ROLL OF HONOR.

The following is a list of the pupils of Miss M. A. Robinson's school who have their names placed on the roll of honor.

Table with 2 columns: Girls and Boys. Lists names of students such as Alice Smith, J. Sutton, Flora Smith, J. Bridwell, etc.

Whole number of scholars enrolled: 32; average attendance, 24.

MILL BURNED.—The Moor saw-mill on Panther creek, owned by Messrs. Stevenson & Wright, was burned last Monday.

FARMS FOR SALE.—By reference to our advertising columns it will be seen that Mr. S. Smith offers two splendid farms for sale.

FINE GRAIN.—Chehalis Valley can boast of having as fine grain as any other locality in Oregon.

SAND.—Parties who contemplate building can get an extra good quality of sand for that purpose on the farm of John Williamson.

NEW ADMINISTRATION.—The County Court to be installed next week will be entirely new.

FOR SILETZ.—A good many of the farmers are availing themselves of the spare time between this and harvest to take a pleasure trip to the coast.

SHEEP KILLED.—We are informed that one night last week some hungry wretch, without the fear of the law, killed one of Mr. J. G. Baker's fine ewes valued at $50.

THAT PARTY.—Quite extensive preparations are being made for the ball at St. Joe on the 3d.

For the very best Photographs, go to Bradley & Bulofson's Gallery with an ELEVATOR, 429 Montgomery Street, San Francisco.

NOTES.

Fly time. Too hot for base ball.

The bridge progresses finely. Hurrah for the Fourth of July!

Three or four weddings "on the velvet," in this vicinity.

Croquet and Chivalrie are attractive games at this place.

Blackberries and raspberries are putting in an appearance.

Everybody goes to the dance to-night (Friday) at St. Joe.

Salmon is what's the matter with the canines around town.

Dick Longacre has commenced to rebuild the Haun bridge.

The Panorama show was not much of a success—financially.
