

NOTICE.

Henceforward, until further notice, Frank C. Withers and Frank Owen are authorized to collect and receipt for subscriptions and advertisements and other business of this office.

A STARTLING RECORD.—John Hipple, elected by a Republican Legislature, Senator of the United States, is said to be the youngest member of that branch of Congress.

CHOLERA.—The cholera has broken out to an alarming extent in several portions of the eastern States. In Nashville, Tenn., on June 22d, there were 55 deaths from this disease—mostly negroes.

The International Billiard Tournament for the championship of the world—three ball game—commenced in New York City, on June 23d, at Irving Hall.

A white man by the name of Pickett, who killed an Indian woman last September, on the Nez Perces Reservation, in Idaho Territory, has been found guilty and sentenced to be hanged at Boise City on the 25th of July.

The trial of Frank Walworth for the murder of his father, Mansfield Tracy Walworth, at the Sturtevant House in New York City, on Wednesday, the 23d of June.

Madame Duniway has it that Mitchell is a "womansrighter." We suppose he ought to be; at least he gave a hundred dollar bill to the "cause" once, and when he had a wife and children in a far off State struggling for bread.

The trial of Victoria Woodhull and Tinnie C. Claffin, for publishing obscene literature, commenced in New York City on Wednesday, the 23d of this month. The Judge refused a postponement of the trial.

Gov. Grover has given orders for a strict search to be made to discover the whereabouts of the two masked men who killed the four Modoc prisoners.

Grant incontinently cast off the "Hiram" of his name, but there was no "Hiram" lost in the process as Hipple took it right along.

Hipple has always signed himself in this State John Hiram Mitchell.

TERRITORIAL.

Madame Anna Bishop is in Salt Lake City coming Pacific coastward. Alta City, Utah, is properly named. The snow was two feet deep there on the 19th inst.

Serenading parties are greeted with salutes from double barreled shot-guns, in Salt Lake.

The Presbytery of Oregon and Washington Territory met at Olympia on Thursday, the 26th inst.

Work on the Washington Territory Penitentiary, on McNeil Island in Puget Sound is progressing.

The Owyhee Avalanche think that bullion shipments from that region this month will reach $100,000.

There are 2,783 good Saints in Salt Lake—at least there is said to have been that many signatures to the anti-liquor document.

The Cache valley folks say they can haul freight with ox and mule teams cheaper than the Utah Northern Railroad does, and make as good time.

The papers at Puget Sound are ahead. One of them admits into its columns a statement that a rival editor is a "leprous loafer." That beats.

At Olympia there is a pale, sad looking young man who attracts much attention on the streets. Inquiry developed the fact that he was breaking in tight boots.

Carshina Wallace, of Cowlyt county, W. T., has received the nomination for the Naval Cadetship at Annapolis, from Hon. O. B. McFadden. He was the only applicant.

N. P. Jacobs, of Michigan, formerly in the consular service of the Government, at Calcutta, has arrived at Kalama and will act as land agent for the Northern Pacific Railroad Company.

A few days ago the Land Office at Olympia sold 450,000 feet of logs seized for having been cut on Government land. They brought only 75 cents per thousand. The N. P. R. Co. purchased them.

The Express learns, by what it regards as a reliable first-class authority, that the long pending claim of John B. Chapman to a large portion of the land covered by the town plat of Steilacoom has been finally determined adversely to the claimant.

The Walla Walla Statesman says: "The proposition to relinquish the city charter, and save to tax-payers all the way from $15,000 to $20,000 per annum, meets with general favor. The demand is, either cut down the taxes or repeal the city charter, and failing in the first the latter is sure to succeed."

The following items concerning the Colville country, are from the Walla Walla Statesman: "Many claims are still open for settlement and for farming purposes there is no better land in the Territory. This is especially true of the district north and south of Hangman Creek, and near Spokane Plains. The settler will find fine farms all over that particular district of the country. In some of the settlements the crickets are very thick, but as yet have done but slight damage. All the Indians are very peaceable and earnestly desire to be let alone."

It will be remembered that a year ago or more certain numerous parcels of land at or near Olympia were conveyed to the N. P. R. Co. in consideration of their building a branch to Olympia. Two or three days ago, when Judge Rice, General Sprague and Captain Ainsworth were at that place, they were waited upon by a delegation of citizens representing the donors of the land, who asked when the branch would be built. They were answered that the company had no intention whatever of fulfilling the agreement, and the parties might as well take their land back. Some of them refuse, and it is intimated that litigation against the company will be the result.

A contryman at Dyersburg, Tenn., was noticed the other day gravely setting his watch by a painted sign in front of a jeweler's shop.

There were ninety-seven wrathful women in New Orleans the other day, ninety-eight mothers having taken their darlings to a baby-show.

Every dog has his day: The following beautiful lines were written before Jack's day was over: "I'm Captain Jack of the Lava beds, I'm 'cock o' the walk and chief' o' the Beds, I kin 'lift the har' and scarp the heads Of the whole United States Army."

"Lucy" Writes from Brooklyn to say that she don't object to a good looking gentleman gazing square in her face, but that it does make her awful mad when she looks back to see him staring back too.

STATE NEWS.

Freight on the river to and from Corvallis is now very light.

Wool at Salem goes at 22 and 22 and a half cents.

The Oregon Dental Association is in session at Salem. Dr. Hatch, of Portland is President.

Three schools of Marion county will celebrate the Fourth of July at the Newsum camp-ground.

The Spring Hill warehouse, built by the farmers on Soap Creek, has been completed. It has a holding capacity of 20,000 bushels of grain, and is built in the most substantial manner.

Samuel Johnson, a colored barber of Salem, died on Sunday of heart disease. He was found dead in the rear of his shop on Commercial street. He was a native of Connecticut and 42 years of age.

The Jacksonville Sentinel utterly refutes the statement that the Oregon Volunteers killed the Modoc prisoners. Undoubtedly the butchery was done by other parties who will never be discovered.

A few nights ago a strawberry festival at The Dalles was dispersed by high water. The rise was so rapid that the party began to fear that egress would be cut off, and left when the water was within an inch of the sidewalk.

Two companies are getting out lime in Douglas county. It is pronounced a first-rate article, slacks well and is free from foreign matter. It is being used in the erection of the Capitol at Salem and the State University at Eugene. The stone is inexhaustible.

The company formed at London to purchase the Newport Coal mine at Coos Bay will put on a line of steam colliers between the Bay and San Francisco. It is believed that this coal can be offered by the cargo in San Francisco for seven or eight dollars a ton. During the past winter it sold from fourteen to fifteen dollars retail.

On the 15th of July, at Baker City, will transpire the most exciting horse race ever run in Eastern Oregon. "Buckskin," owned by Alexander La Bluff, will run against a four-year filly, weight, 700, owned by Mr. Ross, of Puget Sound. The race is a dash of a mile, and the purse is $1,600; each animal to carry 105 pounds.

CLIPPINGS.

A scar received in an honorable cause is a far better badge of nature's royalty than the jewelled cross or garter of an emperor or king.

The ambition to excel others, so long as it does not degenerate into envy, is laudable. When it so sinks it is hateful and to be despised.

A married couple in Springfield, Mass., have not spoken to each other for years. The man boasts that he has the happiest home in the country.

What is the difference between a fulsome flatterer and a person weary of pledging at a pawnbroker's? One is sycophant and the other is sick of uncle.

The last dying expression reported is that of Snooks, who, as he went off the hooks smilingly observed: "By-by, I'm going to see the ancients."

Courtesy is the seed from which springs up the root of kindness. Scatter it broadcast, then, and let the yield be plentiful. We cannot have too much.

An attorney observed to a brother in court that he thought whiskeys very unprofessional. "You are right," replied his friend, "a lawyer cannot be too barefaced."

A repentant but very old bachelor seeing the words, "Families supplied," over the door of a shop, stepped in, and said he would take a wife and two children.

Trying to do business without advertising is like winking at a pretty girl through a pair of green goggles. You may know what you're doing, but nobody else does.

Mrs. Partridge says she likes going to a play on the first night of its performance, because she sees so many imminent men present, and a lot of crickets from the newspapers.

We were told of a certain evening party that the conversation became flagged; the conclusion thereupon forced itself upon us that the talkers must have had hearts of stone.

A student at a veterinary college being asked, "If a broken-winded horse was brought to you to cure, what would you advise?" promptly replied: "To sell him as quick as possible."

Elmira rats are not gifted with a superior order of intelligence, if reports are true. They steal shoe-pegs and stow them away under the delusion that they are oats—a notable example of moral and mental darkness.

The Lord Chief Justice Kenyon once said to a rich friend asking his opinion as to the probable success of a son, "Sir, let your son forth with spend his fortune; marry and spend his wife's; and then he may be expected to apply with energy to his profession."

A well known publishing house recently sent a dunning letter to a delinquent debtor in a Southern State. The reply was that the gentleman was short of funds just now, but he expected to be elected mayor of the city, and he would then have plenty of money to meet the bill.

Some new diggings on Grande River, in Union county, are yielding remarkably. A man named Crane is piping and sluicing with great results. A part of two boxes in the upper end of the first flume was partially cleaned up, after having run seven days and $315 was secured. The following day one box more was cleaned up and $205 was secured.

Splendid crops are promised in Rogue River Valley.

Hipple is called the "Senator with two lives." And has he not also two wives?

DEATH TO THE CORN GRUB.—The Germantown Telegraph calls attention to what it says is an effectual remedy for the corn grub or cut worm. Mix one part of common salt with three of common plaster, and apply a table spoonful around each bill when the plants first appear. Be careful not to place in contact with the plants as it may destroy them.

The Juniata sailed Wednesday in search of the Polaris. She is manned by one hundred and thirty men, carries two light guns, three hundred and sixty-one tons of coal, and an abundance of provisions. It is intended that she shall supply the Polaris, if found, and the Tigress, which will follow the Juniata July 4th. Besides her own launch, which carries thirty-five men, the Juniata carries a large steam launch for seventy men, all parts of which are duplicated, so that a second may be constructed if necessary. The Juniata will stop at St. Johns for coal, on her way to Disco, where it is expected the Polaris, or tidings of her will be found.

A Washington special to the Tribune says the investigation which followed the passage of the Montana war claims in the Treasury Department uncovers some of the operations of the old Indian Ring. It is alleged that some time since M. H. Insley, desirous of securing an Indian contract, sought the influence of Mrs. Anna Sackett, mother-in-law of the late Commissioner of Indian Affairs, Parker. A contract was secured, in addition to the appointments obtained for Insley, to proceed with goods and take charge of their distribution. For services thus performed by Mrs. Sackett, Insley paid her in Montana war claims to the amount of nearly $11,900. Mrs. Sackett made a verbal statement to the Controller, stating that she performed valuable service in obtaining the passage of a law by Congress, recognizing the validity of the Montana Indian war claims. Her counsel makes the same statement in her behalf. It is also alleged that she procured an appointment in the Indian Department through her son-in-law, Col. Parker, at that time Commissioner.

A barber wrote over his door: "Water hot and razors keeu, Walk in, my friends, I shave you clean." A person having been shaved by this skillful operator, and cut in several places, wrote underneath: "So clean the beard is shaved you'll find that e'en the skin's not left behind." William C. Phipps, Plff. Frederick Schimmel, Van B. Delashmut, G. C. Rider, C. W. Higgins, Isabella Mitchell, S. M. Lyon, Deft's.

By decree of foreclosure of mortgages in the above entitled suit, made and entered of record in the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for Yamhill county, on the 25th day of April, 1873, and an execution in accordance therewith duly issued thereon out of said Court, and to me directed, in favor of said Plaintiff, in discharge of said Defendant Frederick Schimmel for the sum of $1,754 00, U. S. gold coin, damages, and the further sum of $146 50, costs and interest thereon at the rate of ten per cent, per annum, since the 25th day of April, 1873, and in favor of one of said Defendants, C. W. Higgins, a lien creditor, for the sum of $1,040 00, U. S. gold coin, with interest thereon at the rate of ten per cent, per annum since the 25th day of April, 1873, and also in favor of said Defendant, S. M. Lyon, a lien creditor, for the sum of $1,031 00, U. S. gold coin with interest thereon at the rate of 12 per cent, per annum since the 25th day of April, 1873, I have levied on and will proceed to sell, at public auction, to the highest bidder, for U. S. gold coin, in accordance with said execution, a decree of foreclosure, in front of the Court House door in Lafayette, Yamhill county, Oregon, the real estate hereinafter described.

On the 30th day of June, 1873, at 2 o'clock, p. m. of said day, all the right, title and interest of said Frederick Schimmel and all persons claiming by or through him since August 15th, 1870, in and to the following real property as described in said decree of foreclosure, to-wit: Being parts of the Original Donation Land Claim of Carmi Goodrich and wife, situate in Yamhill County, State of Oregon, and in Township 22 North Range 3 West, said donation claim being designated as claim No. 49. Notification No. 1,040. The first parcel of land begins at the South East corner of said Donation Claim; Thence West 42 54 chains; Thence North 37 58 chains; Thence East 42 53 chains; Thence South 27 75 chains to the place of beginning, containing 136 81-100 acres, more or less. The second parcel of land described in said decree is bounded and described as follows: Beginning at a point in center of old county Road running from Dayton to Matheny's ferry bearing South 18° 30' West 2 500 chains from the center of Palmer's creek, at the Mouth, which is also the North West corner of said donation claim No. 49; thence South 13 deg. 30' West 79 50 chains; thence South 14 00 chains; Thence East 3 20 chains; Thence North 56 53 chains; thence West 4 86 chains; thence South 67 1/2 deg.
