LOCAL AND DOMESTIC.

SHOOTING MATCH.—On last Saturday the "targeters" of Lafayette and vicinity enjoyed a shooting match for turkeys, geese and chickens. Chances were taken freely and some of the wildest shots made ever witnessed by mortal "shootist."

THE COMPLETE HERBALIST.—Dr Sheppard is canvassing this and perhaps other counties for a work bearing the above title. This book contains 500 octavo pages copiously illustrated, fully describing the character, history, property and uses of all the native and foreign medicinal plants, and is a complete instructor in all that pertains to domestic medicine.

GOOSE.—There were "gooses" shot for and "gooses" raffled on Saturday. And there were gooses raffled for one which was no "goos" but was non est however the last winner was the victim.

PICTURES.—Dr. Sheppard will call upon most persons in the county to show them a large variety of nice engravings which he is selling by subscription cheap. Adorn your homes.

Dr. Sheppard will soon introduce the Common Sense Sewing Machine among our people.

Dr. Littlefield has an attractive drug and musical instrument store at St. Joe.

A man named O'Brien, of Chehalum Valley had an examination before Esquire Moor on Monday, charged with an assault with intent to kill. He was acquitted.

LAFAYETTE ACADEMY.—Prof. Randall's second term is well patronized.

Prof. Adams' singing school at this place, Dayton and McMinnville, are spoken of in terms of praise. His system is somewhat original.

Our County Treasurer took over to the Capitol eight thousand one hundred and fifty dollars—seven hundred and Treasurer Kelly went to Salem this week to liquidate Yamhill's indebtedness to the State Treasury.

The Daytes finally reached McMinnville.

Roe Kelly has lately been recruiting his stock of drugs and family supplies.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

A Printer's Monument. New York, Jan. 3.—The compositors of the Tribune at a meeting to-day, approved of the proposition that printing offices of the United States should each give one or more pounds of old type for the purpose of making a statue of Greeley, to be erected over his grave. They ask the compositors throughout the country to give the proceeds of a thousand ems, set up on February 3d, next, the sixty-second anniversary of the birth of Mr. Greeley; the money to be forwarded to the President of the New York Typographical Union, No. 6, at 23 Duane street, of which Mr. Greeley was the first President.

Stokes Preparing for an Appeal. New York Jan. 9.—Council of Stokes are still engaged preparing a bill of exceptions. Stokes says that the exceptions number twenty-eight. The bill will be presented at the general term of Court of Oyer and Terminer Wednesday next; he has no doubt of obtaining a new trial.

Billiards. A billiard match for the championship of America and a diamond cue, was won by Cyril Dion. Dion scored 1,500 to Dally's 1,147.

A New Indictment. Woodhull and Col. Blood were arrested this morning and locked in the Ludlow Street Jail on a new indictment for circulating obscene literature through the mails.

Mr. Trumbull's Successor. Chicago, Jan. 10.—The Republican Legislative caucus at Springfield, last night nominated Governor elect, E. J. Oglesby, for United States Senator.

Wintry. Extreme cold weather with a severe snow storm, has prevailed throughout the north-west the past three days. The thermometer here yesterday, stood six degrees below zero; this morning at 8 o'clock, 8 degrees below. The trains on many railroads are snowed up in Iowa. On the Minnesota division of the Milwaukee and St. Paul railroad, a passenger train was snowed in yesterday three miles from any town. Railroads throughout Michigan are in a similar condition to those in Wisconsin, Iowa and Minnesota. The storm is accompanied with the most remarkable electric display ever known here, interfering considerably with telegraphing.

Poisoning. Albany, Jan. 10.—Elias Houghtaling has been arrested in Coenmano on suspicion of poisoning tea and sugar which he presented to a family named Hazleton in that place. Hazleton, his wife and one child partook of the sugar and tea. The husband and child are yet sick.

Frozen to Death. Cairo, Ill., Jan. 10.—Yesterday morning a small boat drifted past Columbus, Ky., containing two dead men. They were surrounded with a heavy field of ice so that they could not be reached from the shore. It is supposed that they were attempting to cross the river above and got caught in the ice and froze to death.

Georgia. Atlanta, Jan. 10.—The Governor's message was delivered yesterday. It shows the receipts for 1872 to be $2,101,340 84; disbursements, $1,335,207 14; public debt, $818,650. The valuation of State property is put at $334,462,468.

A Big Steal. New York, Jan. 19.—There is some excitement at Poughkeepsie at the discovery of the ex-County Treasurer, who is now under arrest for defrauding the county of $150,000.

Wholesale Poisoning. New Haven, Jan. 12.—Mrs. Lydia Sherman, reputed poisoner of three husbands and two or three children, but who was only convicted for manslaughter in poisoning her last husband, was sentenced to the State Prison for life yesterday. She received her sentence with the utmost indifference, and at its conclusion gracefully courted acknowledgement to the Court. It is reported that she has made a thrilling confession of her crimes.

Later.—The confession of Mrs. Sherman will be published to-morrow. It admits the poisoning of eight persons.

Fort Wayne, Jan. 13.—The trial of Hibler for the murder of his wife, was concluded on Saturday night. The jury rendering a verdict of murder in the first degree, fixing punishment at imprisonment for life.

New York, Jan. 13.—Mrs. Sherman's confession fills ten columns. It shows how she murdered eight persons. Two others lost their lives incidentally by her poisoning.

Col. Bradshaw, attorney, was absent from Portland during a portion of the week.

The Baptists of Polk county have had a protracted and successful meeting at Dallas.

According to the La Grande Sentinel small pox prevails in Eastern Oregon.

The steamer Calliope has gone through the locks to Portland.

The Herald contains an account of Indian troubles at the Siletz Reservation; a family was murdered and a house and barn burnt.

In their report the Board of Equalization condemned the practice of Assessors exempting the lands of rich corporations from assessment.

Whereas M. Fecker has circulated the report that I deal in poison liquors, I take this method of saying that I have done business in Lafayette many years, and that I have endeavored to act uprightly with the public generally, and my customers particularly, can only account for Fecker's conduct in the premises on the hypothesis that he fears fair and manly competition and there fore has resorted to cowardly falsehood to destroy his rival.
