M. E. Church, South.

R. T. WEATHERLY, PASTOR. Appointments for Lafayette Circuit as follows: First Sabbath, Happy Valley. Second, Armstrong's. Third, West Chehalis. Fourth, Lafayette.

M. E. Church, North.

D. F. SPAULDING, PASTOR. Appointments for Lafayette Circuit as follows: First Sabbath, Lafayette, 11 a. m., and 6 p. m. Second Sabbath, Amity, 11 a. m., 6 p. m. Third Sabbath, North Yamhill, 11 p. m. Fourth Sabbath, McMinnville, 11 a. m., and 7 p. m.

LOCAL AND DOMESTIC.

Thomas Faucett was arraigned before Justice Hembree of this precinct, upon a charge of having obstructed a highway by running a fence across what was supposed to be a county road running from the Portland road near the residence of Jacob Haynes, in Chehalis valley, to the Willamette river. The road was located in May, 1869, and was not fully approved until April 1873. After the road was approved, Mr. Faucett ran a fence across it. For this he was arrested and brought before Justice Hembree yesterday. He pleaded "not guilty" of the charge and the parties having waived a trial by jury the Court proceeded to try the case. In order to make out the case on the part of the State, Mr. Hurley, Attorney for the State offered in evidence the records of the county Court in the matter of the location of said road. Col. Bradshaw, counsel for defendant, promptly objected to the admission of said records in testimony on the ground that they did not show that any notice was posted up according to law, prior to the presentation of the petition. After argument, pro and con, the Court sustained the objection and held that the road was not legally located. Whereupon the Attorney for the State discontinued the case and Faucett walked forth a free man once more. Col. Bradshaw's look was "childlike and bland" as he saw his client escape the ugly fangs of the law. If this decision is correct a great many roads in this county are not legally established.

Some days since one Boise, living at Stringtown, Washington county, was arrested and taken before Justice Ball, of that county, on a charge of having violated the game law by killing and having in possession a deer. The accused pleaded "not guilty" and was tried by a jury and the jury failed to agree. The difficulty seemed to be in ascertaining whether the "game" he had was a deer or a wolf. He claimed that it was a "skinned wolf" and some of the witnesses testified that they could not tell whether it was a deer or a coyote. It is said that persons who hunt the "happy hunting grounds" now frequently kill wolves and eat them, and aver that they taste as good as venison. We presume that the difference between eating a crow and a grouse would be only trifling now that the game law prohibits the killing of the latter.

The catcher for the McMinnville base ball club, last Saturday, at St. Joe, was rigged out in appropriate festoonery and sports the largest mouth of any single mortal in Yamhill county, excepting only the facial opening of Antey Selders. After all, an open countenance is only indicative of free-heartedness.

EPIZOOTIC.—The epizootic has reached this place at last. All the horses in Mr. Dan. Johnson's livery stable, at this place are sick with the disease, and we hear of a number of cases in different parts of the county. We have not heard of any cases proving fatal.

Dr. Augustus C. Kinney, son of R. C. Kinney has been appointed to a responsible position in Bellevue Hospital, N. Y. Dr. Kinney is a Yamhill boy, and has acquired a standing in his profession second to none in Oregon. Persons who got their "start" in Yamhill always make great men.

Go to Kelly & Simpson's for drugs, medicines, &c.

For groceries, dry goods, &c., go to Ferguson & Bird's.

CAPTAIN JACK.

I am Captain Jack of Modoc fame. In justice let the world proclaim That I have gained a warrior's name, By martial deeds of glory.

Behold me in my lava caves Surrounded by my faithful braves, Who never were nor will be slaves, And thus begins my story.

These caves descended from my sires, And here my royal tube aspires, To keep alive the council fires Of my unconquered nation.

To leave these caves I don't propose, I ask no odds of friends or foes, Of bogus words or warlike blows From any combination.

Now Uncle Sam his agent sends And says Dear Jack come, let's be friends! And I will make completemen ds For all your coast and trouble.

Thinks I, dear sir, perhaps you may, But it must be some other day, And while considering what you say I'll prick this little bubble.

Proposing love for Mr. Lo, The Peace Commissioners come and go, And many promises bestow, In well arranged profusion.

But I will not be caught by these, But go and come and take my ease, Or take the war path when I please, And think it no intrusion.

Now, should a weasel go to sleep, You might, perhaps upon him creep, Or with a wild and fearless sweep, Disturb his peaceful slumber.

But I purpose to keep awake, And cautious as the wily snake, Watch every motion he may make, That would my peace chamber.

—CAPTAIN JACK.

The American Journal of Education for May is out, with a good list of articles.

"Unconscious Education," by Anna C. Brackett, the gifted principal of the St. Louis Normal School, is one of the sweetest and most suggestive poems of current periodical literature. The article, "Abbreviated Habits," presents very clearly truths which should have general recognition. The constant attention which is paid to the practical facts in regard to the value of the teacher's work, and the necessity of its being paid sufficiently and promptly, is a merit which should commend it to teachers for general circulation. The premium list, which is a liberal one, comprises many articles of use in schools, none of greater use, certainly, than Webster's or Worcester's Unabridged Dictionary, either of which is given for twelve subscribers.

For ten cents sent to A. H. Andrews & Co., 170 State St., Chicago, you will receive a specimen copy by return mail.

A letter has been received at this place from the postmaster at Monmouth, in which he states that the item, which appeared in our paper last week, in regard to postage on newspapers, was incorrect. He states that the new law only requires postage on exchanges and that at the office of delivery. We are pleased to make the correction and feel greatly obliged to the Postmaster at Monmouth.

PICTURES.—Messrs. Turney & Holdredge have pitched a tent in the vacant lot adjoining this office and are prepared to take pictures of all styles. We had some taken one day this week and can truly say that they are the best we ever had taken on the coast. As they will remain here but a short time, those wishing good pictures should call early.

ACCIDENT.—A man named Peter Gazier, a workman in the mill of Thos. Standley, on North Yamhill, was severely, if not fatally, injured in the head. In hauling a log up into the mill the machinery was stopped too suddenly and the "dog" flew out of the log, striking Gazier in the back of the head, just behind the ear, penetrating some three inches.

BASE BALL.—On Saturday last, at St. Joe, a match game of base ball was played between the McMinnville club and the Modocs of this place. The Modocs were victorious by a score of 57 to 44. Quite a large number of people from different portions of the county, were present to witness the game. There will be another game played to-morrow between the same clubs.

We have received the first number of the Progressionist, published at Cornelius. It presents a very neat appearance, and bids fair to be a success. It will be Republican in politics.

A camp meeting will be held near Dayton, commencing Thursday, June 26th, 1873. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

To any person sending us a club of four subscribers we will send a copy of Ballou's Monthly Magazine free for one year, with an elegant chromo. We will also send the COURIER and the Small Fruit Recorder for the same price as the COURIER. All orders for the foregoing must be accompanied with the cash.

The Academy at this place, under the charge of Prof. J. E. Hubbard is improving finely. The attendance is quite large and the management excellent. Prof. Hubbard understands his business and is the right man in the right place.

Tillamook county will, during the second week in July, next, have her first term of Circuit Court, and the prospect indicates that there will be about thirty limbs of the law in attendance. The good people of that secluded county will have a chance to get justice.

It is reported that our genial friend, B. A. Bailey, Collector of Customs for the port of Tillamook, is about to be removed from his office. We hope this report is unfounded. He got his appointment through the influence of Senator Corbett.

Dr. H. R. Littlefield at St. Joe., proposes to present to the winning club, in the game of base ball to be played at that place to-morrow, two splendid bats and a base ball.

Hon. C. M. Walker is deputy Clerk of Tillamook county. He is a man of fine ability and should be elected Clerk of that county at the next election.

To all new subscribers we will send the Couriers and the Mercantile Director for the price of the Couriers. The Mercantile Director is a sixteen page publication and contains valuable information for everyone. Published monthly at San Francisco, Cal.

Hereafter we shall devote one column of our paper to agricultural news. We would be pleased to have farmers and others write us short articles on the subject.

A piece of poetry, which we received from a correspondent at Dayton, appears in our columns this issue. It was received last week, but too late for insertion.

Who has the bonds for lots 1, 2 and three in block 67; lot 3 in block 68; lots 1, 2 and 3 in block 69. Please inform this office.

Road Supervisors' receipts, nicely printed and for sale at this office for $1.40 per hundred. Adapted for any district in the county.

Dr. H. R. Littlefield, St. Joe., has a good assortment of drugs, music, groceries, etc. Go and see for yourselves.

JOB WORK of all descriptions neatly executed at this office. Give us a call and see specimens.

See Thos. Standley's ad. in this issue.

Croquet is all the rage in this place at present.

Same old thing—flowers, good-looking girl, etc. Thanks.

The Modocs, base ballists, of this place are to have a new uniform.
