Ought the President to be denounced in the house of his enemies? Much more ought he to be denounced in the house of his friends for refusing in the absence of any necessity to occupy or retain the exercise of powers greater than those which are exercised by any imperial magistrate in the world. Judge ye. I trust this fault of deciding imperial power too hastily, tendered by a too confident Congress, may be forgiven by a generous people.

It will be a sad hour for the republic when the refusal of unnecessary powers and patronage by the President shall be held as crime. When it shall be so considered, the time will have arrived for setting up at the White House an Imperial throne, surrounded by the Executive with Imperial legions.

To day we publish the call for the State Convention as also a call for a meeting of the Central Committee of this County. It is hoped every member of the Committee will be present as business of importance will come before them.

To-day we publish the card of Messrs. Carey and Davis, teachers. We hear favorable reports from their school, but have not yet had the time to visit them.

We have not yet received our new roller. We trust our friends will bear with the weather, we're not responsible for the stoppage of navigation.

During the last week our people had a bold sport sleigh riding.

The damage to the bridge between this place and McMinnville, caused by the recent flood, has been repaired.

As by repeated efforts a cress is mounted upon the summit of a hill and instantly brown down, so may we ourselves by our virtues and our vices be elevated or cast down.

Atom or vinegar is good to set colors red green or yellow.

Frozen potatoes makes more starch than fresh ones; they also make nice cake.

A hot shovel held over varnished furniture will take out white spots.

He is a wise man who knoweth that his words should be suited to the occasion his love to the worthiness of the object, and his anger according to his strength.

TROUBLE AMONG PENNSYLVANIA RADICALS. Harrisburg, Pa., Jan. 7.—Much excitement prevails in Legislative circles over the refusal of nine Republican members to abide by the action of the caucus which nominated the officers. This renders the Republican majority of 8 in the House powerless.

PRESIDENT JOHNSON'S PROBABLE COURSE IN THE STANTON CASE.—New York, Jan. 18.—The World says that the President will issue no orders to Stanton. The latter can issue no orders by the President's authority. At the Cabinet meeting the members compared notes as to what occurred at the meeting on Tuesday, when Grant was present, and Grant admitted the correctness of the President's statement of the agreement that Grant was to hold on to the office, or give timely notice, to enable the President to appoint another Secretary.

Grant however retired immediately on receiving notice of the official action of the Senate. Grant admitted this in the presence of Gen. Sherman.

The President expressed himself in most positive terms respecting the new reconstruction measures before Congress, claiming that he was directly elected by the people as well as Congress, but that he would resist the encroachments upon his constitutional authority with all the power at his command.

Chicago, Jan. 19.—Washington special says that Secretary McCulloch has forbidden the heads of Bureaus of the treasury department to recognize Stanton as Secretary of War until his status in that department is settled. It is said that similar orders have been issued to the other executive departments. It is also said that the President intends to issue a proclamation forbidding officers of the army to hold any communication with Stanton as Secretary of War, and not to obey any orders that he may issue. The impeachment of Johnson is strongly talked of by the House should he refuse to recognize Stanton, Congress never exhibited such a settled determination to stand squarely to the position assumed.

THE RADICAL CONGRESS

After the expiration of the morning hour the House resumed the consideration of the Reconstruction bill. Wood addressed the House on the bill, and denounced other measures just adopted by Congress, such as the bill to degrade Gen. Hancock and the reinstatement of Stanton, and the Supreme Court bill. He declared the present bill a monstrous, and the most infamous of the many infamous measures of this infamous Congress. Bingham made a question of order on the last expression. The Speaker sustained the question of order, and said that Wood had an opportunity to explain. Wood said he had no explanation to give. The Speaker said that Wood could only proceed by consent, and then put the question whether Wood should be allowed to proceed. The House emphatically refused permission. Dawes then offered a resolution of censure, directing the Speaker to pronounce censure at the bar of the House. It was adopted by a strict party vote. The Speaker then proceeded to pronounce censure upon Wood, who then asked permission to proceed with his remarks. The House again refused.

Beck argued against the bill. Farnsworth spoke in its support. In the course of his remarks, speaking of Hancock, he said that whoever commended himself to the affection of the rebel element, also commended himself to his rebel brethren on this floor. Morgan made a point of order against the last words. The Speaker decided the words not proper to be used in reference to members of this House. After an attempt to impeach Farnsworth by the Democratic members, he withdrew the words "on this floor," and was allowed to proceed. After further discussion, the House adjourned.

MARYLAND SENATOR.

Baltimore, Jan. 17.—William T. Hamilton has been elected Senator. The vote stood—Hamilton 56, Swann 46.

Gen. Meade issued his order requiring Gov. Jenkens to pay the expenses of the Convention, which the Gov. refuses to do, alleging that Congress, and not the State called the Convention.—Gen. Meade does not propose to meet his arguments, but to remove him.

TO THE AFFLICTED OF ORE

Don. Greeting: Dr. G. W. BROWN still continues to treat the eye. Surgical operations skillfully performed on the eyes for film, cataract, strabismus or cross eyes, and all operations that are regularly performed on the eyes. Many patients can be seen at his office in all stages of recovery. None need stay away, for a cure is certain in all the various diseases of the eyes. The Dr. would call the attention of the afflicted to the fact that he is prepared to treat the following diseases; Rheumatism in all its various forms, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Tumours, Cancer and Fungoid Growths, wherever located, Bronchitis, Consumption where a case is curable, and all various diseases of the human body.

The Dr. would call the attention of those who have injured themselves, by improper indulgence, or are afflicted with loss of sexual powers, Seminal or Night Emissions, and all the horrid consequences of self abuse.

The Dr. would say to the public, that he has again commenced the manufacture of his celebrated medicines for the benefit of those who are not in reach to get treatment. They can be had of all druggists and medicine dealers on the Pacific coast.

The Dr. does not claim for them, as much as is claimed by the manufacturers of patent medicines generally, that they will cure everything. They are only intended for what they say they will cure. They only pretend to cure one thing within itself, and no more, and it is sure to do so. A good recommendation for the medicine is found in its use.

List of Dr. G. W. BROWN'S Celebrated medicines. Blood and Liver Syrup, Lung Balsam, Eye Lotion, Lintiment, Ague Care, Pain Eradicator, Vermifuge, Tonic Bitters, Pile Ointment, Specific Balsam for Gonorrhoea, Gleet, Stricture and Gravel, and all the various diseases of the Kidneys and bladder.
