HOW WILL THEY RECONCILE IT.—At the late celebration of the Fourth at Dayton, a toast was offered endorsing universal and unrestricted suffrage, as also one laudatory of Abraham the "lamented." These toasts were cheered by about twenty persons, the most of whom were fanatical fools—both toasts received about the same endorsement and by about the same parties.

Now there is a striking inconsistency in the ardent admirers of "the late lamented" being the same who endorse nigger voting. We will let Lincoln speak for himself, that the imbeciles and quack politicians who disgraced the fourth of July lately by offering toasts of the character above mentioned, may see themselves as others see them. There are many sensible men—belonging to the republican party, and such cannot but view the disgraceful exhibition at the late celebration in the same light that we do.

In 1858, Mr. Lincoln (see Debates with Douglas) said:

"I am not and never have been in favor of making voters or jurors of negroes, nor of qualifying them to hold office, nor to intermarry with white people; and I will say in addition to this, that there is a physical difference between the black and white races, which I believe will forever prohibit the two races from living on terms of social and political equality. And inasmuch as they cannot so live, while they do remain together there must be the position of superior and inferior, and I, as much as any other man, am in favor of having the superior position assigned to the white race"

GERMANS AND IRISH, READ AND REFLECT.—A correspondent writing to the Boston Investigator, speaks of the "thousands of ignorant and filthy Irish and Germans" that infest this country. See Investigator of May 14, 67.

What do our Irish and German fellow citizens think of voting with a party that persists in stigmatizing them and their kindred as being ignorant, filthy and degraded? This same republican party hold that the negro is in all respects a worthy citizen, and one fit to be honored with any office the American people may bestow. We are surprised when contemplating that in times past, Irish and Germans have aided by their ballots to place men in power who thus unblushingly smite them.

NOTICE to Postmasters in Oregon, Washington, and Idaho:—The primary object of the Postoffice Department in the establishment of a Distributing Postoffice at Great Salt Lake City, and placing a daily mail service between that city and the Dalles, was to afford more rapid mail communication between the Atlantic States and the State of Oregon, and the Territories of Washington and Idaho. And in order that Oregon and adjacent Territories may reap the benefit of these new arrangements, mail matter for the East, as well as from the east, should pass over the route via Boise City.

Packets of letters for the East, therefore, should be addressed "Salt Lake City, D. P. O., instead of "Sacramento, D. P. O." or "St. Joseph, Mo., D. P. O.," as heretofore. And all such packages made up at Postoffices west of the Cascade mountains should be forwarded in pouches tagged "Portland," whilst those made up at offices east of the Cascades should be forwarded in pouches tagged "Boise City."

The above arrangements are not intended to apply to Postoffices in the counties of Jackson and Josephine, in Oregon, which offices will receive and forward their mail as heretofore, viz: via Sacramento.

It should also be borne in mind that letters for the East go overland, unless otherwise ordered. If parties prefer that their letters do not go overland, they should be careful to mark them "Steamer."

Attention is also called to the importance of wrapping all packages of letters in paper of proper strength, tying them securely with twine, and addressing them plainly, as required by the Regulations.

QUINCY A. BROOKS,
Special Agent P. O. Department,
Portland, Oregon, July 1, 1867.

EXACTLY SO.—Some allege that the fact that the Hon. J. A. Comerford does not belong to the Order of Good Templars was the principal objection to his delivering the Oration. Then why call to the stand and listen to his horrid, coarse, undignified, and soul-grating harangue, a man who does not belong to the Order, and for reasons too, which are understood by the entire community.

Tillamook Correspondence.
The following letter from Tillamook county should have appeared last week:

The trail to this place is good most of the way, fifteen miles of mountains rather rough—men from toll-house are mending that part. There is a town laid off at this place: two stores, one blacksmith shop, post office, warehouse, boat-yard, a few family residences, farm houses, &c.—school house in process of erection.

There is a town being laid off at the mouth of the bay: they have a store, hotel, gun-shop, three or four dwellings, with two opposition lines of sail boat packets, making daily trips between them. This place and South Prairie where is a hotel, saw mill, post-office, toll house and quite a number of good farms. There are salmon fisheries prepared on this bay at Nehalem, ten miles up the coast, and Netaroh eight miles down, ready to put up a great quantity of excellent salmon which begin to run in about three weeks from now. Several fine coal beds have been found in the vicinity, tumors of "ile" are not though this is rumour the rest facts. The finest spruce, cedar and larch timber in the world abound on the streams putting into the bay—six in number, and all navigable to a greater or less extent for sea-going craft—the shores and flats abound with oysters, clams, cockles, crabs, lobsters, mussels, &c. The bay and rivers are literally full of founders, porgees, herrings, bass, sardines, trout, and salmon in their season. The waters through the rainy season being literally covered with ducks, geese, herons, pelicans, swans, cranes and all sorts of water fowl; and the surrounding points overgrown with huckle, salmon, sallah and all other sorts of hardy and good berries, and supporting almost unlimited numbers of elk, bear, panthers, &c., in short you see that all this place needs, to become the greatest summer resort for Oregon, is a wagon road to the Willamette valley, and about one-fifth of the judicious puffing that has been bestowed on places of much less real merit. This is destined to be an important place, and the time is not far distant, either. Last but not least let me say there is not a saloon in the county.

Proceedings of the Democratic Meeting, held in Lafayette, July 6, 1867.

[Concluded from last week.]

The following supplemental resolution was, after some discussion, adopted:

Resolved, That in future, the Democratic County Central Committee be composed of nine members: each precinct in the county to be represented by one member who shall also be Chairman of the local organization of his precinct.

Following is the Central Committee:

- Lafayette, Hank W. Allen, Chairman.
- McMinnville, W. T. Newby.
- North Yamhill, David Powell.
- Willamette, Mark Sawyer.
- South Yamhill, A. W. Clark.
- East Chehalem, D. Everts.
- Amity, George Springer.
- Dayton, Willis Starr.
- West Chehalem, J. I. Ferguson.

HAS SLIGHTED US.—"Old Flaxbrake" is prosecuting a pilgrimage through Oregon speaking to the natives. From the list of his appointments as published in the Unionist we observe that Yamhill is not to be visited.—Yamhill is regarded as being entirely beyond redemption; hence the Copperheads are to be left in undisputed possession of the field.

ENCOURAGING.—At the Democratic Mass Meeting held in this place on Saturday, July 6th, inst., the following resolutions in endorsement of the COURIER were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, By the Democracy of Yamhill county in Mass Convention assembled, that we recognize in the Lafayette COURIER an able, fearless and effective champion of the political tenets we profess.

Resolved, That we regard it as the duty of all Democrats, to the full extent of their ability to foster and encourage with material aid, their local organ, to the end that it may be enabled to work the more effectively for the promotion of the cause which all true patriots have at heart.

HARD UP.—The Republicans of California having so managed their nominators as to disgust all the decent journals and canvassors of the party in that State, have been reduced to the necessity of casting about for some "out-side barbarian" who will engage to do their dirty work for them. According to Gov. Woods of this State has been applied to, and has accepted the responsible task of enlightening the faithful of the Golden State. Of course the Governor gets paid for the job, or he would not undertake the fruitless tour.

COULD ENDURE HIM NO LONGER.—The Centinel flourished at the head of its editorial column for about nine months, the name of Gen. Grant for the Presidency in 1868. That great name has been ruthlessly hauled down. Query: Has Grant changed, or has the editor proved ineffectual?

A Falsehood Piloried.

The Unionist of July 8th, contains a correspondence from Dayton, which amounts to a tissue of false statements from beginning to end. No person not self convicted of having performed a very disreputable and dirty part in the transactions misrepresented by this correspondent could have fabricated such a thing. How natural it is for persons guilty of conduct at once infamous, disgraceful and criminal, to endeavor to shift the onus to other shoulders.

To the end that justice, decency, and the commonest attributes of truth shall not be outraged with impunity, Mr. R. P. Bird, Chairman of the Committee to procure speaker, &c., and against whose standing for truth and veracity nothing can be alleged, makes the following statement:

As Chairman of the Committee charged with selecting speaker, &c., for the occasion of the celebration of the late 4th of July at Dayton, and being myself present at said celebration, I deem it due to truth and justice to state first: That if the account of the affair purporting to have been written by some person at Dayton in the Unionist contains three truthful statements I am unable to discover them.

Secondly, The Committee to procure speaker, &c., was not composed of "two Democrats and one Union man," as is alleged in the Unionist. It was wholly composed of Republicans.

Thirdly, Comerford was not catechised as to whether he "had been in the rebel service."

And fourthly: The following which appears in the said Unionist correspondence is made out of whole cloth:

"May all places of honor and trust in our government ever be held by men both loyal and temperate."

Upton of the COURIER, was called upon to respond, but he declined, stammering out that he could not endorse that sentiment.

Upton was not called upon to respond to any "toast," besides no such toast was read.

PAY OF ARMY OFFICERS.—The National Intelligencer says: A paragraph that originally appeared in the New York Tribune, and which is being extensively copied in the newspapers throughout the country, relative to the present pay of officers of the army, gives a very exaggerated statement of the amount of salary received by them. For the purpose of correcting this error the following statement of the pay belonging to each grade has been carefully prepared, and represents the amount per annum received in each grade, after deducting the income tax:

A general receives	$16,465 10
A lieutenant general	13,919 10
A major general	7,956 85
A brigadier general	5,513 50
A colonel	3,068 20
A lieutenant colonel	2,734 70
A major	2,403 15
A captain, cavalry	1,909 15
" " foot	1,738 15
A first lieutenant, cavalry	1,538 93
" " foot	1,527 10
A second lieutenant, cavalry	1,538 93
" " foot	1,400 90

This includes the additional pay voted by the Thirty-ninth Congress, which lasts for two years from July 1, 1866. For every five years' service as an officer in any grade an addition of $109 50 per annum is made. Officers who are not on duty with troops, or who are not furnished with quarters in kind, receive in lieu of them a certain sum per month, which varies in different localities. The amount is based upon the rate of rent and the price of fuel. About one-seventh of the officers of the army, by the nature of their duties, receive the latter allowance; and in a large majority of cases it is found to be not an equivalent to the quarters and fuel furnished by Government.

MIGHT HAVE MADE THEMSELVES EVEN.—Had there been any Democrats present at the celebration, (?) sufficiently low-bred, and with instincts at once so damnable, "toasts" of a very extravagant character might have been read by them in order to still further disgrace the proceedings. Democrats are proverbial for a clear understanding of the fitness of things, and hence never mix politics where politics should be ignored.

The ALBANY celebration is spoken of by the Democrat as having been a decided success. The Hon. L. F. Grover was orator of the day, and was of course capable of rising above the petty political foibles of the day in the discharge of this high and responsible duty.

COMMUNICATION from Salem will not appear in the COURIER. We know not by whom it was sent. As a condition precedent to publishing communications we must have the author's name.
