

LAFAYETTE COURIER.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 22, 1875.

For Congress, LAFAYETTE LANE, Of Douglas County.

VOTE FOR LANE.

Democrats, do not neglect to go to the polls next Monday and cast your vote for Hon. Lafayette Lane the people's candidate.

Had Lane been in the Landoffice at Oregon City, in place of Warren, Mr. Kutch would not have lost his farm after improving it for a number of years, and placing his all where he supposed he would pass the remainder of his days.

Let the "boys in blue" when they go to the polls remember that when they enlisted to fight for their country they were promised one hundred dollars bounty apiece, and when they received their bounty it amounted to about ten dollars per capita.

Foreigners who have been naturalized should remember when they cast their votes, that if they vote for Warren, they vote for a man who has taken a solemn obligation that he will not support a foreigner for office.

All of these shortcomings of Warren should be remembered, for what he has done once he will do again without hesitancy.

Friends, one and all, vote for the man who will do the most good for your county. Mr. Lane has pledged himself to work for the improvement of the Yamhill river, and all other matters of interest to this State.

We hope to see Mr. Lane, the friend of Yamhill county, get such a rousing majority in this county, that it will forever silence Warren.

Vote for Lane.

They had better move to this place, as our Factory could not do all the work ordered, if they run sixteen hours per day.

CONVIVIAL PROPENSITIES.

The editor of the Reporter does gross insult to Mr. Lane in one of the leading, if not the leading lawyers of Southern Oregon, and his "propensities" for drink have never incapacitated him from performing his duty toward numerous clients.

Now, to "that Saturday night." Nothing could be further from the truth than the statement that Lane spent the greater part of that night in the saloon at Lafayette.

Mr. Lane in company with three other gentlemen of this place arrived here from the speaking at McMinnville between eleven and twelve at night.

The Reporter has, in times past, spoke of Dick Yates, and drawn a simile between him and some of the opposing candidates to Snyder's views.

IS IT IGNORANCE?

"The thirty-sixth section was set apart by the Whigs, in 1848, during the administration of Millard Fillmore."

It is astonishing how Snyder of the McMinnville Reporter will lie in order to stab Hon. Lafayette Lane. Millard Fillmore President in 1848? Whigs in power. Every school boy in the land ought to know better than that, although he attends the Baptist College.

The fact is: all the territory that has ever been acquired by the United States has been through the Democratic party, excepting of course, Alaska. An old adage says those that have sense enough to acquire have sense enough to take care of and we think it has been fully verified by the Democracy.

Take Oregon. Please inform us which party was in power when the State Constitution was framed? Three-fourths were Democrats.

The school question would never have been raised had the Democracy of Ohio remained passive on it. Then the Republicans of that State made a howl over it to divert the attention of the people from their own corruptions. Any person with a thimble-full of sense knows that the Democracy is the backbone of the school question in the United States.

EDITORIAL NOTES

Remember the speaking to-morrow.

Defeat Henry Warren at the polls Monday.

It is of the utmost importance that Warren be defeated.

Chandler of Michigan is the new secretary of the interior.

What's the matter with the Journal that it only gets here tri-weekly?

The Independents of this county will give Whitney a handsome vote.

On Monday next be sure and cast your ballot for Hon. Lafayette Lane.

Somebody at McMinnville buy Snyder a history. He needs one muchly.

Look carefully at your tickets before depositing them in the ballot-box.

Lane tickets will be sent to each voting place in the county from the Couriers office.

Democrats, remember how Sheriff Warren treated you when you asked for the Court House to hold a meeting in.

Hon. Lafayette Lane is, beyond the shadow of a doubt, the best man to elect to Congress. Vote for him.

The only objection we have to correcting Snyder's mistakes is that we may educate him so that he may snap a little stronger at our heels.

Did Warren deny refusing to let Democrats have the court house and prove the charge false as he promised to do at Kerbyville? NO! He dare not deny it.

Let every Democrat consider himself a committee of one; rally out his neighbors and urge upon them the necessity of defeating the ring candidate, Warren.

Did Warren ever tell you Snyder about a pocket book containing letters, he lost some years ago? Ask him a bout it when he comes home. Nice man is Henry.

From the tone of the last Reporter we would guess that Warren is to give Snyder a scholarship in the McMinnville College for doing his dirty work in this county.

Reports from Lane, Marion, Multnomah and other counties are encouraging to Democrats. Now let Old Yamhill keep up her good name, and give Lane a handsome majority next Monday.

We have no time for relics in this country, and very little veneration. The horse that carried the greatest General of the Union armies at Vicksburg was sent under the hammer at St. Louis a few days ago like any veteran of the back, and his original owner netted $56 by the operation.

Should Henry Warren carry this county, and be defeated elsewhere in the State, which he undoubtedly will, we will have to fight him again at the June election. The Republicans will give him any position he wants.

Chandler Sworn In.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—Ex-Senator Chandler had a long interview with the President this afternoon and accepted the appointment of Secretary of the interior. As soon as Mr. Chandler had signed his acceptance, his commission was made out and a note sent to Chief Justice Carter, of the district supreme court to appear at the White House at noon.

COME TO THE POLLS.

(Communicated.)

To the Editor of the COURIER: Permit me, in view of the approaching election, to make a few suggestions to the many readers of your valuable paper. Not in the past has there been such a sanguine sense of success prevailing in the minds of Democrats and all who would see our government established once more on the firm basis of economy, justice and reform with every guarantee of the constitution to each and all, be they black or white, native or foreign born.

This lethargy based upon a too confident sense of success may prove disastrous. To the honor of Old Yamhill should not every Democrat rally and bring with him his liberal friend, giving to Know Nothingism, Warrenism, Radicalism and Custom House malfeasance such a rebuke that not even a Knownothing can be found hereafter to lead the folorn hope to defeat.

Warren's friends in this county know well enough that there is not a resemblance of success for him, but by carrying his own county, they hope to fit him up for the State Senate next June or perhaps the more lucrative position of sheriff. Then let all turn out on election day—for it is imperative for ever citizen legally qualified to go to the polls and cast his vote according to the dictates of his own conscience—a right which has always been sacredly guaranteed by the Democratic party.

Then let us show to those who have recently come among us, and all who wish for hard money, low taxes and free trade, that Old Yamhill is for Lane and Democracy.

It would be useless to comment upon the respective qualifications of the two men for the position sought. Mr. Warren might make a good county judge or commissioner, but for his hatred to foreigners but for Congress, the idea is preposterous. Had there been the least show for his election he never would have been nominated. Lane on the other hand is a lawyer of marked ability, a statesman and ever the poor man's friend, and furthermore he will be with the majority in the Congress in which he is to take his seat.

A VOTER.

SHERIDAN, Oct. 18.

HE GOT HIS START HERE.

The East Oregonian says: "In days gone by it was an inquiry often made 'Did he get his start in Yamhill?' when speaking of some man who had attained distinction in politics. This idea is suggested by the fact that our next M. C.—Hon. Lafayette Lane—got his start in Umatilla county. It was here that his talents were first appreciated; it was the voters of Umatilla county who sent him, young as he was, in 1864, to the Legislature of Oregon, where he and James D. Fay of Jackson county, immortalized themselves in one of the most terrific parliamentary combats with the fanaticism of the Republican majority, and balked, delayed and almost defeated the worst phases of partisan legislation. When Mr. Lane shall once more have proven himself the peer of older and more experienced members of congress, let the voters of Umatilla county, who assisted him first into official life, say to themselves—'To us belongs much of the credit for the success attained by Mr. Lane!' and with a renewed confidence in his ability and integrity, once more assist in placing him where he can reflect credit upon himself and honor those who sent him there."

Read "Yamhill's" letter from McMinnville in another column.

It substantiates what we have heretofore said in regard to the McMinnville school question. The correspondent is a man that stands high in the community and who is a close observer of all that transpires, and has watched the workings and manipulations of the school money of that district for years. McMinnville school district, we believe, is the only one in the county that has not a public school building, and yet it is the richest one in the county. We do not say that Henry Warren is the sole cause of this state of affairs, but he was instrumental and used his influence in bringing it about, and, of course, his church derives the benefit of the money.

ADVERTISING.—Any man doing business can increase his business by advertising. Therefore, when called upon to advertise in his local journal he should not say: "Well, it won't do me any good, but I'll contribute that much to help the paper along." Such talk makes a man of spirit, and one who knows the benefit of advertising, boil over with indignation to think that the profession he has chosen is so lightly thought of by men doing business in a live community. If business men cannot advertise in their local paper heartily and with a will, knowing that the benefits are mutual, why, in the name of reason, do not advertise at all; hide your light with a half bushel measure, and if anybody wants to find out whether you are in business or not, let them inquire of some of your own or your wife's near relations. By keeping one's business before the people life and enterprise will be accorded to the advertiser and a merited patronage secured.
