DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

Election, Monday, October 13, 1873. For Representative in Congress. James W. Nesmith, OF POLK COUNTY.

Writ of Special Election.

To the Sheriffs of the several Counties within the State of Oregon: Whereas, At a general election held on the third day of June, A. D., 1872, the Hon. Joseph G. Wilson was duly elected Representative of the State of Oregon in the Forty-third Congress of the United States; and Whereas, Since the said election, said office has become vacant by the death of said incumbent; and Whereas, By provision of the Constitution of the United States, and the laws of this State, it has become the duty of the Governor thereof to issue his writ of election to fill such vacancy;

Now, therefore, I, L. F. GROVER, Governor of the State of Oregon, do hereby command you and each of you to notify the several Judges of Election within and for your several counties, to hold a special election of Representative in Congress to fill the vacancy aforesaid, on Monday the 13th day of October, 1873, and that you cause all proper notices to be given thereof according to law.

Given under my hand and the seal of the State of Oregon, at Salem, this tenth day of July, A. D., 1873. L. F. GROVER, Secretary of the State of Oregon.

THE COURIER FOR THE CAMPAIGN.

THE COURIER will take a lively hand in the special campaign now opening, and it is our purpose to give it the broadest possible circulation. To this end a campaign subscription book has been opened, and the paper will be furnished to new subscribers until after the October election for FIFTY CENTS. To clubs of ten the paper will be furnished for $4 00. Send in your orders accompanied with the price.

Another Offer.

THE COURIER will be furnished during the campaign to any Republican and all Republicans who will pay double the campaign price in the event of the election of a Democratic Congressman, the same to have it gratis in the event of the election of a Republican. Who will take a chance?

The prospects for the election of Hon. J. W. Nesmith to Congress at the coming October election are continually brightening. From all parts of the State comes cheering news. The Republican party killed itself when it introduced the Hipple whitewashing resolution. We have heard a number of Republicans say that they will not vote the Republican ticket on account of the passage of said resolution. We predict that the Hon. J. W. Nesmith will be elected by rousing majority.

The whitewashing resolution adopted by the Republican Convention says "that by his many years of consistent, upright and honorable conduct in this State, he has outlived any imputations cast upon him." How about his marrying during those "many years" and still having a wife living in Pennsylvania? If that is what the Republican party call "consistent and upright conduct," deliver us from such.

The silent man of Linn county will be defeated on the 13th of October by about 2,000 majority. How is that for Hi?

Mrs. Duniway supports Hi Smith because he says he is sure he is on it—that is—woman suffrage. He must be thinly "on it" who cannot afford to avow his principles in the platform upon which he asks the suffrage of his fellows. But "on it" or not, Hi will never go to Congress. The fates have decreed that Col. Nesmith will go, backed by a majority of two thousand votes.

The Bulletin makes its fight during this campaign against Lair Hill. You cannot retrieve your your fallen fortunes in this way. The people have not the slightest interest in what you think of Lair Hill or any other Hill.

Our neighbor, the Reporter, supports Rev. E. R. Geary for Congress. It cannot stand the Mitchell-Hipple plank.

Several of our Republican exchanges refuse to take the dose put up for them at Albany.

They have an anti-cruelty society in Portland.

H. Smith.

Every vote cast for Hi. Smith is a vote in endorsement of polygamy. That is the platform on which he stands. One of the resolutions passed by the officeholders convention endorses the character of John M. Hipple since his residence in Oregon. What are the facts? Hipple, whose name has recently been changed to Mitchell by the Probate Court of Multnomah county, was married to his second wife in Portland, Oregon, in the month of April, 1862. At the time of his marriage, his first wife was (and is still) alive, and she did not obtain a divorce from him until in 1867. For every day of five years, therefore, during his residence in Oregon, he was guilty of the crime of polygamy, and could have been indicted and convicted in our courts of the crime of bigamy. These are the facts so far as Mitchell is concerned, and by endorsing his life and conduct whilst in Oregon the Republican Convention has simply endorsed and approved of the crime of polygamy. This endorsement constitutes one of the planks in the Republican platform, upon which the candidate stands. And if Hi. Smith is elected to Congress, the crime of polygamy, (or bigamy, if you please), is sanctioned and approved by the people. Are the voters of Oregon prepared to make such an endorsement? Let them answer at the polls on the 13th of October next. —Democratic Times.

Extravagance of Grant's Administration. The only plausible argument now used in favor of Grant's administration is that it has paid off two hundred millions of the national debt in five years. This may be true or may be not. The figures differ as to the amount paid off, but the highest amount claimed is two hundred millions. There is one thing, however, about which figures do not differ. During that five years Grant's administration has collected from the people, in revenue and taxes one thousand eight hundred millions of dollars. This ought to have paid off at least a thousand millions of dollars of the debt instead of two hundred. Grant's administration is an extravagant swindle. —Democratic Times.

WATCHES.

CLOCKS & SEWING MACHINES CLEANED AND REPAIRED BY W. C. BRIDWELL, LAFAYETTE

DIRECTIONS FOR USING

Dr. E. Champlain's Lignoous

EXTRACT.

DYSPEPSIA.

For bad cases of Dyspepsia take one teaspoonful three times a day, or five or ten minutes after meals, for four or five days, then take two teaspoonful three times a day as above directed. Where there is pain or tenderness in the stomach bathe the stomach with the Extract at night morning until it is removed. In all mild cases take two teaspoonful three times a day.

CHOLERA.

In Cholera, take one tablespoonful of the Extract in one tablespoonful of water every two hours; bathing the stomach and bowels freely every hour until the discharges have ceased; then take one tablespoonful three times per day for five or six days.

The above is for Cholera in its first stage. In the second stage take the above prescribed dose every hour, bathing the bowels and stomach every half hour. For a bad attack of Cholera morbus take as prescribed for Cholera in its first stage. In milder cases take in less quantity. In cases where the vomiting is such that it will not stay on the stomach, bathe the stomach and bowels freely until vomiting ceases; then take as above directed.

BLOODY FLUX.

For a grown person, if the case is a severe one, attended with much pain, and bearing down, take of the Extract one tablespoonful in two tablespoonful of water every three hours, bathing the stomach and bowels with the same until the pain and running of the bowels is checked; then take two teaspoonful three times a day until a cure is effected. For children under ten years of age, one teaspoonful; from 10 to 15 years, two teaspoonful, with bathing as above directed. For all bowel complaints in children or adults, the same as above.

FEVER AND AGUE.

On getting up in the morning take two teaspoonful of the Extract in one tablespoonful of water, three times a day, and after the fever has subsided, take one teaspoonful more than half an hour before chills. If the time for the chill to come on is in the afternoon, wait until 12 o'clock to take the second dose. After the chill and the fever are coming on bathe the breast and stomach with the Extract. Wet a cloth with the Extract and a little cold water, and lay it on the stomach; continue to keep the cloth wet until the fever ceases. If the fever ceases in the night, take a dose on going to bed at night. By following the above directions the chills will get lighter and come on at a later hour each day, until they disappear. After they have disappeared, take the above dose three times a day for 10 or 12 days.

WORMS.

For adults, take of the Extract one tablespoonful in the same quantity of water, three times a day; children from 10 to 15 years old two teaspoonful, and all under that one teaspoonful in water or milk; at the same time be careful of your diet, not to overload the stomach.

SCALDS AND BURNS.

Bathe the parts burnt and scalded immediately with the Extract, and if necessary bathe the second time, which will take the fire out entirely.

ASTHMA.

Dose—take of the Extract one teaspoonful in water every twenty minutes until relief is had, and then take one teaspoonful in water five times a day until a cure is effected. Bathe the chest as in bronchitis.

SICK OR NERVOUS HEADACHE.

Take two teaspoonful in the same amt. of water; if in fifteen minutes the pain has not left, take two teaspoonful more, continuing the dose every fifteen or twenty minutes until relief is had. Then take one teaspoonful three times a day until the case is removed.

FEMALE COMPLAINTS.

Dose—take two teaspoonful three times a day in a little water, bathing the abdomen well three times a day with the Extract. Where there is ulceration follow the above directions; also take one teaspoonful of the Extract in two tablespoonful of warm water, and use as an injection twice a day until a cure is effected.

ENLARGEMENT OF THE SPLEEN, OR AGUE CACHE.

Dose—one teaspoonful three times a day, bathing the part well morning and night with the Extract.

INFLAMMATION OF THE STOMACH AND BOWELS.

In bad cases take one teaspoonful every three hours, bathing the parts every two hours with the extract until the inflammation is removed; then use three times a day for five or six days.

KIDNEY COMPLAINTS.

Take two teaspoonful of the Extract in one tablespoonful of water three times a day and bathe the parts affected once a day with the Extract.

PILES.

Bathe with the Extract, and use an injection of one teaspoonful of the Extract in two teaspoonful of warm water night and morning.

GRAVELS, CUTS, AND BRUISES.

Bathe with the Extract a few times and you will get relief. For cuts it checks down inflammation and effects a speedy cure.

BRONCHITIS.

A cough is generally present, which is increased in wet weather, and by very slight cold. This comes on in paroxysms; is generally worse in the morning, and is relieved by rising freely. The matter generally raised is generally yellowish, but sometimes it is whitish and sticky, and in the latter stages is thick and very much like that of consumption. Indeed the disease often ends in bronchial consumption.

OPHTHALMIA.

It often occurs as the result of acute bronchitis, and also of measles, whooping-cough etc. But taking cold and changeable weather are more frequently its causes. It most often follows chronic inflammation of the throat, which being neglected, gradually creeps down the windpipe into the tubes, and becomes very obstinate in its character.

Dose—two teaspoonful 3 to 5 times a day, bathing the throat and chest freely night and morning with the Extract.

LIVER COMPLAINT.

Dose—the same as for Dyspepsia internally, and bathing the side affected with one tablespoonful of the Extract once a day.
