HON. D. M. MC KINNEY, of Oregon City, will address his fellow citizens of Yamhill County, at LAFAYETTE To-morrow,

WEDNESDAY MAY 20 1868.

Republicans especially are invited as Mr. McK. has been acting with them until very recently.

Turn out everybody!!

GRAND RALLY

Senator Nesmith—will address his fellow citizens, before the Democratic Club, Saturday, May 30, 1868.

Yamhill County Canvass.

The various candidates for county office of Yamhill County will address their fellow citizens on the political issues of the day, at the following times and places, commencing at 1 o'clock of each day.

ARKANSAS is fairly reconstructed at last. Her people have adopted a State Constitution framed in accordance with the principles of a Republican form of government.—Alta.

Then the enfranchisement of the negro, the disfranchisement of a large portion, consisting of the most virtuous, intelligent and capable of the whites by force of the bayonet, constitutes a republican form of government. THE features of difference between this constitution and the old form of government consists in this, that under the old constitution the whites voted and the niggers did not; while in this the niggers vote, while but few of the whites are allowed that privilege.

PARENTAL BIOGRAPHY—In the biography of Gen. Grant, by his admiring father, he relates the following incident: "He once rode a mule in a circus with a monkey standing on his shoulders hanging on his hair. There was not a tremor in his nerves."

This is supposed to have been prophetic of Grant's present position—the Radical party representing the mule and Stanton the monkey.—Albany Times.

Will the father of the mule-rider tell us whether the great recent was brought up on the bottle?"

Our private advices from Washington are to the effect that United States Senator Yates entirely neglects his duties in the Senate. He is intoxicated nearly all the time, day and night. Unless he changes his course soon or resigns the Senate will expel him.—Chicago Journal.

It will be remembered that some time since Mr. Yates was a leading member of the Congress temperance society. But Washington City is a place where he who has a "whiskey tooth" is sure to be drawn in the vortex.

If Dave Logan were so unfortunate as to be Elected to Congress, how long would it be before he would be a drunken burning disgrace to the State? Radical voter, answer this to your own conscience and govern yourself accordingly in June.

Vote for Hon. C. H. Burch for State Senator.

A prominent republican, a resident of McMinnville precinct, after listening to Gov. Woods for an hour, left in great disgust, saying that he came to LaFayette to hear a discussion between gentlemen but to listen to an account of the comparative sizes of the babies of Oregon and New Hampshire, or a gaseonade about the war was "about played out," and that he intended to vote the Democratic ticket, as they had principles, while the blackkeys were but scrambling for public pap.

MOCASIN TRACKS, INDIANS ABOUT.—Some black-and-tan stole a picture of Gen. Grant from the Umatilla Press office.

STOLEN.—A. C. Martin Esq., living a short distance West of LaFayette had a saddle, bridle and pair of martingales stolen from his barn on last Friday night. The same night a gentleman from Polk County, by the name of Clark, who had a horse stolen the day before was in town on the lookout for his horse.

Thanks to J. N. Miller Esq. wagon maker, etc, for favors.

The rumps has postponed the final vote on the impeachment bubble until after the Chicago convention.

The County canvass of this County, commences next Thursday at East Chehalum.

Let every body attend the Grand Rally of the Democracy at LaFayette, on Saturday, May 30th at 10. Hon. J. W. Nesmith will be present.

During the week we had the honor of a call from Hon. L. F. Grover, and very many notable gentlemen of the State.

After Gov. Woods had finished his harangue last Saturday the Hon. L. F. Grover was placed upon the stand and made a short, but very able speech. After Mr. G. had commenced his speech, the band struck up its music and slowly drove off.

Dr. Mounts is now in McMinnville, those afflicted with any disease would do well to give him a trial.

On the 11th inst. Messrs Hare and Ferguson debated the issues of the day at the Court House. The discussion was very able and creditable to both parties.

Ben Butler, who stole more and fought less than any other general, during the war thinks, Johnson ought to be impeached on account of his speeches.

THE SIGNAL complains that our paper failed to reach him. We prize the Signal, as among our best exchanges, and we can only say if it be not the fault of some "umatilla post master," the failure was purely accidental.

THE PEOPLE are wearied of the misrule, profligacy, fraud, corruption and self aggrandizement that is fast forcing our country to poverty, bankruptcy and shame. They rally for relief in the Democratic fold.

BE NOT DECEIVED!—J. S. Smith will be elected to Congress. The white people of the State have so decreed. Let no white man sell his vote on the county ticket for a vote for Smith. The black-and-tans know Logan will be defeated and they will attempt to save their legislators ticket, and especially the State Senator by peculation and exchange. We can beat them from Coroner up to President. Then let every white man do his whole duty, which is to vote the entire white man's ticket.

Out at Chehalum the other day, a Rev. rad referred to his silver locks. "Tis well their candidate for vice President—Ben Butler is not here, or he'd steal them sure."

We received last week two large packages of papers, consisting of Harpers Magazine, Godey's Lady book and all the pictorials. Do you want to know from whom? Jack Stratman of course.

WANTS TO BET.—Z. Hall esq desires to bet five hundred dollars that Jo. Smith will beat Logan 100 votes in the State.

Impeachment bubble Bursted.

THE VOTE OF THE ELEVENTH ARTICLE. CHICAGO, May 16.—Noon.—The Senate has voted on the eleventh article. The vote stood 35 for conviction and 19 for acquittal. The following Senators voted with the Democrats: Fessenden, Fowler, Grimes, Trumbull, Van Winkle, Ross and Hederston. WASHINGTON, May 16.—12 m.—The Senate is now discussing a motion to adjourn.

A radical friend having Dave Logan freed, was asked what he thought would become of the black ticket in this county. He replied: V—(hic) l, I g—ates as vot it vil (hic) peter out.

Who wants a man who will get drunk and vomit like a dog in public position? The God and morality party.

IMPEACHMENT.—The Rump, fearing they could not succeed in convicting Mr. Johnson postponed the final vote to last Saturday. We believe the rads capable of further postponing the vote until they admit the nigger congressmen representing the Freedmans bureau and the military, although when accused of that intention they vehemently denied it in the Senate.

Logan does not desire the success of the Republican party at present.—Reveille.

DEMOCRATS were you cheated out of your meeting on the 16th?—Then turn out on the 30th to the GRAND RALLY at LaFayette.

Dont forget that McKinny talks to-morrow at 2 o'clock; and dont fail to be present.

REMEMBER.—The Hon. J. W. Nesmith has a national reputation as a man of mind, power, and purity, and do not fail to enjoy a rich treat on the 30th.

THE PRESIDENTIAL HANDICAP.—A writer in the New York Tribune thus enters Grant for the Presidential Handicap: "U. S. Grant, b. h., aged; dam Victory, sired by West Point; ridden by E. L. Washburn; colors, red, white and blue with a black hoop."

HON. C. G. CURL—the Democratic candidate for Prosecuting Attorney of this District was in town last week, and made a very able speech. Mr C is a young man of good parts and would make a very efficient and suprior Prosecuting Attorney. He is far superior in mental ability and legal knowledge to his opponent and every good citizen who desires the peoples business intrusted to safe and judicious hands should vote for Curl.

A radical candidate in this county, says he is "proud to own that he was born in Pennsylvania" This may be very gratifying to the candidate, but it is heavy on Pennsylvania.

THE 'LOW' SECRETARY OF WAR.—Senator Doolittle, in a speech, recently delivered in the Senate, made the following charge which was not contradicted: "That when Albert M. Brown withdrew from the Senate to join the rebellion, Edwin M. Stanton met him outside the door, and urged him to go on in his course, wishing him God speed, saying he was right in the course he was about to take."

I repeat, I am for the Union; I am for preserving all the States. I am for admitting into the council of the nation all their Representatives who are unmistakably and unquestionably loyal. A man who avows allegiance to the Government, and who swears to support the Constitution, must necessarily be loyal. A man cannot take that oath in good faith unless he is loyal.—ANDREW JOHNSON.

Ought the President to be denounced in the house of his enemies? Much more ought he to be denounced in the house of his friends for refusing in the absence of any necessity to occupy or retain the exercise of powers greater than those which are exercised by any imperial magistrate in the world. Judge ye. I trust this fault of declining imperial power too harshly, tendered by a too confiding Congress, may be forgiven by a generous people.

It will be a sad hour for the republic when the refusal of unnecessary powers and patronage by the President shall be held as a crime. When it shall be so considered, the time will have arrived for setting up at the White House an Imperial throne, surrounding the Executive with Imperial legions.—SEWARD

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN. The undersigned have turned over the notes and accounts due us to A. F. Forber for collection. Please take due notice and govern yourselves accordingly.
