O. C. R .- We venture the opinion that there never were gentlemen of mor sterling integrity or indomitable energy, than the Directors of the Oregon Central Railroad, connected with any enterprise. Whea the subject of laying a track for the iron horse through the Willamette Valley, the scheme seemed mythical, to all but the ferseeing; but now the most incredulous are satisfied of its success, and only the envious and malicions have ought to say in opposition to the Road. The State is under many obligations to Mesers. Gaston, Newhy, Belcher, Whitson, Me Lineh and others connected with the enterprise.

During the week we have been favored with a number of calls; the social, affable, Chas. H. Birch, who took us to McMinnville to attend the jubilee, (useless to say Democratic, for there is and will be no oc casion for any other kind, except on the 4th of July, until the Railroad is built,) and extended to us many kindnesses, as he PROF. CARY'S SCHOOL. does to every one. J. H. Reed, who, on his road to Dallas dropped in upon us and was gone. Dr. Goucher, and others, too numerous to mention.
