hundred and seventy-five dollars to be passed to the column of losses in our account current of profit and loss.

In conclusion we desire to ask if there is a single newspaper reader anywhere, who has not been at sometime, or in some way, benefited by means of advertisements found in the columns of his paper? One learns where he can get a bargain at a vendue, or an auction; another where bargains are to be had in dry goods; another where he can be cured of some malarial or chronic disease; another where his horse, ass or ox, which has strayed away from him, may be found; another where he may secure a profitable and pleasant berth in a counting room or store; another where he can find a competent accountant or clerk; another where and when a contract is to be let, which is worth competing for, and which some one must get; another where he can purchase or rent a farm; another where he can sell or rent his farm to advantage; and the aggregate of mankind learn through the medium of newspaper advertisements where any article that genius can invent, that luxury can suggest, or that necessity may demand, can be had, and oftentimes what it will cost. Then we contend that no one who regards the matter properly—in the light of business, will complain in consequence of advertisements appearing each week in his paper. He would have a much better ground of complaint on the score of the absence of advertisements in his paper.

Agricultural Society.

From the Enterprise we learn that an Agricultural Society has been organized in Clackamas county, and the necessary officers elected.

What do the farmers and mechanics of Yamhill county say to calling a meeting immediately for the purpose of putting the machinery for a "Yamhill County Agricultural and Industrial Society" in motion? Commence now, and we can have a fair the ensuing fall that shall reflect credit on the county and the enterprise of its people. Who will move in the matter? Washington county has organized a Society and located its fair grounds. Yamhill can't afford to be behind Washington in this matter.

Call a meeting, appoint committees and adjourn to meet, say two weeks subsequently for the purpose of hearing reports.

How Did It Happen?

We are informed by Mr. Field, mail contractor, that the package of COURIERs did not reach McMinnville on Tuesday last. We called upon Mr. Simpson, Postmaster, at this place who says the package was not left in his office.

Milinery and Dressmaking.

Mrs. Harriett Millican has opened a shop on the north side of Main Street, where she is prepared to trim, bleach and fix ladies' bonnets and hats, as also to cut and fit any and all garments and articles of ladies' wear.

Gene Above.

The steamer Union arrived at Lafayette earlier yesterday evening than usual. After discharging freights she steamed up the river for McMinnville.

Acknowledgments.

We received by Friday's mail a generous lot of valuable public documents bearing the familiar frank of Senator Nesmith. We have been repeatedly laid under obligations to Mr. Nesmith for favors of this kind.

At Home.

Senator J. W. Nesmith arrived at home a few days since, where, we understand, he has made up his mind to remain, notwithstanding the fact that he has been tendered a first class appointment—that of Minister to Austria.

Whatever may be said of Senator Nesmith's record as a politician, none will accuse him of neglecting the local wants and interests of his constituents at any time during his entire senatorial term of six years.

Politically considered, Mr. Nesmith's career as Senator has been consistent. He has manifested his devotion to the Union as it was in all proper ways, and now returns to his constituents still devotedly attached to the principles of liberty, union, justice and peace.

We take pleasure in extending our welcome to the late worthy Senator on his return to resume his place amongst those whose interests he has served so faithfully and well.

Congo Minstrels.

Johny Graham with his troupe of negro delineators gave one of his laughable entertainments in this place last night. Though we had read in the Oregonian and Vancouver Register notices of the satisfactory manner in which this troupe had acquitted itself in Portland and Vancouver respectively, we had not expected to witness so meritorious a performance as the one we witnessed at the Court House last night. They go from here to McMinnville, where they will perform to-night, thence up the valley.

TELEGRAPHIC.

Chicago, April 4.—The Tribune says the suspension of Sheridan is hidged at in some quarters.

Johnson has withdrawn the nomination of several Republicans. It is stated that heretofore no Republicans can be nominated.

The Times says the members of the House Judiciary Committee state that a final report on impeachment will be agreed to before July. Should the majority of the Committee favor impeachment, a summer session will be held. The radicals believe the report will favor impeachment.

It is stated that the committee on Foreign Relations have decided not to report the Russian treaty.

Sheridan has written a letter to Grant, in which he says that Griffin recommended the removal of Gov. Throckmorton of Texas.

Sheridan agrees with him. He also thinks it necessary to remove the Governor of Louisiana. He says he will commence the work of registration as soon as he receives a certified copy of the law. He says he feels himself equal to the task imposed by the law, and concludes by saying that he will make few removals.

Grant replies that it is not proper to remove the Governors. The subject is now under consideration. It is not believed that the military commanders have power to remove Governors. That can only be done by act of Congress, or trials under the law. It is quite certain that there will be no interference with Gen. Sheridan.

The reconstruction law will probably be first inaugurated in Virginia. Gen. Selo-feld is engaged in organizing boards of registry, in making other preparations for the election for a State Convention.

Burning of the Lindell Hotel, St. Louis.

St. Louis, March 31.—The famous Lindell Hotel, the largest building of the kind on the continent, if not in the world, was totally destroyed last night by fire. Loss, all told, several million dollars.

Washington, March the 5.—Mr. Sumner offered a resolution which he said he would call up to-morrow for the expulsion of Mr. Sausbury, of Delaware, for repeatedly appearing on the floor of the Senate in an intoxicated condition. The Senate went into Executive session.

Chicago, April 5.—The Republican says that it is very probable that Sausbury will be expelled to-morrow. He has been drunk for several days, and his conduct is disgraceful. The resolution was threatened some time ago, and will now be pressed to a vote. Paterson, of Tennessee, it is said, will meet with the same fate unless he corrects his habits.

It is stated on high authority that the Attorney General has written an opinion that Sheridan has no right under the Reconstruction Act to remove municipal officers in New Orleans. Sheridan's official report has been received. He states that unless prevented by the Washington authorities, he shall remove many more officers, as it is impossible to carry out the law without doing so.

Advices from Richmond say the Connecticut election has caused a strong reaction against the Reconstruction Act.

Washington, April 3.—The Senate has confirmed George McLane as receiver of public monies at Helena, Montana, and rejected the nomination of Isaac J. Moore, as Regis or of the Land Office at the same place.

The registration in Washington gives the colored voters 1,200 majority.

An effort will be made to withdraw the resolution for the expulsion of Sausbury, and put him on probation.

The Herald's statement that the President is the prime mover in the effort to obtain an injunction against the enforcement of the reconstruction law, is emphatically denied.

Mr. Sharkey notified him of his intention to enter proceedings, and the President neither opposed nor approved.

Chicago, April 9.—The Times says that the State Department has received reliable news from Mexico, to the effect that Maximilian is in a tight place and will be obliged to surrender himself to the Liberal forces. The latter threaten to dispose of him by a drum-head court, and execute him at once. Application was made to this Government to recognize him as a belligerent, thereby saving his life. This was refused, but Mr. Seward delivered his protest to the Mexican Minister against treating Maximilian otherwise than as a prisoner of war. The representatives of the Emperor are now in Washington.

A Herald special says that Mr. Seward, at the request of the Austrian Minister, has telegraphed to Mr. Campbell, our Minister in Mexico, to urge Juarez to show all possible leniency to Maximilian in case he is captured by the Liberals. Mr. Campbell replied the same day that he had forwarded the request.

Louisville, April 7.—Philip Tomport, independent Democrat, was re-elected Mayor yesterday by 2,018 majority.

For Sudden Colds, Coughs, &c., &c.
Sudden colds and hard coughs can be cured immediately, as hundreds can testify, by mixing about one teaspoonful of Perry Davis' Vegetable Pain-Killer with four tablespoonfuls of molasses, mixed well together and taken six or eight times a day, or three teaspoonfuls of the mixture will answer for a dose. Also rub a little of the Pain-Killer on the hands, and inhale the scent of it into the lungs. After you have taken the medicine, bathe the throat and around the collar bone, also across the upper part of the breast and down the sides, if they have been made sore by coughing, and you will soon get relief if you do not neglect it too long. The sooner this medicine is applied the more speedy the relief. In all cases, if you do not get relief in thirty minutes, take it again, and bathe freely according to directions.

Travellers are always liable to sudden attacks of dysentery and cholera morbus, and these occurring when absent from home are very unpleasant. Perry Davis' Vegetable Pain-Killer may always be relied upon in such cases. As soon as you feel the symptoms, take one teaspoonful in a gill of new milk and molasses, and a gill of hot water. Stir well together and drink hot. Repeat the dose every hour until relieved. If the pains be severe, bathe the bowels and back with the medicine, clear.

Fishermen, so often exposed to hurts by having their skin pierced with hooks and fins of fish, can be much relieved by bathing with a little Pain-Killer as soon as the accident occurs; in this way the anguish is soon abated; bathe as often as once in five minutes, say three or four times, and you will seldom have any trouble. v2 n10 4w

A FAMILY MEDICINE.

DAVIS' Pain-Killer is a purely vegetable compound, and while it is a most efficient remedy for pain, it is a perfectly safe medicine, even in the most unskillful hands. For summer complaint, or any other form of bowel disease in children or adults, it is an almost certain cure, and has, without doubt, been more successful in curing the various kinds of CHOLERA than any other known remedy, or the most skillful physician. In India, Africa, and China, where this dreadful disease is ever more or less prevalent, the Pain-Killer is considered by the natives, as well as European residents in those climates, a sure remedy.

Gents:—Having used and witnessed the beneficial effects of Perry Davis' Pain-Killer, I take great pleasure in recommending it to the public as the very best Family Medicine with which I am acquainted. In this establishment are employed nearly one hundred persons, and your Pain-Killer has been used with the most astonishing results. For four years not a single severe case of Cholera, Summer Complaint, or Dysentery, but has yielded like magic to the curative power of the "Killer"; and for cuts, bruises, etc., it is in almost daily use, and with like good effects. Perry Davis' Vegetable Pain-Killer.
The Great Family Medicine of the Age!
Pain-Killer, taken internally, should be adulterated with milk or water, and sweetened with sugar if desired, or made into a syrup with molasses. For a Cough, a few drops on sugar eaten will be more effective than anything else. For Sore Throat, gargle the throat with a mixture of Pain-Killer and water, and relief is immediate and the cure positive.

It should not be forgotten that the Pain-Killer is equally as good to take internally, as to use externally. Each bottle is wrapped with full directions for its use. Please Read the Printed Directions.

An Antidote for Poison.

The Pain-Killer.—Rev. T. Allen, writing from Tarry, Barham, says: "Within the past four years I have used and disposed of about five hundred bottles, but am now out. Please send me a fresh supply as soon as you can—say two hundred bottles. I dare not be without it myself, and there are endless calls for it, both by Brannan and Karons. I always take it with me into the jungle, and have frequent occasion to use it, both on myself and others. One night, while sleeping in an open Zayatze, I was awake by a most excruciating pain in my foot. On examination, I found I had been bitten by a centipede. I immediately applied the Pain-Killer, and found instant relief. In less than an hour it was again asleep."

Rev. Mr. Hibbard, writing from Barham to his father, says: "I have used Davis' Pain-Killer for coughs, colds, summer complaints, burns, and for the sting of scorpions, with uniform success. We always keep it where we can lay our hands on it in the dark, it need be." v2 n11 4w

Salem, March 19, 1867.

WE have but little confidence in the trumpet-tongued statements of the proprietors of advertised medicines generally, but we are forced to concur in the opinion, uniformly expressed by all who have used Perry Davis' Pain-Killer, that it is a very valuable article, and one that it would be well for every household to have at hand, in case of bruises, scalds, burns, diarrhoea, dysentery, cholera, fever and ague, and the host of diseases, external and internal, which it is adapted to cure or alleviate. No article of medicine ever attained to such unbounded popularity and extensive diffusion. It has penetrated to every part, even the most remote, of the known world, bearing with it its healing influences more potent than those of the spices of "Arabia the blest." We are informed by our principal druggist, that they sell more of this article for exportation than any or all others, and that the demand is constantly increasing.—Salem Observer.

Perry Davis' Pain-Killer.
The old and well-known remedy, which has acquired a world-wide renown for the cure of sudden colds, coughs, etc., weak stomach, general debility, nursing sore mouth, cankered mouth or throat, liver complaint, dyspepsia, or indigestion, cramp or pain in the stomach, bowel complaint, painters' colic, Asiatic cholera, diarrhoea and dysentery, has lost none of its good name by repeated trials, but continues to occupy a prominent position in every family medicine chest.

INDISPENSIBLE.—There are some simple remedies indispensable in every family.—Among these, the experience of years assure us, should be recorded Perry Davis' Pain-Killer. For both internal and external application we have found it of great value; especially can we recommend it for colds, rheumatism, or fresh wounds and bruises.—Christy Era. v2 n12 4w

PERRY DAVIS' PAIN-KILLER.

Dyspepsia can be, and is cured every day by the use of Perry Davis' Pain-Killer.—This is the most wonderful and valuable medicine ever known for this disease. Its action upon the system is entirely different from any other preparation known. The patient, while taking this medicine may eat anything the appetite craves.

Gentlemen:—It is with pleasure that I recommend the use of your Pain-Killer. It is all that is required of it. In a household it is invaluable. I have used it in my family for the last three years, and at all times found it a sure cure for cholera morbus, pain in the stomach, diarrhoea, and all such complaints. I have always found it a specific. No family should be without it in the house. Respectfully yours,
JAS. HOLMES, De Graff, Ohio.

Perry Davis' Vegetable Pain-Killer derives much of its popularity from the simplicity attending its use, which gives it a peculiar value in a family. The various diseases which may be reached by it, and in their incipient stages eradicated, are among those which are peculiarly fatal if suffered to run; but the curative magic of this preparation at once disarms them of their terrors.—In all respects it fulfills the condition of a popular medicine.

The Biblical Recorder, in speaking of the Pain-Killer, says:

"We believe the public generally have great confidence in this medicine. The numerous testimonials in its favor from well known clergymen and missionaries are well calculated to convince any but the most skeptical. If there be any of our readers who still doubt touching the magic powers of Perry Davis' Pain-Killer to relieve pain, we advise them to buy one bottle, and give it a trial. We never knew it to fail." 12
