DEMOCRATIC COUNTY CONVENTION.

The Democracy of Yamhill County will meet in County Convention at the Court House in Lafayette, on Monday the 27th day of April, 1874, at 10 o'clock A. M. of said day for the purpose of nominating a full County Ticket to be voted for at the ensuing June election and to transact such other business as may properly come before said Convention.

The various Precincts will be entitled to the following number of delegates in said Convention, to-wit:

Table with 2 columns: Precinct Name and Number of Delegates. Includes Lafayette (8), Dayton (4), Willamette (5), Amity (4), Sheridan (7), North Fork (7), McMinnville (12), West Chehalam (6), East Chehalam (3).

The precinct primary conventions will be held at the usual places of voting in said precincts on Friday the 27th day of April 1874, at 2 o'clock P. M. of said day to elect the delegates to the County Convention and to nominate precinct officers.

By order of the County Central Committee, J. T. HEMBREE, Chairman. March, 27, 1874.

ELECTION NOTES.

The Republican County Convention of Union county, which met some time ago, unanimously passed resolutions endorsing Senator Mitchell and "Cage" Baker, who introduced the notorious Mitchell resolution in the Albany Convention last fall. This is the sentiment of a majority of the regular Republicans. They may hesitate, but they will be compelled to swallow the pill.

On hearing of the nomination of A. H. Brown and G. A. La Dow, the citizens of Baker City fired one hundred guns and had a rousing ratification meeting. Eastern Oregon as well as all other parts of the State is well satisfied with the nominations.

From the "signs of the times," the Democratic State ticket will carry this county by a handsome majority.

We infer from the tone of the last Reporter that it will soon hoist the Independent ticket. It is very noncommittal, however.

The State of Connecticut held an election on Monday last for State officers and members of the Legislature. The result is a glorious Democratic victory by more than 2,500 majority. Ingersolls is re-elected Governor and the Legislature is Democratic by about eight on joint ballot which insures the election of a Democratic U. S. Senator from that State.

Only a short time ago news was received of the fact of New Hampshire going Democratic, and now we are privileged to state that Connecticut has done even better. Let every Democrat rejoice at the results which show that the grand old party of the people is regaining its former hold on the confidence of the people. Let Oregon do likewise on the first day of June.

BOGUS REFORM.

These seem to be times of bogus reform. Politicians who have been shelved for a decade now come to the surface, and, with the voice of a Stentor, vociferate reform! Men who have had their arms into the public treasuries up to their elbows, but who have in consequence of official delinquencies or incompetency, been thrust aside now talk long and loudly in favor of the downtrodden farmer and horny handed men of toil. Almost every discarded office-seeker and midnight schemer has ranged himself along-side the Independents and when they talk reform, the chronic office-seeker hastily cries amen! There is nothing very strange in this. It is the old attempted deception,—the "wolf in sheep's clothing." People who possess discrimination can and do comprehend these gentlemen. But there is a certain element of the human family that will be humbugged. They are prone to run after new or whitewashed schemes or measures. This element will be found shouting reform. The Independents at the last election in California carried almost everything their own way. Now some of the California papers are denouncing them as bribers, corrupt-ionists and plunderers of every description and allege with apparent truthfulness that the present is the most corrupt Legislature that ever convened in that State. What is true of that State will be equally true of this, if the Independents carry the election. Take their ticket in this county for an example. It is confessedly the most incompetent ticket ever presented to the people of this county. They may be honest; but most of them are absolutely incompetent.

COMMUNICATION.

WILLOW GLEN, YAMHILL Co., Ogn, April 1, 1874.

ED. COURIER:—I notice by the COURIER that our Central Committee has set the time for holding our regular precinct and county nominating conventions on the 24th and 27th respectively. Now, this is sufficiently early in the season to give ample opportunity to all persons who take an interest in these matters to ponder well and arrive at mature conclusions as to the proper course—that is, the course that seems to be the most promising of success, and most proper to pursue in filling up a ticket to be voted for at our coming election in June. I hope that I shall not be adjudged as one prompted by unworthy motives, if I venture a few suggestions. I have for several elections back believed that if we would adopt the plan of bringing out new men instead of continuing to renominate one time after another the same men simply because they are bed-rockers, old standbys and more extensively known than we would be more successful. I have long been working in my humble sphere for this end; I would like to see a new man in every position to be voted for, and I believe that if the Democrats of all the different precincts would begin to think of it in time it would be practicable in the main at least. PRORENATA.

NO ORIGINALITY.—The Independents of this county copied their "call" from the one gotten-up in Polk county. They also adopt the platform of the Polk county Independents without any change or amendment. This probably ought to be excused in as much as the committee on resolutions wanted to be excused from acting, because they thought they were not capable of drafting a platform. Here we have a party of "reform" which is not capable of drafting a platform expressive of their principles. They ought to have made a demand on Polk county for candidates, also.

CAN'T CANVASS.—The Independents say they will make no canvass in this county, and the presumption is they tell the truth. They will not canvass because they cannot. Think of sending men to the Legislature who cannot get up in public and express their views upon any subject. How will the Legislature find out what they want.

MAIL FACILITIES.—The last change made by the railroad may be beneficial in some respects, but not as regards the mail. When the papers under the present arrangements reaches us they are from one to three days behind their usual time. Even the Reporter which has to travel only five miles, and is supposed to be issued on every Thursday, does not get here until Saturday night.

OREGON.

Work on the State Capitol has been resumed.

The rivers in Eastern Oregon are rising rapidly.

Rumor says a newspaper will soon be born at Oakland.

Baker county will soon rejoice in the organization of a number of Granges.

The Circuit Court for Josephine county will convene on Monday, April 13th.

There were seven interments in the Odd Fellows' Cemetery at Salem in March.

The Dalles, with 1,000 inhabitants, has seventeen places where liquor is sold.

Two more petitions for whisky license have been given notice of by citizens of Cornelius.

The mining season in Jackson county is drawing to a close, in consequence of failing water.

It is estimated that 40 per cent. of the cattle in Klamath Basin will die of starvation and exposure.

The Union county races will commence May 19th and continue five days. Rare sport is anticipated.

Wm. Poe was, last week, convicted of incest, perpetrated on the person of his daughter, Mary E. Poe, at Albany.

One Saloon in Corvallis closed its doors and shut down business in consequence of a rousing temperance sermon.

Immigrants have been arriving at Forest Grove of late. It's unnecessary to say they are pleased with Oregon.

A. H. Dawson, convicted of incest in Albany, on the person of his half-sister, Mrs. Delia Backus, is craving a new trial.

A company has been organized in Marysville, California, for the purpose of engaging in hydraulic mining in Baker county, Oregon.

A great many cattle are being taken to the mountain ranges in Baker county. In some places the snow is gone and cattle will do very well.

A Saloon physician has succeeded in manufacturing some superior artificial limbs. One which has been worn two years gives entire satisfaction.

Lebanon Encampment, No. 21 I. C. R. C., was organized at Lebanon, Linn county, March 27th, by Father Harmon, with 26 charter members. The following officers were installed: John T. Simpson, E. C.; David Andrews, E. Cou.; Frank F. Morgan, S. C.; I. G. Mapholder, J. C.; L. L. Raffard, W. S.; Sarah Morgan, W. T.; S. H. Claughton, C. H.

A New Orleans merchant, moved by the pitiful tale of a woman who said her husband lay dead at home, that she hadn't the means of burying him, charitably gave her $14 to get the poor man underground. Before giving the money, however, he went to take a look at the dead man. Sure enough, it was a swollen, discolored corpse, that should have been buried days ago, and in his hurry to leave the noisome tenement, he forgot his umbrella. So he reluctantly returned to claim it. He hurried quickly but softly up stairs, up to the door, lifted the latch, and saw—the corpse sitting up in the coffin counting his $14 over very deliberately.

A gentleman once asked, "What is woman?" when a married man replied, "She is an essay on goodness and grace in one volume, elegantly bound. Although it may be dear, every man should have a copy of it."

In looking over the election returns in Connecticut and parts of the country the Independents fail. It will be the same in this State in June.

If you desire rosy cheeks and complexion fair and free from Pimples, Blotches and Eruptions, purify your blood by taking Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It has no equal for this purpose.

BORN. To the wife of Mr. F. P. Hembree April 3, a son. To the wife of C. T. Belcher, April 3, a son.

DIED. April 7th, 1874, WILLIE, infant son of C. T. and N. J. Belcher; aged five days. It took the cup of life to sip—'Twas bitter 'twas for it to drain. It pushed it meekly from its lips And went to sleep again.
