

RAPE AND INCEST.—The community has for the past few days been intensely excited over the development of an incest case. Saturday last J. Thomas, a brother-in-law of James Reed swore out a warrant against Reed before Justice D. C. Stewart, charging him with incest upon his daughter. He was examined and after hearing the testimony was bound over in the sum of $600. Reed was then taken before Justice Dunn on a charge of rape committed in February, 1873, upon his daughter Minnie, she being at that time under the age of thirteen years. After the acts were committed, she says her father threatened to kill her if she told of it. Mary, another sister, swears that she saw the act committed with her sister in 1873; that she protested to her father against it, and he told her if she ever intimated anything in regard to it he would murder her. She told her mother about it and Reed has repeatedly threatened the lives of his family if any of them ever divulged the matter and for this reason they endeavored to keep it secret. His bonds for this crime were fixed at $2,000, in default of which he was committed to the county jail. The case was prosecuted by E. C. Bradshaw, and Ramsey & McCain; defended by H. and A. Hurley and H. Moor. The longest penalty for incest is three years imprisonment; for rape, as in this case, imprisonment for life.

BADLY SOLD.—A citizen from this county being in Salem during the fore part of the week concluded to go and hear the Rev. E. P. Hammond. His modesty prevented him from going forward, and was satisfied with a back seat. He had been there but a short time when a stranger came up and slapped him on the shoulder and asked: "Have you found your Jesus?" Yamhillian replied: "Yes, I found him about twenty years ago." "Where?" was next asked. "In Missouri," was the reply. "I don't think you have found him yet," the stranger said. "I know d—n well I have," was answered. "No, you have not found him yet," said the stranger. "Who are you, sir," the Yamhillian inquired. "Rev. E. P. Hammond," some one said. The gentleman from the classic vales of this county was not long in making his exit.

FAMILY ROV.—Last Sunday, a family living in Chehalis named McPolin had a lively s.t.o. The facts as near as we could learn are as follows: The family for a long time lived a cat and dog life, the head of the family being too much for the frow, so she left her home, taking up her abode at a neighbor's, the husband's ieking to the farm. The frow concluded that she wanted something from the farm and, last Sunday with her two boys, she went for some potatoes and other needfuls. The man objected and undertook to put them out, but the woman and one of the boys took him down. The boys then helped themselves leaving the mother to hold the father down, which she did by the boys logging for her when the old-m'n seemed to be getting the best of her.

INSTALLATION.—The officers for the current term of Unity Encampment, No. 23 I C R C, were installed last Monday evening by T B Handley, P E C. The following are the officers for the term ending Dec. 31st, 1875: Chas Handley, E C; Mrs L B Bailey, E Coup; W H Moore, W S; H Higley Treas; F H Saylor, C of H; Mrs J A Young, S C; Mrs E J Crawford, J C; G C Robinson W C; Miss B Versteeg, M of C; Miss Alice Handley F S; J J Collard R; Mrs L Dielschneider I; T W Sponcer C R C; Miss Bangasser O S; Mrs E C Dallas 1st L; G W Snyder 1st G.—Reporter.

WHY IS IT?—It seems to us a little strange that Lafayette having a good church and a very comfortable parsonage cannot keep a minister a year. Rev. Mr. Butt, than whom a better or more conscientious gentleman cannot be found, has with his family returned to their home in Tillamook. This is the second time this place has been left in this predicament. Are the citizens so penurious to support a minister? We are sure this cannot be the case. There certainly is a "screw loose" somewhere. Whose fault is it?

GOOD JURY-ROOM.—It seems that not all the precincts in the county are provided with adequate room for holding Justice's court. A few days ago a somewhat complicated case was brought before Squire Yocum for trial. A jury was demanded and after listening to the evidence and the charge of the justice, they were told to retire to the woods and deliberate. It is needless to say it kept the worthy sheriff and posse busy to keep them corralled.

NOTES.

The haying season is almost over. Our jail has an occupant once more. Sheriff Dale is kinder under the weather.

Blackberries at King's mill are reported plentiful.

Wheat is quoted at $1.26 per bushel in San Francisco.

Camp-meeting closed at the Web-foot camp ground Sunday last.

Harvest hands are in demand and scarce at $1.50 to $2 per day.

People now wend their weary way mountainward in search of blackberries.

Look at the new advertisements, you may find something that concerns you.

Over 300 wagons and buggies have passed through Sheridan this season going to the coast.

Dr. Littlefield started for Trask river this morning. He expects to be absent about one week.

This hot 'nuff? is the query on the streets these warm afternoons, and is answered thusly "Yes, hotz!"

W. A. Fenton, Esq., of Sheridan, was in town this week. He is doing a good business at shoemaking.

Our citizens are filling up their barns with new hay, which can be obtained in the fields for $5 or $6 per ton.

Mr Henry Sampson came over from Tillamook last Monday and reports that there is considerable improvement going on there at present.

Posters have been issued calling for a mass meeting of the Independent party in this county at Lafayette, July 31st, to select delegates to attend the State Convention which meets at Salem, August 10th.

BISHOP PECK.—This eminent divine spoke at the church in this town last Monday night to a large and appreciative congregation. He selected his text from First Corinthians XIII chap. XIII verse. The remarks coming from the source, they did were listened to with more than ordinary interest. This may be accounted for from the fact that it ain't often a bishop is in our midst.

"THE WEST SHORE."—We have received the initial number of The West Shore, published at Portland. It is well filled with choice reading matter, and handsomely illustrated. The first page is devoted to the culture of flowers. Mr. G. Hopper, Resident agent at Klamath, of the Oregon Board of Immigration, occupies a prominent place. Altogether the paper is "nifty."

HUNTERS RETURNED.—The hunters, Messrs. Hembree, Gates, Ays and others returned from a two week's hunt in the Coast mountains Wednesday. They had fair success in capturing game, and lots of fun. To Messrs. Hembree and Gates belongs the credit of capturing the elk. P.P. was, oh so happy.

BARN BURN.—A few days since a Mr. Evans living at Weston had his barn consumed by fire. Mr. Evans set a stump on fire. This burned very well, as did the fence, and also the barn. A little while longer his house would have been in flames. This is the second barn burned in this vicinity within a few weeks.

FOOT CUT.—Wm. H. Malkins, a young man residing near Lafayette, unfortunately struck his right foot while chopping with the corner of an axe, making a very ugly wound. This will give some emigrant a show to take his place in the harvest field.

It behooves the citizens of Yamhill county to take active measures to secure their quota of immigrants arriving on every steamer. Other counties are offering inducements to them to find homes in their midst, while this county quietly waits for something to turn up. And should a stranger come here to buy land, he is asked an exorbitant price for it by those who have an abundance to dispose of—the owners being too lazy to cultivate it and afraid to sell. This is not right! Organize a county board of emigration; set in concert with the State Board; raise funds to pay an agent to be at the steamer when she arrives to distribute pamphlets and circulars to them setting forth the advantages and resources of Yamhill county; offer them some inducement to come. The State Board appointed a committee consisting of Messrs. Burbank, Hurley, Hembree and Lamson of this county, as an "advisory board." Now why not take steps to organize a County Board?

THE PRIMARIES.

The Democracy of Yamhill Fully Awake

Saturday last the Democratic Primary Conventions for this County were held in the several precincts. Considering that this is an "off-year" election, it is generally conceded that not much interest will be manifested in the election. Secretary Balknap sports the most showy turnout in Washington. Scoo Robeson drives another of the same sort, and has his coachman and footman in liveries that would astonish the English; and now it turns out that both these high officials maintain their family equipages after the manner of the late Attorney-General Williams. Will Mr. Secretary Balknap tell us where he gets authority for keeping a family turnout at the people's expense, and making coachmen, and footmen, and even house servants of men who are down on the rolls of the War Department as messengers and laborers? It was that illustrious statesman John Andrew Jackson Creswell, we believe, who first set the example of making cooks, waiters, and coachmen of the men who were down on the Postoffice rolls as messengers, and paid as such.—Sun.

The Chairman appointed J. E. Hembree and Wm. Lemmon tellers. The following persons were elected delegates to the State Convention: E. C. Bradshaw, W. T. Newby, C. H. Burch, W. M. Ramsey, J. C. Nelson, P. M. Scroggins.

On motion of Mr. Newby, the convention took a vote to indicate the preference of the convention for candidate for Congress with the following result: for Hon. J. W. Nesmith, 29 votes; scattering 25; but it was expressly stated that this should not be considered as an instruction.

The Convention adjourned sine die. E. C. BRADSHAW, Chairman.

"Oh, do not be discouraged," etc. Wednesday last was the day set for holding the Yamhill County Woman Suffrage Convention at North Yamhill. The executive committee had the change made from Dayton to the above named place. Well the 21st day of July arrived, and so did the president and two others, but this was all. Now it really too bad. The ladies of the association at their last election should have engineered differently. They might have known that as soon as they put a man at the helm, he would run the thing in the ground. Really, we are disappointed at the way the ladies turned out. Had the ladies filled the offices themselves, undoubtedly the result would have been different.

European Crop Prospects. A dispatch from New York July 20th, quoting from the Bulletin, in its referring to European crop indications, says: "Upon the whole, the course of the weather for the last three or four weeks has been decidedly unfavorable to crops over a very large area of Europe, covering the most important grain exporting districts, and the injury sustained has been sufficient to modify very materially the anticipated yield entertained a month ago. It is this change in European harvest prospects that has been steadily strengthening English and continental markets, and the result has been seen at New York in an extraordinary export of wheat and an equally extraordinary advance in prices.

The County Convention. The Democratic County Convention of Yamhill county assembled at the Court-house in Lafayette, on last Wednesday, for the purpose of electing six delegates to the State Convention, which will meet at Salem, July 20th, 1875. The Convention was called to order at half-past one o'clock by Hon. E. C. Bradshaw.

On motion, E. C. Bradshaw was elected Chairman, and W. M. Ramsey, Secretary pro tem. On motion of W. T. Newby, the Chairman appointed the following named gentlemen a committee on Credentials: H. C. Dale, H. H. Snow, M. Sawyer, P. M. Scroggins, C. H. Burch, G. W. Wilson, J. C. Nelson, D. Ramsey and A. H. Roberts.

Said committee after a brief consultation reported the following persons entitled to seats as members of this convention: [See proceedings of the primaries.] The committee also recommended that in cases where there are any vacancies in the delegations from any of the precincts, the delegates present from the respective precincts be authorized to cast the full vote. The report was adopted.

On motion of Hon. J. C. Braly, the officers of the temporary organization were elected permanent officers of the convention. On motion of Hon. W. M. Town-
