I was averse to society, had evil forebodings and self-distrust, and was entirely unfited for any duties of life. From 1855 to the summer of 1863, I employed the very best medical talent I could frad, but in ne instance obtained more than temporary relief. I liad about concluded there was no relief for me in this world, but reading Dr. Doherty's advertisement, I determined to try him, though I did not expect much benefit from bis treatment.
