

IMPROVEMENTS.—Our town seems to be awakening up to a sense of its duty in the line of improvements. The house that has just been moved will be fixed up immediately; and a number of others will soon be commenced, that is, as soon as the roads become dry enough so that lumber can be hauled. This is right, and if kept up long enough will bring Lafayette out of the kinks. The prospects of the town improving never seemed better. Now if some of our capitalists would erect a number of tenement houses there would, without doubt, be a large increase in the population, for the immigrants who are yearly coming to our county will have a place to locate at. This will put money in the pockets of the builders and increase business wonderfully. Try it.

HALL SOLA.—Last Saturday, as per previous notice, Sheriff Dale sold Good Templar Hall, the Grange at this place purchasing, paying therefor $775. There seems to have been a slight mistake—the interest on the judgment was not added in neither was several other small amounts. But after talking the matter over the parties interested equally adjusted the matter by the Grange paying all indebtedness against the Hall, which will make it cost them about $902. Originally the building cost nearly $1,300; but from the commencement there has been a misunderstanding and bickering about it. We are glad the matter is disposed of and that Lafayette Grange is the owner. Just what other use the Grange will make of it other than a lodge room, we are not prepared to say. Some of the wise and knowing ones say that a Grange store will be started.

ROLL OF HONOR.—Below will be found a list of the pupils of the Lafayette academy whose names appear on the roll of honor:

HIGHER DEPARTMENT.
Miss Addie Poppleton, Miss Mary Harris, Miss Florence Fletcher, Addison Starr, Leslie Laughlin, Jefferson Fenton, Frank Fenton and Charley Henderson.
H. H. HERWITZ, Teacher.

OFFICERS ELECTED.—We are under 101 obligations to Miss Sarah Davis for the following list of officers of North Yamhill Lodge, No. 202, I. O. G. T., who were elected at a regular meeting held Jan. 29th, 1876: W. C. T. Wm. Ball; W. V. T., Mrs. I. N. Runnels, Secretary; A. D. Runnels, Assistant Secy.; Bessie Hutchcroft; F. S. Pett Dunn; T. Eddie Burton; C. John Harris; M. J. J. Burton, Jr.; D. M. Belle Davis; P. W. C. T. Williams; White; I. G., Sarah Davis; O. G., G. D. Hughes; L. D., M. M. Davis; R. H. S. Reuben Shack; L. H. S., J. Prentice.

PRICE OF PRODUCE.—Following report of the amount paid for country produce is reliable: Eggs, per dozen, 10 to 25 cents; Butter, 37 1/2 cents per pound; potatoes, 75 cents per bushel; bacon, 12 to 15 cents per pound; hams, 14 to 16 cents per pound. Wheat at St. Joe is worth about 82 cents per bushel. At this place there is no sale. One thing that seems a little curious is that almost every winter the merchants have to send to Portland for bacon, hams and potatoes. It seems to us that the farmers of Yamhill county ought to raise enough potatoes for home consumption, but they do not.

AMNESTY.—There are a few subjects that it would be advisable not to discuss, and one among them is the amnesty question. This subject is up for discussion next Monday night at the Lyceum. Prominent speakers—Democrats and Republicans are pitted against one another. No good can be accomplished—a good opportunity however, will be given for some few to give vent to their spleen. We are not in favor of any subject being discussed that will cause hard feelings.

ACCOUNTS ALLOWED.—At the January term of the County Court for this county, bills and accounts to the amount of $2,181.98 were audited and allowed. Accounts to the amount of $21.50 (for polls and bridge timbers) against the county were rejected at same term of court. Most of the road supervisors made their annual reports and submitted their accounts which explains the reason why such a large amount of bills were allowed.

SOCIAL TIME.—Last Friday evening the young folks met at the residence of Professor Hewitt for the purpose of spending the evening. The Prof. and lady did the honors in such a winning manner that all felt assured that they were welcome. Three or four hours passed pleasantly away in social games, sharp sayings, singing, corner flirtations, etc. The guests did justice to a most excellent lunch, which goes to show that they all appreciate generosity and good cooking.

ARTFUL.—A young gentleman of our acquaintance got neatly out a fine scrape with his intended. She teased him with having kissed two young ladies at a party at which she was not present. He owned up to it, but said that their united age only made 21. The simple-minded girl thought of 10 and 11, so laughed off her part. He did not explain that one was 19 and the other 2 years of age.

AMITY.

Your correspondent has thus far been interrupted by "specials" and is almost in a humor to quit. Even this week he has reason to believe that a "special" filled with the importance of the Granger feat has anticipated him and is ere this in column for next issue. The feast will be good. But we haste to other matters.

On Thursday evening of this week the Good Templars will reorganize, and from the array of names will start out with every prospect of lasting success.

On last Wednesday evening the following officers were elected by Amity Literary Society: President, J. C. Cooper; Vice-Presidents, J. Taylor and Willard Wood; Secretary, Jennie Taylor; Treasurer, Pauline Maddox; Prosecuting Attorney, R. Phillips; Critic, Prof. A. Frazier; Sergeant-at-Arms. A spirited discussion on Prohibition of the manufacturing of intoxicating liquors ensued, in which the general fitness of the present condition of things, it was demonstrated in such a way as to persuade the judges that prohibition in that direction would be impracticable.

At this meeting Mr. Springer, a young bachelor gave an address to the young ladies on the subject of "Kissing," full of pathos, masculine fervor and common sense and fun. The young man is good looking and after his banter the only wonder is that he escaped being kissed to death right then and there.

Our merchants hold forth as usual, all with merry faces and plenty of goods.

The health in this vicinity has improved since my last item, February 1. O. R. X.

WEATHER.—The week just past was one of continued sunshine, an oasis in the last few dreary months that have been so disagreeable. It is just the kind of weather that makes one want to hug the sunny side of a post until he gets the sun-germs. It may be raining pitchforks and bullfrogs before another day rolls around. Such is the uncertainty of the weather in an Oregon winter that you can't sometimes just always tell what a day may bring forth. P. S.—Darned if it didn't commence to rain before we had time to finish this article.

PROF. WILLIAMS.—This gentleman was billed to perform here last Wednesday evening. When the time for the performance to commence had arrived there was no audience to greet him. To show the people that he was no humbug but an adept in the black art he gave a free exhibition, performing a few tricks in a very clever manner and to the satisfaction of the few who had dropped in. The Prof. is a deaf mute and should be patronized through charity, if for nothing else. By special request he performed a few tricks at the saloon where a handsome contribution was presented him.

GRANGE ENTERTAINMENT.—Tonight the Amity Grange is to have a grand justification. They know how to do the thing up there and are bound to have a good time. The object is to raise funds to buy an organ for the hall. The exercises promise to be interesting. The committee is wide-awake and are rustling to make the entertainment enjoyable. Admission, 25 cents.

SQUIRREL CLUB.—Judge Fenton informs us that the farmers in his neighborhood intend trying to exterminate the squirrels. Each member is to put up two bushels of wheat and the one that kills the most squirrels during the season gets it all. Judge Fenton says that he is satisfied that the squirrels destroyed 100 bushels of grain for him last year. Let other localities do likewise.

WORMS.—Children, said a country minister, addressing a Sunday school, why are we like flowers? What do we have that flowers have? And a small boy in the infant class, whose breath smelled of vermicifage, rose up and made reply, "Worms," and the minister crept under the pulpit chair to hide his emotion.

STATE TAX.—Since Tuesday J. M. Kelly, Treasurer, has had the autograph of A. H. Brown, State Treasurer. The receipt says that the State Treasurer has received of Yamhill county the sum of $13,768.07, which is divided as follows: State tax, $9,897.75; Bounty $1,970.32; Relief, $890.77; Poll, $800. This pays all the tax due from this county.

A SERIOUS AFFRAY.—We learn that a row on a grand scale took place at Sheridan the other day. There were three participants in the melee, and all went in for blood, using shovels, knives, etc. Our informant says that they butchered each other up in the most approved style, but did not know whether any of them were seriously hurt or not.

YAL.—An Americanized citizen was called on as a witness in a case before a justice lately, and when the oath was administered he raised both hands and said: I shall shake noddings what ain't drew, if over I hope to die so quick as a minute!

TOO KIND.—This is the kind of weather when a man sees his wife coming into the room with her apron full of wood, and after she has put every stick of it upon the fire, says: Darn it, Hanner, you ought to have asked me to do that. But it's too late now.

LECTURE.—Mrs. H. A. Loughary will address the citizens of Lafayette on Tuesday evening, February 15th. Everybody is invited to attend, and especially Fox Arabias.

NOTES.

Mumps in town.
Weather moderating.
Ice and snow all gone.

There must be a "way-up" revival going on in Chehalis.

A sociable for the benefit of the church will be given at McMinnville to-morrow.

We did not know that Daniel Johnson, Esq., of this place, was ever called "Dr."

Smith, Sampson & Co. have their chop-mill in running order, and are prepared to furnish feed on short notice.

Father Whitlow brought us some apples, the other day, that are as well preserved and well flavored as the day they were picked.

A friend who failed to see the point in one of our jokes remarked, that it was as clear as mud. Well, that covers the ground, anyhow.

If you see a man with a big diamond on his shirt front, have him arrested. It may not be Tweed, but it will serve him right anyway.

Old Sol returned this week from a lengthy visit to China, but we guess he forgot something and has gone back after it, as he is not visible here now.

Will some one please kick us. We were jubilant when the sun was shining and used our umbrellas for a poker and now it is raining. Another foolish virgin.

Three young ladies locked their door not long since to keep out the bugaboos and had to break down the door to get out again. We won't tell the rest, girls.

"Knobs" is responsible for the following: A lady living close to this place, being anxious to be thought the flower of the family jumped into the flour barrel!

We have often been asked why business men visit McMinnville more than they do this place. Read the article headed "How to Judge a Town" and you will find out.

It was Ben Franklin who introduced broom corn culture into this country. But thousands of suffering husbands would prefer to see the man who introduced broom handles.

A subscriber, who is three years in arrears, asks what we would do if he should die? We would place a linen coat, a palm leaf fan, a plate of ice-cream, and a thermometer in his coffin.

Honoree Greeley's advice to go West was a glaring swindle. The fact that the Indians have been living West all their lives and are still poor, with scarcely enough clothes to hide their nudity, proves this.

A certain Justice of the Peace, who lives not a thousand miles from here, threatens to resign so that he can whip somebody. Better wait until after June, and there will be no necessity of resigning.

Two young gentlemen of this place have received invitations to attend a leap year party at McMinnville on next Friday evening. One of these fortunate gentlemen received two, and we wanted him to divide but he did not see it in that light.

The Centennial Board of Commissioners met at Portland, January 27, and after a careful inspection of articles awaiting shipment to Philadelphia, say: "These articles cannot be shipped, suitably placed in the space allotted to our State, and the property cared for and exhibited without the presence of an agent during a period of at least seven months." It is right that the expense should be borne by the entire people, and an adequate appropriation by the Legislature be made. For Yamhill county the following gentlemen were appointed to bring this subject before the people to secure their favorable consideration: Lafayette, Dr. J. W. Watts, Hon. W. Galloway; McMinnville, W. T. Newby and Dr. Johnson.

PERSONAL.—Wm McCowan, agent of the Be gave us a call during the week. He is a "rustler" and is meeting with success.

CORRECT.—An exchange astutely remarks: "Boss Tweed has escaped from justice." If the Boss desired to escape from justice, he should have stayed in New York. Outside of that city he is likely to run into her arms at any time.

FOR HENDRICKS.

Speaker Kerr is up in a letter formally declining to be a candidate before the Democratic National Convention for the nomination for President. He says the Indiana Democrats will present to our National Convention another of her sons as a candidate for the Presidency.—Gov. Hendricks,—in whose advocacy for that high place I will stand by them in hearty co-operation. He adds that his judgment, if the Democrats cannot do better, if so well, than to nominate Gov. Hendricks.

The debate on the amnesty bill, says the New York World, threatened to be the beginning of a trouble some and dangerous state of things. It has turned out only to be the end of Mr. Blaine as a political leader. "The tears live in an onion that should water this sorrow." All the bluster that Mr. B. could summon yesterday did not serve to conceal his consciousness that he was beaten: A man beaten in such an attempt to fan the embers of civil war to a flame, is in a situation as odious and contemptible as any party could wish for its rival, or any party fear for its leader.

Taking under consideration the many disadvantages under which Texas has labored for the last eleven years, she may today be regarded as one of the most flourishing States of the Union. She produced last year over 600,000 bales of cotton and 1,000,000 bushels of wheat for export. The cash value of the two agricultural staples is very nearly $32,000,000. According to this encouraging information, which comes from Senator Maxey, of that State, is the statement that there is no cry of hard times in Texas and hard cash is abundant.

According to a telegram to the Sacramento Herald, a Republican organ, the last House of Representatives which was Republican, had 158 subordinate officers and only eighteen of these were Union Soldiers. The present House, which is Democratic, has only 85 officers and 26 of these are Union Soldiers. These figures show that the Democrats are running business with 73 less officers than the Republicans had, and 32 per cent. of the employees are Union Soldiers, while only 11 per cent. of the employees of the Republican House were Union Soldiers. This does not look much like the Democrats were discriminating against the defenders of our country. Radicalism is always inconsistent.

According to the defunct Governor Kellogg's message, says an exchange, Louisiana has been governed with singular wisdom, purity and economy under his administration. The peculiar manner in which he gained the office loaded him down with a sufficient weight of popular opinion, and he could not venture to intensify the feeling against him by encouraging every extensive steal. He had inflicted himself upon the people against their will and could not afford to indict the further evil of a bad government.

The new postal law, compelling a letter writer to put the stamp on the upper right hand corner of the envelope, under the penalty of his stipulatory effort going to the "dead letter office," is the silliest and the most arbitrary postal regulation that has ever come under our notice.

Speaker Kerr announces that he is not a candidate for the Presidency. Now, let some of the candidates for the Judgeship and the office of Prosecuting Attorney, and for the county offices do likewise.

YAMHILL COUNTY WOMAN SUFFRAGE ASSOCIATION.

The seventh regular meeting of the Yamhill County Woman Suffrage Association will be held at North Yamhill, commencing on Wednesday the 16th day of February. There will be two or more sessions. Prominent workers in the field will be invited. Friends of the movement are urgently requested to be present, and we also ask our friends of the opposing side to attend the meeting, as a little opposition lends "spice" to the performance. Come one, come all, and we will endeavor to make the meeting a pleasant one.

W. J. LOUGHARY, President.

L. A. COOKE, Rec. Sec.

SPECIAL MEETING.—There will be a special meeting of Lafayette Lodge No. 39, I. O. C. F., at their hall this evening at seven o'clock, to work in the Rebekah degree. All members of that degree are invited to attend. A supper will be served at the Essex House by D. L. Turpin, after the adjournment of the lodge.

How about that parlor, girls.

How to Judge a Town.

The Jefferson City Journal tells this: About a week ago a gentleman from Tennessee, representing a capital of twenty thousand dollars, in search of a good locality in which to engage in business, gave us a call, and after stating his mission West, asked to look at our paper. We handed him the morning Journal, and to our surprise he did not stop to read our new "pick ups" or our attractive editorial page, but turned at once to our advertising columns and commenced counting our advertisers and measuring their space.

Well, said he, glancing up from the paper, is that all? Is that the business of this town?

Oh, no, said we, here is the Tribune with a few advertisements that don't appear in the Journal.

He then counted two additional local business advertisements in the Tribune, and again looked up, with the remark:

And that's all is it? Why, you have not got near as much of a town as I thought you had.

And then we explained to him that we had a great many business men who do not advertise.

They are not business men to hurt if they don't advertise, was his answer.

We could not contradict him, and were powerless to vindicate the claims of the city.

He left us, saying if he had time he would look around, but thought this was no place for him.

This is only one instance, and a fact.

Before the National Republican Committee met at Washington, it was given out that Gen. Grant would write a letter to them, excluding himself as a candidate for re-election, and thus settle the third term controversy. He did nothing of the sort, of course, and never intended to do it. The report of such a letter was sent out to the country, in the hope of inducing him to take that step. The prompters of the suggestion did not dare to make it personally, but, on the contrary, in Grant's presence, were among the most loyal of his admirers. He is known to have favored Cincinnati as the place of holding the convention, and to have induced members of the committee to select it, in order to make Mr. Blaine feel the weight of his hand.
