The Unionist tries to make us say that the Churches and Good Templars generally conspire with doggeries in elections. Our remarks concerning the Portland election are quoted in proof. That the doggeries furnished Hoffman's main support, the Unionist will not pretend to deny; and that Good Templars and Church members—perhaps not a majority of either—seconded the efforts of rum holes, is equally clear. Saloons that make pretensions to respectability of course were not subsidized, while those of the lower order played into the hands of the Hoffman influence the entire day. The fact of the Democratic ticket being triumphantly elected with this exception proves something, does it not, Mr. Unionist? And then, on what other hypothesis can you account for Hoffman receiving the unprecedented majority of 208 votes?

Church members and Good Templars are as liable as other people to mistake their duty in such cases. We have no idea that the Good Templars of Portland or elsewhere, will knowingly become the allies of the doggerie influence, let the Churches do as they may.

A HEAVY UNDEXTAKING.—The San Francisco Flag, whose editor is a candidate for State Printer, is making a fight, solitary and alone in favor of the California "Union" nominations. A few of the interior papers support the ticket, but the Bulletin, Call, Union, Alta and Bee, backed by many interior papers, are likely to prove too many for the Flag.

LECTURE IN CHEHALEM.—On last Saturday eve, S. Harlburt, Esq., delivered a lecture in the Nelson Meeting House in West Chehalis. Subject—Education.

In 1864 it was rank treason, according to Republican logic, to disagree with the President; for, said they, the President is the Government. The people know who the traitors are now; they are found in the ranks of the Republican party, assailing with vituperative epithets, the "legal Government," i. e., Andrew Johnson.

MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS.—SHEET MUSIC, &c., &c.—At W. T. Shanahan's extensive Music Store on First street, Portland, may be had every musical instrument one can think of, from a French Harp to the latest and best styles of Pianos, Melodeons, &c., &c. Sheet music, a large supply always on hand. They fill orders from a distance at this establishment, and guarantee satisfaction. Try them.

AUCTION AND COMMISSION.—Whether one desires to purchase any article or not, it will repay the trouble to attend Mr. A. B. Richardson's auctions on Wednesdays and Saturdays, Front street, Portland, just to see what bargains are to be had there. And Mr. Richardson is clever and agreeable. No one can regret time spent in his company.

WAS IT PARSIMONIOUSNESS?—Although the Courier circulates generally throughout the county of Yamhill, and is therefore a better medium through which to reach the people of county, we were given no advertisement of the School Land Sales which have just been concluded at this place. It is thought by many, that had the people been given proper notice of the purpose to sell said School Lands, at least a thousand dollars more would have been realized from said sales in this county.

CLUB ELECTION.—The Lafayette B. & C. Ball Club recently elected the following officers, viz: President, Dr. H. F. White; Vice President, R. P. Bird; Secretary, W. R. Cary; Treasurer, J. Dixon; Umpire, Hank W. Allen; Captains, Wm. Millican and R. P. Bird.

ANNUAL EXHIBIT.—In next issue we shall publish the annual exhibit of Yamhill county finances, for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1867. It was handed in by the County Clerk, S. U. Adams, during last week, but owing to a press of other matter, we were compelled to defer its publication one week.

GENERAL? Palmer, we are told, says he would infinitely prefer to "shake the hand of a nigger rather than than that of a Democrat." Of course he would. The man who would embrace the filthy, lousy, and degraded wretch an of Indian, "Tom Sucky," the murderer of Dr. Whitman and family would not be likely to feel at home in the society of decent people.

MAKE READY.—By reference to the proclamation to be found elsewhere in this paper, it will be seen that the time "draweth nigh" when parties against whom U. S. Int. Rev. Taxes have been assessed will be called upon by Mr. Crawford, Collector for the District of Oregon, for payment of the same. Tuesday and Wednesday, the 6th and 7th days of August ensuing, the Collector will be in Lafayette for the purpose of receiving for taxes. In case payment is not promptly made, costs and penalties will be added. The Collector, under the amended law has no discretion in the premises.

AN IOWA LADY CAPTURED BY THE INDIANS.—The Denver Daily Tribune of the 28th ult. contains an item in regard to some diabolical Indian atrocities committed on the plains. It says:

"George Williams, 17 years of age, arrived in town yesterday, who says he escaped from the Indians at the burning of Fairview station.—He had been with them for two years, having been captured by the Blackfeet at the headwaters of the Yellowstone, and taken from the Blackfeet by the Cheyennes. His uncle, aunt and three children were captured with him, who were all murdered. He says four women were prisoners with the Cheyennes—one of whom was the wife of a doctor in Council Bluffs. He had never spoken with them but once, when the Indians threatened to kill him, and he never tried it again. He had never tried to escape before, and when he made off the Indians tried to recapture him. He made for the nearest station and was successful. His horse fell dead just before reaching it."

It is to be hoped that that the day is coming fast when the mewling sympathy for the "poor Indian" will be changed into prompt and sweeping action against them—so that every day of each month will not be made bloody in history's record by the merciless tomahawks of the Indians of the plains. Conciliatory, and even begging measures have been tried to secure their good will and stay their relentless barbarism, but every endeavor has thus far been in vain; and the only protection now remaining to the white man forced to travel through their territory, is the use of every advantage which both Government and individuals can bring forward. The labored sentimentalism of dyspeptic humanitarians about the "rights of the cruelly used red man" glit ter beautifully on the pages of novels and sound well when read in the parlor or whined on the tribune, but they are confoundedly poor comfort to carry a man through the horrors of a massacre, or the rifle shots of the ambush. It is the duty of the Government to make the trainways to the Pacific as safe for the home hunting emigrant as the railways of New England; and if the dull thug of the tomahawk can not be stopped any other way, let the arm which so mendaciously brandishes it be paralyzed in the most speedy way that the science of war affords.—Iowa State Register. (June 12)

We endorse the logic of the Register, exactly.

THE mutual admiration clique which assembled around the stand at the celebration(?) cheered the sentiment, "Radicalism, supported by a hundred thousand bayonets—may they never grow less." How naturally cowards seek to ensconce themselves behind a wall of bayonets—careful the while that they are wielded by others than their kind.

APPROPRIATE.—Near the close of the celebration, (?) one J. W. Watts attempted to procure a vote of endorsement of the disgraceful proceeding of the day. Of course he failed. This man who came unsolicited to the defense of the Good Templars, is not a member of the Order. Every one knows why.

SPEAKING OF THE political portion of Mr. Moore's Fourth of July Oration at Olympia, the Standard says: The sentiments and feelings of four-fifths of the audience cannot be expressed in print.

It is without—in this. It would have been bad enough to have introduced personal political views upon a political gathering, unobjectionable, but when the celebration of our national holiday is made the occasion to insult a large portion of the audience by declaring the negroes, even with the qualification used by the speaker, superior to the whites, then it becomes necessary to guard against a repetition of such an affront. We are pleased to learn that even many of the Radicals have a sufficient sense of propriety to condemn this part of Mr. Moore's oration.

LUBRICATING OILS.—Dick Simpson has just received a stock of Lard Oil, as also Chinese Machine Oil.
