The Herald,s Sensation Story."

The New York Herald's special correspondent at Washington, reports that there is a radical conspiracy on foot to extend the term of the President to ten years, strip the Supreme Court of its power to pass upon the constitutionality of any act of Congress, elect Grant in doubtful States by the bayonet, and an unlimited inflation of the currency by the National Banks. The radical papers prnounce this a sensation story, but it is true in part if of the whole difficulty between the president not in its entirety. The radical leaders have been engaged in a grand, conspiracy This, is the clearest summing up of the against the Constitution, the States and the liberties of the people for years. Their reconstruction policy is the result of a conspiracy to destroy the rights of the States stitutional means. They have no power over the suffrage question whatever, yet they are regulating it in ten States of the have ignored the Constitution in their insane thirst for power, and are engaged in a crusade against the rights of the people. Their detrmination to strip the Supreme Court of all power to pass upon the acts of Congress, is no secret, certainly, and that they intend to carry the next Presidential election anyhow-by foul means if. necessary-surely no one with the history of that party before nim can doubt. Absorbed and controlled as they are by an inordinate thirst for power and plander, the same motive which impels them to elect their candidate for the Presidency by unfair means will influence them to extend his term of office to ter years if teges which the beauty and harmony of a repub- sary. The report to the Herald, is not unreasonable. Indeed it is what may be expected under the circumstances. The impeachment and removal of President Johnson is a part of the grand conspiracy. They must have complete control of the to delapidate its walls or crumble its many Government to enable them to perfect and carry out their treasonable designs without interruption. With Ben. Wade in the without are never resisted, and the rotten Pre idential Chair, they feel that no obstacle will be thrown in their way, but on the contrary, all the power of the flovernment will be used to carry their place to a successful issue. What is a Radical.

A little boy asked his father the q restion, what is a radical? The "old man" undetook to explain the conundrum as fol-

A radical is a rapacious animal of the genus homo; a native of the New England states; but occasionly found in the middle and western states; a satanic spawn of Puritan parentage; conceived in sin; born in iniquity; nursed at the breast of jealeousy and self esteem; rocked in the cradle of prejudice and intolerance; educated in the school of low cunning and foul play, and lives by public and private plunder."
