

LAFAYETTE COURIER.

FRIDAY, SEPT. 19, 1873

M. E. Church, North. Y. A. WOOD, PASTOR. Appointments for Lafayette Circuit as follows: First Sabbath, Lafayette, 11 a. m., and 8 p. m. at West Chehalum.

LOCAL AND DOMESTIC.

A Grange of the Patrons of Husbandry was organized at this place on the 15th inst., and the following officers elected: Master, A. B. Henry; Secretary, R. H. Lampson; Overseer, F. Martin; Lecturer, E. Olds; Chaplain, G. R. Duval; Assistant Steward, Geo. W. Knapp; Treasurer, J. L. Fryer; Gate Keeper, N. Olds.

A RARE PRESENT.—Our ever thoughtful friend, Roe Kelly, laid upon our table yesterday a water melon of such proportions as almost to defy description; and what is more he produced it in his garden; and what is more yet, he brought a pail full of the same size and at the same time that he brought the one intended for "these presence."

Mr. W. S. Ayers, Esq., and Justice Hembree returned yesterday from a hunt on Trask river and beyond, with their pack animals loaded down to the guards with "jerked" venison. Their hunt netted them six elk and one deer besides sundry small game.

To any person sending us a club of four subscribers we will send a copy of Dallow's Monthly Magazine free for one year, with an elegant chromo. We will also send the COURIER and the Small Fruit Recorder for the same price as the COURIER. All orders for the foregoing must be accompanied with the cash.

A FRIEND INDEED.—Hon. Samuel Corwin's small pox remedy has become the hope of the continually exposed people of Portland. It is said to be infallible. If this be so Mr. Corwin, by introducing so important a panacea, takes rank at once as the benefactor of the times.

JACK FROST.—This part of the country was, on Tuesday night, visited by a little more frost than many classes of vegetation could bear. Potatoe tops, tomato tops and several other tops bowed in dutiful obedience to the exacting visitor.

Prof. Smith, of Lafayette Academy, is giving particularly good satisfaction, so far. An excellent scholar and an experienced educator, his acceptance of the position of Principal of our School is opportune at this time.

NEW PASTOR.—Rev. F. W. D. Mays, late of Tennessee, has just arrived to take charge of this work, on behalf of the M. E. Church South.

J. B. Bean writes from Tillamook giving the assessment "role" of that county. It is he who speaks of the "hand bill."

MEDICAL CARD.—The card of Dr. Alfred Kinney of Portland, appears in this issue. Dr. Kinney stands among the first surgeons of the State.

Anything in the line of dry goods, groceries, crockery, etc., etc., at Ferguson & Bird's.

To all new subscribers we will send the Courier and the Mercantile Director for the price of the Courier. The Mercantile Director is a sixteen page publication and contains valuable information for everyone. Published monthly at San Francisco, Cal.

For shoes, tin-ware, etc., go to John Bird's, under Masonic Hall in this place.

Dr. Watts will lecture at Bellevue on next Sunday at 11 a. m., and 2:30 p. m. Subject: Predestination.

Jos. McCain, Esq., is convalescent.

PARDONED.—Presly Hall, who was sentenced to the Penitentiary, for a term of ten years, for manslaughter, in April, 1859, from this county, has been pardoned by the Governor. Hall has returned to his former home in Chehalum Valley.

Rev. T. A. Wood takes charge of this Circuit on behalf of the M. E. Church in place of Rev. Spaulding who has been transferred to the Monroe Work.

Hereafter we shall devote one column of our paper to agricultural news. We would be pleased to have farmers and others write us short articles on the subject.
