Presidential Platform.

Under the caption the New York Tribune of Jan. 1st. says.

It is quite obvious that, if the Blacks are to be enfranchised, now is the time. Ten States wherein three-fourths of them reside are now in process of Reconstruction. It is impossible to dodge, or even to postpone, the Main Question. If those States shall now be reconstructed and readmitted on the assumption that "This is a White-Man's Government," in which Blacks have no rights but such as Whites may see fit to accord them, there is no rational ground of hope that the former will be enfranchised within this century. True, we shall "fight 'em, fight 'em," for genuine against sham Democracy, as we have done in our own State for the last quarter of a century; but if the Blacks are not now accorded the full rights of citizens, it is not probable that they will be in the course of the present century.

This question is overshadowed. No other of comparable importance now divides our countrymen. Beside it, all questions of preference for A. B. or C. as next President seem frivolous—puerile. And it is clear that the great majority so think and feel.

Now we can easily comprehend that those who are agreed in principle should differ as to men, and that good politicians should select their most popular man wherever with to secure the triumph of their principle. We can even see why they should say "Let us fight the battle on our candidate, who is popular, rather than on our principle, which, however just, is violently opposed, and is odious to many who favor our candidate." So far, all is intelligible.

There are those who deem it practicable, and even desirable, to elect Gen Grant on what we may distinguish as the Dry Goods platform, which ignores politics and seeks to prosecute a canvass "exclusively of a business character." That, perhaps, might be, provided the Republican masses could feel assured that a triumph this second would redound to the establishment of Impartial Freedom throughout our country. But every such article as that of The Times, above quoted from is calculated to render this result impossible, by causing thousands of Republicans to fear that they are to be Johnsonized once more.

And yet some of our Oregon radicals are persistent in their "Union men may honestly differ" dodge, or in the expressive language of Mr. Weely, "the Dry Goods platform," they being very careful to "fight the battle on our candidate who is popular, rather than on our principle, which however just, and is odious to many who favor Candidate. So far all is intelligible" to them, and we think will be equally intelligible to the whole people of Oregon.

It is within the bounds of possibility for them to catch a few gulls by this old State and worn out dodges, though we doubt whether even the most foolish can again be thus entangled; and certainly no reading, or thinking man within the limits of the State, can be found, who can be made to vote with them, who does not to the fullest extent endorse "Impartial suffrage."

There, why not quit your double dealing and make a square fight on the great questions that every American knows to be the questions at issue between the parties, prominent among which is "universal suffrage."

OREGON HERALD.

(THIRD YEAR) The "Oregon Herald" is published by the Oregon Herald Publishing Association, "Daily and Weekly, in the City of Portland, No. 7, Washington Street.

Beriah Brown, Editor.

The Daily is issued every morning (Mondays excepted) It is delivered in the city at 37 1/2 cents per week, payable in the City, and mailed to subscribers at $10 a year. In politics the Herald is uncompromisingly Democratic, faithfully adhering to the Jeffersonian creed of equal and exact justice to all, special privileges to none; the support of the General Government in all its delegated powers, and the State Governments in all their reserved rights—the Constitution as the only basis of Union and guarantee for our liberties and future safety. It will ever subordinate party to patriotism, and submit all political difference to the test of free and fair discussion, with perfect toleration. It is also devoted, in a great measure, to the special interests of the city and surrounding country—to developing and fostering the commercial, agricultural, manufacturing and mining resources, in the element in which Oregon and its neighboring Territories are so abundantly endowed by nature. It possesses all the available advantage of a first-class newspaper, having all the Telegraphic Dispatches and general news, together with good local and commercial reports.

THE WEEKLY HERALD

(The Largest Newspaper in Oregon) Is issued every Saturday morning, from the same office, at $3 a year, payable in advance. It is printed on a large, durable sheet of eight pages, making forty-eight columns of reading matter including all the telegraphic despatches, political and general news, miscellaneous collections and commercial reports of the Daily, making a valuable family newspaper for all classes of society.

The publishers have the satisfaction of announcing positively that the experiment of establishing a first-class Democratic paper in Portland—which was regarded with a much doubt at the time—has proved a success. The Herald is now upon a firm basis, and its continuance is a guaranteed fact. This has only been accomplished by a large outlay of money by a few individuals, which can only be remunerated by the active exertions of the friends of the paper throughout the State. The cost to the paper of telegraphic despatches alone, has been nearly $500 for the past year—which is more than the entire expenses of publishing any weekly newspaper in the State. No expense or effort will be spared to make the Herald in future second to none in the facilities of a first class newspaper, and the assistance of all interested in the enterprise, is confidently relied upon. The third volume commences on the 14th of March, 1868.

A. E. WAULT, President. Oregon Herald Publishing Association. T. PATTERSON, Secretary.

A. K. LAUDENSLAGER, President. H. M. DEFRANCE, Secretary.

S.T-1860-X. A great French Physician has discovered a new and simple method of curing the disease in the stomach. It is neglected to fortify the system against changes of climate, weather and food. The greatest secret of health is to keep the condition of the stomach and blood regular and uniform, so that changes from Heat to Cold, from Dry to Damp, etc., cannot upset the machinery of the body, and breed disease. Now, it is a fact, positive and well-known, that there is no such bulwark and assistant to the stomach as PLANTATION BITTERS. This splendid Tonic is now used by all classes of people for every symptom of a "Stomach out of order." The secret of it is this: Plantation Bitters are certain to correct the juices of the stomach, set all its machinery at work, and enable it to resist and throw off the approaching danger. The tendency of the operations of Nature is always towards a cure; all she needs is a little assistance at the proper time. How much more reasonable and sensible it is to have along with a gentle, yet powerful Tonic, to deluge and weaken and defeat her curative processes with poisonous drugs and fiery mixtures, which only stupefy and plant the seeds of disease and death.

Important Testimonials.

- I owe much to you, for I never before the Plantation Bitters have saved my life. Rev. W. M. WAGGONER, Madrid, N. Y.
You will send me two bottles more of the Plantation Bitters. My wife has been greatly benefited by their use. Thy friend, ASA COKRAN, Philadelphia, Pa.
I have been a great sufferer from Dyspepsia, and had to abandon practicing. The Plantation Bitters have cured me. Rev. J. S. CATHRYN, Rochester, N. Y.
I have given the Plantation Bitters to hundreds of our disabled soldiers, with the most astonishing effect. G. W. D. ANDREWS, Superintendent Soldiers' Home, Cincinnati, O.
The Plantation Bitters make the weak strong, the languid brilliant, and are exhausted Nature's great restorer.
The public may rest assured that in no case will the perfectly pure standard of the PLANTATION BITTERS be departed from. Every bottle bears the fac-simile of our signature on a steel plate engraving, or it cannot be genuine.
Any person pretending to sell PLANTATION BITTERS in bulk or by the gallon, is a swindler and impostor. Beware of refilled bottles. See that our Private Stamp is UNREMOVABLE over every cork.
