LAFAYETT SCHOOL EXAMINATION-T Examination of this school, under charge of Mr., King and Miss Smith, came off last Saturday, in presence of a large concourse ofe people. The examination demonstrated the the great fundamental principle held to schollars and teachers had fully done all that could be asked of them by panents and trate. And as we have faithfully and friends.

and spectators seem more pleased with teachers and pupils than they were with onr school, and we predict that if Mr. King and Miss Smith are retained for two years, La Fayette school will rank inferior to none in the State. Miss Smith graduated first in her class, in the 'Sister's school of Portland, about one year ago, and promises to win an en- Senate of the United States in adjournviable reputation as a teacher.
