AT THE LYCEUM .- Monday night there was a large crowd at the Court House to hear the discussion of Resolved, that the right of suffrage should be extended to women. The subject was ably handled by both had she been presen, that the cause of human rights had many new converts, while it had lost some old fogies. A majority of the affirmative any of his auditors. was composed of anti-suffragists; the negative of friends of the cause. It is surprising what good speeches some of the opponents to the movement cided in favor of the affirmative, Bradshaw to the contrary, not with standing.
