THE OTHER SIDE OF THE STORY.

We publish the statement of Mr. J. Martin and leave our readers to form their own conclusion as to which of the two is correct.

ARM BROKE.—A boy eight years of age, son of J. Thrapp, living south of this place a short distance, fell out of an apple tree the other day, fracturing his arm below the elbow.

PLUMS.—We have been shown some plums of the yellow egg variety, by Dr. J. W. Watts of this place, which for size beats anything of the kind we have seen.

CAUGHT.—When the thrashers at A. B. Henry's were enjoying their night's rest, one night this week, one of the hands, a young lad, visited Mr. Witlow's mellow patch and selecting an arm full of the largest ones wended his way back with the intention of dividing with his fellow workers.

DANGEROUS CUT.—James M. Ramsey, a lad of 15 years, son of D. Ramsey, of East Chehalis, some two weeks ago while out alone cutting wood, in trimming the limbs off a tree which he had felled, cut a very dangerous gash in his right leg.

JOHN MARTIN. The above statement of facts is true in every particular, so far as we know.

REAL ESTATE TRANSACTIONS.—Andrew Smith to R. H. Lamson, the south one-half of the donation land claim of Andrew Smith and Polly Smith—quit-claim deed. Consideration, $100.

Geo. E. Gatchel and M. A. Gatchel to J. L. Rollins, lots 3 and 4 in block No. 5, in Watt's addition to the town of Amity—consideration, $250.

James and Mary Toney to Geo. S. Minor, 46 acres of section 9 T. 4, S. R. 5 W. Consideration, $200.

European and Oregon Land Company to William C. Balsom, 1,012 acres—consideration, $5,132.

Sheriff's deed to Daniel Bernum, 45 lots in the town of Dayton—consideration, $183 60.

FOOT BRUISED.—Mr. F. Large while at work shingling a house met with rather a painful accident a few days since. He had a bundle of shingles on the roof when they slipped and caught his foot and ankle in one of the braces, thereby causing a very painful wound.

MEAT.—Mr. John Boston, of McMinnville, who runs his meat-wagon to this place disposes of none but the very best of meats. All who desire to flop their lip over a juicy steak or a nice roast should patronize him. Listen for the bells.

WINDY.—On last Wednesday a fearful gale visited this place which kept the air filled with dust. One of the shade trees in front of Dr. Watts' residence was blown down. When how it did blow.

HUNTING.—Quite a number of nimrods started for the mountains on Tuesday morning. They were under the command of the two veterans, Messrs. Hembree and Ayrs, who never return empty handed, and we may expect plenty of jerked elk when they get back.

FALSE ALARM.—Wednesday morning an alarm of fire was given which soon brought the people, who are always ready to lend a helping hand in time of need, to the spot. The alarm was occasioned by the burning of waste paper at the residence of Judge Ramsey.

PUBLIC EXAMINATION.—An examination of teachers or those desiring to teach will be held at the school house, in this place, by J. H. Carse, School Superintendent of this county, on September 26th, commencing at 10 o'clock A. M.

BOARD OF EQUALIZATION.—The Board of Equalization for this county, consisting of the County Judge, County Clerk and Assessor, met at this place last Monday.

SCHOOL.—After a somewhat protracted vacation, school is to be commenced at the Lafayette Academy under the management of Clara G. Money, on the 14th of the present month.

It is something unaccountable how these sober and sedate old fellows, as soon as their families have gone to the country to spend the heated term, commence to wear their Sunday clothes every day, and to argue that four hours sleep is all that human frame requires to be healthy.

A certain Uncle James of our acquaintance whose execution is not quite equal to his preference for the violin was paid a delicate left-handed compliment the other night by his little niece who, on being awakened some time in the small hours of the night by the hideous performances of two felines under the window, naively remarked, "Mama, I don't like to hear Uncle James play on the violin."
