THE SUN. WEEKLY AND DAILY FOR -875.

The approach of the Presidential election gives universal importance to the even's and developements of 1875. We shall endeafor to describe them fully, faithfully, and earlessly.

THE WEEKLY SUN has now attained a circulation of over seventy thousand copies. Its readers are fou d in every State and Territory, and its quality is well known to the public. We skall not only endeavor to keep it fully up to the olastandard, but to improve and add to its variety and power, THE WEEKLY SUN will continue to be a thorough newspaper ... All the news of the day will be found in it, condensed when un-important, at fell length when of moment, ard always, we trust, treated in a clear, in-It is our aim to make the WEEKLY SUN the best family new paper in the world. It will be fall of ent rtailing and appropriate reading of every sort, but will print nothing to offend the most scrupulous and delicate taste. It will always contain the most inesting stories and romances of the day, carefully's leeted and I gibly printed. The Agricultural Department is a prom-nent feature in the WEEKLY. SUN, and its article will always be found fresh and useful to the farmer. The number of men independent in polftics is increasing, a.d the WEEKLY SUN is their paper especially. It b longs to no par-ty, and obeys no dictation contending for principle, and for the election of the best men. I exposes the corruption that di graces the county and threatens the over throw of republican its itations. It has no fear of knaves, and seeks no favor from their supporters. The market of every kind and the fashions are regularly reported in its columns. The price of the WFFKLY SUN is one dollar a year for a sheet of eight pages, and fifty-six columns. As this barely pays the W H. AIKEN, Attorney-at-Law and Commander of the Grand Army of the Republic in California and Nevada, will give prompt attention to the collection of Additional Travel Pay, now due California and Nevada Volunteers discharged more than three hundred miles from home. Soldiers can depend on fair dealing. Information, given free of charge, When expens sol paper and pricting, we are not the cost of prepaid postage added, is the rate of subscription. It is not necessary to get up a club in order to have the WEEKLY SUN at this rate. Anyone who sends one dollar and twenty cents will get the paper,
