

LAFAYETTE COURIER.

FRIDAY, JUNE 5, 1874.

M. E. Church South.

F. W. D. MAYR, PASTOR.

Appointments for Lafayette and Tillamook Circuit are as follows: First Sabbath, Happy Valley, at 11 o'clock A. M., McMinnville, 9:30 P. M.

Dr. J. W. Watts will preach at this place the second Sunday in every month at 11 A. M. and in the evening at early candle-light.

L. SAMUEL, is our duly authorized Agent at Portland, Oregon.

Wm. Mathews is our authorized Agent at Portland.

WILLAMETTE UNIVERSITY. - We are in receipt of a circular of the Medical Department of the above institution, containing the names of the Faculty, the annual announcement for 1874-75, list of graduates, text books, etc.

BROKE JAIL. - Sunday night last, John Russell who has been confined in the county jail since his time was out at the Penitentiary, succeeded in wrenching one of the cross-bars to his bed frame off and with this managed to break the lock to the feed door through which he crawled out and made his escape, taking with him all of his clothing. He was indicted in 1872 by the Grand Jury for horse-stealing and arson for the first offence he served one year in the Penitentiary.

A MISTAKE. - It is with pleasure we announce the mistake concerning the death of Jimmy Morgan by suiciding. Since our last issue we have seen him and did not notice any particular change in him. At first sight we thought it might perhaps be his ghost, but he soon put that idea to flight when we asked him if such was the case, by remarking: "Faith, and it's a healthy ghost I be."

BASEBALL. - The baseballists of this place received a challenge from the Club at North Fork and on Saturday last chartered a wagon and team and went up and played. It is but just to say that there is no regularly organized club at this place, however, the game resulted in favor of the players from Lafayette by a score of over three to one.

LOST. - A silver plated cap for a band of a buggy hub on the evening of June 3d, between Lafayette and Judge Hewett's farm. Any one finding the same will confer a favor by leaving it at the Drug store of Dr. Littlefield in Lafayette.

ATTENTION, FARMERS. - You can make a good bargain by coming to this place and hiring farm laborers - defunct candidates. Guess they would be good for that purpose, as we know they ain't worth a cent to run for office.

THAT BRIDGE. - Mr. Taylor informs us that it is his intention to commence work on the bridge across the Yamhill at this place next week. This is certainly cheering news and there will be much rejoicing when it is completed.

CONTRACT LET. - Richard Longacre to-day received the contract for building a bridge across the Haun Creek. Said bridge is to be 380 feet long; to be completed by the 15th of August. His bid was $1,270 - low enough, certainly.

CORRECT. - Some of our merchants are having the streets filled in front of their places of business. These holes have needed filling for some time. Now let them show a little more enterprise and build sidewalks around their property.

DELEGATES. - Following members of Lafayette Lodge, I. O. G. T. were chosen delegates to the Grand Lodge which meets at Eugene City the 9th: Dr. J. W. Watts, Miss Lizzie Largo and Mrs. C. E. Watts.

GONE. - Rev. T. A. Wood and family have removed to Portland. It is his intention to be in attendance to fill his appointment at this place, his health permitting.

FOUND. - A ladies waterproof cloak was found one day last week between the Haun bridge and St. Joe and left at this office. The owner can have the same by calling.

For the very best Photographs, go to Bradley & Bulofson's Gallery with an ELEVATOR, 429 Montgomery Street, San Francisco.

NOTES.

Rainy weather. Pay your election bets. Base-ball fever rages here. County Court grinds this week. Sheep shearing has commenced. Hunting strawberries is the rage. A scuffle - showcase glass - cost, $3. The wet weather has put a damper on croquet.

Appropriate ceremonies were held at the cemetery on Decoration Day. Mr. Sim Robinson layed an egg on our table measuring 7 1/2 x 6 1/2 inches. A thing of beauty - Dr. Littlefield's show cases. Go and see them for yourself. Republicans say it was the Independents and crusaders that caused their defeat.

James T. Heifbrer and J. H. Olds were elected Justices of the Peace for Lafayette precinct. The Good Templar lodge numbers ninety-seven members and is in a most prosperous condition.

We hear of a branch of promise case in Chehalum, but have not as yet learned any of the particulars. See ad. of Assingnee's sale of the Comstock warehouse at St. Joe, on Monday, the 8th ult. The "wagon" and "spike team" constructed by the Republican convention are terribly demoralized and smashed up. The vote for County Surveyor of this county, and which was left out of the table of returns, stands: Shook, 513; Gilbert, 495; Hibbs, 230; majority for Shook, 18.

Mr. Charles Eastbrook has our thanks for a nice lot of strawberries of the Peabody variety some of which measured over four inches in circumference. Charley says he is going to bring us some more.

PERSONAL.

H. C. Dale, Sheriff elect, has been in town during the week and gave us a call. Ely Rogers, the new clerk, was in town during the week. Holbert, of Salem called during the week.

FINE WHEAT. - We were shown some Club wheat raised by Mr. Hanna on his farm near Dayton which was over five feet high with the heads well filled.

FINE WOOL. - Mr. W. J. Wimer showed us some fine specimens of wool which he has just sheared from two of his flock. One fleece weighed 11 1/2 pounds. The specimens were near a foot in length. The sheep are seven-eighths Cotswold.

GOOD ORDER. - This county can boast of the most quiet and orderly election ever held. There was no disturbance at any of the places of voting, and people were not only tolerant but actually courteous to their opponents.

OVER. - Well, at last, the election is over and we are glad of it. Our town has assumed its usual quietude, and voters are having the button-holes of their coats mended. All are happy except a few defeated candidates.

WHY DON'T YOU? - We have been asked frequently why the Forest City Base Ball Club did not reorganize. We had to give it up. Since the above was in type we learn that there will be a meeting at St. Joe on Saturday the 13th for this purpose. Quite a number from this place have signified their intention of joining, and we hope that players from all parts of the county will be present and organize a club of sufficient size that a nine may be selected therefrom that can get away with anything in the State. This county has twice had the champion club of the State had they only played, and why not organize and win laurels, for there is plenty of the right kind of material to do it. Two o'clock p. m. is the hour set for meeting.

Most-all pills in the market, and those styled vegetable, are not only large, nauseous, griping, and difficult to swallow, but they contain Mercury, besides Aloes, Gamboge, and other injurious dratics. These are all old medicines, and used before medical science developed better, now supplied by much more pleasant but effectual cathartics. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets embody the latest and best cathartic properties in a concentrated, yet mild and searching form, and are never taken with disappointment. Wholly vegetable sugar-coated, small, neat, and in delicate glass vials. Sold at 25 cents; by Druggists.

The Statesman of yesterday says: "We have met the enemy and are there."

OFFICIAL RETURNS

Of the Election held in Yamhill County, Oregon, June 1st, 1874.

Table with columns for Candidates, Counties (Sheridan, East Chehalum, West Chehalum, Willamette, Dayton, North Fork, Lafayette, Amity, McMinnville), and Majorities. Lists Congressmen (Geo. La Dow, R. Williams, W.T. Davenport), Governor (L.F. Grover), Secretary of State (S.F. Chadwick), etc.

OREGON.

Quite a number of soldiers passed through Roseburg, en route for Fort Klamath, last week. Campmeeting commences the latter part of the present week at Dixie, and will continue over Sunday.

Crickets, big black ones, are capturing portions of Eastern Oregon.

Crops are looking finely in Coos county.

Wheat is now 85 cents at the Salem mill, having declined five cents within a day or so.

At the present time efforts are being made to secure subscriptions to the amount of $50,000 for the building of the bridge across the Willamette at Salem.

Large bands of elk are seen daily between Astoria and Tongue Point.

Wm. E. Osborn has been reappointed by Governor Grover a Commissioner of Deeds for Oregon, to reside in Brooklyn, New York.

Sheep shearing east of the mountains is now under full headway. From present appearances this is going to be a fair average crop of wool, with the price and demand probably better than last year.

Salem enjoyed one knock-down on election day.

Miss Ella Chamberlain, of Salem, had her ankle broken a few days since while out on a strawberry excursion.

George D. Coffin, who was bound over at Hubbard last week in the jail at Salem, gave the required bail Saturday evening and was released.
