[FROM THE PORTLAND DAILIES.]

NEW YORK, June 4.—Lafayette Graff jointly indicted with Chas. L. Lawrence for smuggling silks, and who escaped into Montreal, returned yesterday and voluntarily surrendered himself to the U. S. district attorney. Graff was admitted to bail in $5,000 and will be used in state's evidence against his alleged accomplices.

Nobody to Blame.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., June 4.—The coroner's jury in the Holyoke disaster rendered a verdict this evening. They find no blame attached to any person in connection with it, but can't condemn the almost criminal carelessness in the construction of the galleries and main egress therefrom. They declare that parties who build such death traps should receive the unmeasured censure of the community, and find the cause of fire was from the use of trimmings of lace paper, etc., and to the fact that the building was sheltered with pine instead of being plastered.

Confederate Dead.

ELMIRA, New York, June 4.—A committee was formed to-day to make arrangements for the erection of a monument to the Confederate dead, 3,000 of whom are buried in Woodlake cemetery here.

The Noble Red Men have Another Interview with Delano.

WASHINGTON, June 4.—The Indians and Secretary Delano had a short conference to-day. The Secretary told them if they would take $25,000 he would try and get as much more for them next winter, and if they did not take it they could not have the privilege of hunting on Smoky Hill Fork any longer. He said if gold was found in the Black Hills the government would pay them liberally for the land. He desired them to take all that had been said home to their people and obtain an answer back as soon as possible.

The Indians were photographed in a group with the exception of Red Cloud, who declined, saying his picture could be had by paying him $25.

Result of Ingersoll's Pardon.

NEW YORK, June 3.—When Governor Tilden pardoned Ingersoll from the penitentiary it was thought a piece of bad policy, and not until to-day was it believed by many that any good would result therefrom. At noon attachments were issued against the property of Henry B. Sweeney and James B. Sweeney, who have figured so conspicuously as members of the Tweed ring, all of which can be truthfully termed as the result of Ingersoll's pardon. Ingersoll furnished the necessary information and upon his evidence alone were the attachments issued.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 4.—Yesterday afternoon a man named Wilson was arrested for the embezzlement of a sum of money from his employer, a butcher doing business in Central Market, and was immediately lodged in the station house. A few moments after his imprisonment by the officer he was taken with violent convulsions which led to the belief that he was poisoned. Inquiry resulted in developing the fact that the man had swallowed a dose of strychnine while on his way to jail, without the knowledge of his captor. Medical assistance was immediately summoned, but to no avail, Wilson dying in great agony about 11 P. M.

Departure of the American Rifle Team.

NEW YORK, June 5.—The American rifle team who are to contend with the Irish team at Dolly Mount, and who took passage by the Inman steamer "City of Chester," leaving this port to-day, embarked on board the tug boat battery this evening, attended by a large crowd and followed on board by a howitzer and a band of music. The steamer left her pier at 3 o'clock and took the riflemen on board in the lower bay. The riflemen are all in the best of health and full of confidence in their ability to bring back additional laurels to those already won in the contest with the Irish team.

It is rumored that the wages of men in the U. S. bonded warehouses here will be reduced tomorrow from twelve to ten dollars a week. The men have threatened to strike if this rate is attempted.

BOSTON, June 6.—The 23d annual session of the International Typographical Union begins here to-day.

Black Hills Mines.

CHICAGO, June 6.—The Tribune's Sioux City special says Winget & Chapman's pony express brought in yesterday some of the finest specimens of gold quartz ever seen in that country. The rock found contained one eight to one half gold. Miners from Colorado and California say they never saw specimens of equal value in those countries. The quartz was obtained from a party of five who had been in the Hills since March last but were obliged to come out as the Indians were so troublesome they couldn't remain. They say there are miles of ledge like the specimens they brought.

Comanches Surrender.

LOUISVILLE, June 7.—The Courier Journal's letter from Fort Sill, Indian Territory, says the Quahada tribe of the wild Comanches are expected at Fort Sill to surrender, agreeing to turn over to the military authorities all their arms and about six hundred horses and mules. This band has been raiding on the Texas frontier for the last five years, and the authorities have always failed to induce them to come on the reservation.

OMAHA, June 7.—A dispatch from Lookout station, Wyoming, says on Saturday afternoon a band of Arapahoe Indians made a descent on Harper's ranch, near that place, and run off 190 head of horses. Armed citizens are in pursuit, but the Indians are about two days ahead of them.

Brutal Outrage.

BALTIMORE, June 7.—On Saturday, near Ogdenton, a negro outraged Miss Jackson, a young lady of 18, most respectably connected and greatly beloved in the neighborhood. Her parents were absent, and she went to the spring a short distance from the house for water. While returning she was met by the negro, who seized her by the throat and dragged her to the bushes, holding a loaded gun in his hand and threatened to kill her if she resisted. Her clothing was torn into shreds, and her face and neck terribly cut and bruised. The negro was captured this morning in a swamp, and confessed the crime. Several attempts to lynch him were made, but his captors got him on the train for Annapolis.

New Hampshire Muddle.

CONCORD, N. H., June 7.—A hearing was had before the supreme court this afternoon in relation to the senatorial question. The court reserves its decision pending the election by the legislature of a governor. It is claimed now there is no governor of New Hampshire, and it is proposed to swear in the president of the senate as governor pro tem. This would, however, leave the senate without a quorum, and perhaps further complicate matters.

Negotiations with the Sioux.

WASHINGTON, June 7.—Secretary Delano has notified the Indian bureau that a commission will be sent to the Sioux nation to negotiate with the Indians for the relinquishment of their hunting grounds in Nebraska.

Miscellaneous.

The President has decided that all lands lying contiguous to the Mississippi river, 12 miles from its mouth, be reserved for military purposes, under the act authorizing Captain Eads to construct jetties for deepening the channel.

The secretary of the treasury to-day inspected the cash room of the treasury department and other rooms where money is handled, with a view of the construction of desks, altered, etc., for the better protection of government funds. Hereafter visitors will not be admitted to the bureau of engraving, and printing, vaults of the treasury or any room in which money is kept and handled.

MELBOURNE, June 7.—Reports have been received from the Fiji Islands that 5,000 natives have died of epidemic measles.

CHICAGO, June 7.—Twenty-two aldermen, brought before Judge Williams for contempt of court in having violated an injunction restraining them from counting votes cast at the last election, were this morning fined $100 each, and their counsel fined $300.

James M. Sweeney, brother of Peter B. Sweeney, died in Paris yesterday. The deceased was recently indicted jointly with his brother in suits growing out of the affidavit made by Ingersoll, the pardoned ring convict.

SACRAMENTO, June 7.—A shocking accident occurred on Saturday at Copp's ranch, near Antelope, Yolo county. A little child of a man named Howell, who was working on a ranch on a lease, accidentally set the house on fire, and crawled under the bed with its clothes in flames. The father ran to the rescue, but in attempting it was burned so severely he died shortly after, as did also the child.

Burglary and Murder.

NEW YORK, June 8.—A. Schute, of Brooklyn, discovered a burglar in his room last night, and though sixty years old, grappled with the intruder, when the burglar shot him through the neck and escaped. Schute will die.

The Erie Receivership.

TRENTON, N. J., June 8.—An order of the chancellor has been made appointing H. J. Jewett, late president of the Erie Railroad Company, as receiver of interests of said corporation in New Jersey. His official bond for $150,000 has been approved by the chancellor and he has taken the oath of office.

Hot for the Black Hills.

PHILADELPHIA, June 8.—A mass meeting of those in favor of an expedition to the Black Hills was held to-night. Tuesday evening the different organizations leave for the Black Hills by different routes. When all together the number will be 15,000.

Carl Schurz is Feted at Berlin.

BERLIN, June 8.—A banquet given to-light in honor of Carl Schurz was attended by 80 gentlemen, of whom about 40 are Americans. Mr. Thompson presided, and proposed a toast to the German Emperor and President of the United States. Ex-Senator Schurz toasted Germany and America, and made speeches in German and English, and was repeatedly cheered. Among the persons present were Herren Benningzen, president, and Loeue, vice-president of the Prussian House of Deputies; Bernuth, vice-President of the Chamber of Peers; Breyer Councilor Bucher, Professor Mommsen, the historian H. Kereitman, the consul-general of the United States, and several of the Prussian Diet.

Wheat Market.

LONDON, June 8.—The Mark Lane Express, in a review of the breadstuff market, says in Great Britain cooler weather and more rain is wanted. On the continent frosts and drought have caused a money advance in prices of from one to three shillings. The London market is dull as ever.

The son of a clergyman was delivering a college valedictory, when, in pulling out his handkerchief, he pulled out a pack of cards. "Hullo!" he exclaimed, "I've got on my father's coat!"

Take life easy, and don't always be trying to beat the sun up, says an exchange. You may win for awhile, but in the long run you are sure to be beaten, and some morning it will rise when you don't.

Viscount de Losgeril has investigated apothecaries' profits. He says that a bottle of seidlitz water, sold at twenty-five cents, costs to make it one cent and a half, and that other profits generally are in this proportion.

"Augustus, dear," said she, tenderly pushing him from her as the moonlight flooded the bay-window where they were standing, "I think you had better try some other hair dye; your moustache tastes like turpentine."

The Newport (Rhode Island) News warns its friends outside the State "that we will not tamely submit to irreverent remarks about our size, for we are large enough to boast of two capitals and four candidates for Governor."

Visitor: "Well, Mrs. Flanagan, what did the doctor say about your poor husband's deafness?" Mrs. F.: "Bedad, Miss, the doctor says T m will never hear again; but (whispers) please don't speak loud; it might make him depressed like!"

Fire at the Penitentiary.

Soon after 3 o'clock this afternoon says the Salem Record of the 4th inst., smoke in great quantities was observed pouring up in the direction of the State penitentiary. Hastening out it was found that a fire had broken out and entirely consumed the old penitentiary, flax mill, shoe shop and saw mill. The loss is hard to estimate. The State Manufacturing Company lost all their heavy machinery, $2,000 and stock and shoes to increase their loss to $5,000. Smith Bros. loss can be estimated at about $2,000, as they lost but little flax and all their machinery. Mr. Frazier, one of the workmen came very near being smothered by the dense smoke, so sudden came the fire. There are various causes suggested as the occasion of the fire, but the most probable one is that it caught from friction, as there were quite a number of heavy shafts under the building, and the flax mill was at work. The old penitentiary cost the State about $60,000 when built, and is a dead loss, with all the contents.

The Statesman says the loss at the penitentiary fire, on Friday of last week, as far as can be ascertained, is about as follows:

State Manufacturing Company, $3,000; Smith Bros., flax manufacturers, $500; State of Oregon, about $5,000, the tannery being the principal loss of the State. The fire doubtless originated by friction, the bearings of one of the shafts getting jammed with tow, which caused the journal to heat. The convicts used every effort to stop the flames, and did not show a single sign of insubordination during the excitement.

A friend lately called upon the historian, Runke in Berlin, and observed: "Well, professor, I suppose you work as hard as ever in your old age." "Yes," replied the veteran, tenderly; "my wife is dead now, you see, and I have less annoyance and can accomplish more."

"No, I stayed at home and had a spell with the baby while my wife went, and the young one fetched the hired girl and myself down fourteen times on 'colic' and then we didn't get it right until Mrs. Gudd came home from the spelling school."

A captain in the navy, on meeting a friend as he landed, boasted that he had left his whole ship's company the happiest fellows in the world. "How so?" asked his friend. "Why, I have just flogged seventeen and they are happy that it is over; and all the rest are happy that they escaped."

There was a women's rights meeting in Colorado, recently, to which no gentlemen were admitted. Somebody, however, put a live rat in the room from the ceiling, and with a hurried "Resolved, that we adjourn," and some shrieks and confusion, the gathering scattered.

A precocious boy was asked which was the greater evil of the two, hurting another's feelings or his finger. He said the former. "Right, my dear child," said the gratified questioner, "and why is it worse to hurt the feelings?" "Because you can't tie a rag around the feelings," explained the dear child.
