EDITORIAL NOTES.

Sam Clarke, late of the Salem Rec ord, in the last issue of his paper declares himself a Republican and hoped to see the party gain the victory in 1876. He was the leader in the Independent party last year, but it seems he has passed in his checks.

The Independents will elect their delegates to the State Convention at a grand "mass" meting to-morrow. A 'great' concourse of the faithful will doubtless be on hand. It is presumable that the meeting will be put up in the interest of some "ring."
