FREE SCHOOL.—At an early day a petition asking the directors of school district No. 22 to call a special meeting for the purpose of ascertaining if it is the wish of the citizens of this place to have a free school at the academy for nine months of the year. To some the present mode of distributing the school money is objectionable, while to others it is satisfactory. Evidently two of the directors believe that the greatest good to the greatest number will be derived by allowing, say $3.30 school money per quarter to each scholar, and we do not know but that they are right. With a tax of $800 or $900 and the district school money, a free school could easily be maintained here. Better order could and would be kept—the teacher would not be afraid of losing his "bread and butter" if he corrected one of the scholars. Many are the benefits that the town would derive therefrom. One of the principal objections would be some body would have to build tenement houses. There are many stubborn facts connected with Lafayette's citizens. For years the town has been at a standstill, no special effort has been made by the old residents to attract to our village capital, and if any capitalist did get lost and wander up here they were not offered any inducement to locate. These are broad assertions, we know, but ask yourselves if they are not true. It appears that a good way to attract to our midst and populate the place would be to establish a free school. $1400 a year, for nine months, would hire a good teacher and an assistant. Dayton tried the experiment, although many of our citizens "backed" against it, and now find it works well. But, some will say that the tax to some amount to much, and, indeed it is not a drop in the bucket to the good that would accrue to the town. On this subject we invite correspondence. It is something that all are interested in and no harm can be done by agitating it.

THE STREETS.—Don't think, dear readers, that it is our intention to write a long dissertation on the condition of the beautiful streets of Lafayette. Their condition during the past winter has demonstrated the fact that something should be done to improve them. It has been suggested, and the suggestion is a good one, that the old ferry boat at Dayton be chartered and towed down to the mouth of the Yamhill river and that several men be hired or volunteer and load it with gravel. The boat could be taken there by the steamer Beaver in the morning and brought back, if anything, to the Fannie Patton, or vice versa. With a good force of men the boat could be loaded by the time that one of the steamers return from below. Two or three boats loaded of gravel would be sufficient to make Third street good. If anything is to be done in this direction it should be made to immediately, for in a short time the water will be too low to permit boats coming to this place. If this is not done, we understand that the property owners of Third street, intend throwing up the street to the center this summer. Better have the streets well gravelled and then they will be good, and the axle-tires of wagons will not drag in the mud.

LIBERAL.—Mr. Emil Bories, of McMinnville, writes us that he will, if so desired, lend his services on the occasion of the entertainment to be given by the friends of Woman Suffrage, ere long. He says: "I have a complete outfit of apparatus of magical tools, and will exhibit in connection with the entertainment gratuitously. Some of my tricks are such as have been practiced by some of the best performers of the day. In addition to exhibiting them I will also explain the various operations, and instruct the auditors in the manner in which they are done. In short, make a complete exposition of the whole thing. All I ask is to have my expenses paid. I do not wish to make anything." Ladies, this is a very liberal offer on the part of Mr. Bories and you cannot do better than to accept it. It will be a grand feature in the entertainment.

SHARP PRACTICE.—A applied to B for a loan of $100. B replied: My dear A, nothing would please me better than to oblige you, and I'll do it. I haven't $100 by me, but you make a note and I will endorse it, and you can get the money from the bank. Grateful A proceeded at once to write a note. Stay, said B, make it $200. I want $100 myself. A did so. B endorsed the paper, the bank discounted it, and the money was divided. When the note was due B was in California, and A had to meet the payment. What is he unable to cipher out is whether he borrowed $100 of A, or A borrowed $100 of him.

SLIGHT SKIRMISH.—The two prisoners who are caged in the so-called county jail, for want of exercise, we suppose, made a few passes in the manly art. No serious damage was done.

UNITY ITEMS.

UNITY, March 8, 1876.

Your call for correspondents in the last issue of your valuable paper seems to have awakened an interest never before shown among the readers of the COURIER in this part of the world, and I suppose your table will be loaded with the literary productions of the several "quill slingers" of this, our beautiful and fertile little valley, which some envious person has vulgarly called the "grubby quill."

Crops are looking splendid now, and the verdant fields luxuriant with grain, where less than a year ago stood vast forests of young firs, and still the timber is steadily falling before the axes of sturdy choppers. Slashing is being done in this part of the county extensively this winter; in fact, more has been done within the past two years than has been done in ten years before. This speaks well for progress in the grubs.

We have a fine, new school house, recently erected in place of the one destroyed by fire last Fall, which adds considerably to the looks of the surrounding country, and speaks well for its builder, Mr. Jos. Chambers.

The school is now in full blast under the excellent supervision of Mr. Mackie, who is teaching about fifteen young ideas how to shoot.

Leap year and picnic parties have been the rage so far, but bad luck seems to follow those who visit them from neighboring places; such as upsets, dumping in the mud, putting tulips eyes in mourning, breaking harness, etc. Willie knows how it is himself.

Who is to be road supervisor is what agitates us at present. More anon.

EUTERPE.

EXHIBITION.—We are informed that on the evening of the 3d an exhibition was given at the Mercer school house in school district No. 1, by the scholars. The entertainment was very creditable to scholars and teacher. After the programme was finished, many of the young folks went to the residence of Mr. Jas. Hendrix and enjoyed a social dance. Our informant says that there were three very popular young gentlemen there, at least in their own imagination they are popular, and also prominent good templars. They left the dance and proceeded to a supply of tangle-log whiskey, of which they drank liberally and returned and stole a lot of grub. We are not prepared to vouch for the truth of the above but give it as narrated to us.

GRAND ENTERTAINMENT.—A grand entertainment will be held in Dayton at the Grange Hall on Thursday evening, March 23, 1876. A cordial invitation is extended to the citizens of Lafayette. We will be thankful for any assistance they can render us, either in singing, dialogues or declamations. A bountiful supper will be prepared and we expect to have a good social time. Admission, 50 cents. The proceeds to go toward liquidating the debt on the hall.

SAVAGE DOG.—Among some few of the nuisances with which the thriving little town of Dayton is blessed with is a savage dog. This canine has been an eyesore to many of the residents of that place for many months and it is surprising that he has not been killed ere this. He attempted to bite Mr. Frank Martin a short time since, but was deterred by Mr. Martin using his cane. Since then a little daughter of Mr. Harker ran across the street when she was attacked by this dog, and had not been helped at hand she undoubtedly would have been severely bitten. Kill the rascal.

PERTINENT.—The Portland Journal should not make fun of the "country" towns that want to celebrate the glorious 4th of July. "Cause 'tain't right. We of this country have as good a right to be patriotic and urge the citizens to celebrate as our friends of the city. Why haven't they as much right to urge the citizens of this country to select some central point and unite in having a good time as you wish them to come to the city? Remember, God made the country, and some of the cities we don't think He had much to do with.

CATTLE DYING.—We hear that a good many cattle that have been exposed to the severe weather during the past winter are dying throughout the country. It seems that a great number of the cattle are not dying from actual starvation but from weakness. When they get down they seem to give up and soon pass in their checks.

WEATHER PREDICTIONS.—Some of the old inhabitants are predicting another season similar to that of 1855. They say that so far this season and that have been very much alike. Should it prove so, the farmers need not make any calculations on summer-fallowing for the soil will be too dry.

TIME FIXED.—The ladies have decided to have their entertainment on Friday evening, March 31st. The programme has not been arranged yet, but from all we can learn there will be a very interesting time. The entertainment will be of a literary and dramatic character.

A SUCCESS.—The entertainment given at Amity last Friday night under the auspices of the Literary Society, was a success. The performers all did well. The receipts were $6.50. The school children were admitted free.

UNROOFED.—The old Campbell house which is being fixed up for rent was unroofed Monday night, during a severe wind storm. The only wonder is that more houses were not damaged.

Snow.—Tuesday night it snowed like blazes at this place, and on Wednesday morning the foot hills were covered with snow. March, so far, has been as fickle as a girl of seventeen.

LOCAL EPITOMS.

The weather is about so-so.

Lafayette has a Five Points.

A waste of "it"—Putting it in depot. The boys have got it bad—the dancing fever.

Something that always soots—a chimney sweep.

Another snow storm last night—a light one, however.

A marriage is to take place next Sunday in Chehalis.

There are fifty-seven cases on docket for trial in Marion county.

Quarterly meeting commences at the Smith chapel next Sunday.

His majesty, King Mtesa, of Africa, is clothed in nothing but dignity.

Tweed has solved the problems of rapid transit, large profits, and no returns.

A law suit during the first of the week and County Court attracted quite a number of outsiders here.

The officers of the Yamhill County Guards have received their commissions from Governor Oliver.

If you need a stimulant this kind of weather, John Hart is your condottatore. He keeps none but the best.

Dr. G. W. Goucher, of Amity, gave us a call yesterday. The Dr. is looking extremely well and has a fine practice.

We understand that W. S. Ayra, of this place, has sold one-half of his farm on the Chehalis mountain to the Stewards boys.

Hon. J. C. Braly, H. H. Snow, and others of McMinnville, and B. F. Lewis, et al., of Dayton, were in town during the week.

A dead man was found on the streets the other day—He was dead drunk. We are happy to say that he was not a resident of Lafayette.

A young lady dropped a—some said it was an apple, but it was not on the street the other day, to the great delight of the other girls.

It is the intention of some of the friends of Rev. Hobbs to give an entertainment at Good Templar Hall for his benefit at an early day.

Miss Loughary will be pleased to see all those who desire anything in the line of dress making, at the residence of Mrs. Kelly, where she will remain during this and next week.

The literary exercises of Prairie Academy closed last week until next Fall. During the past winter a pleasant time and much benefit has been derived from these exercises.

The long year necktie for gentlemen is out. We have not seen it, but suspect it is a young lady's sleeve, with an arm in it, and goes all the way around the neck. Yum, yum, give us one.

A young lady was asked by her mother, the other morning, why she was up so late. She replied "that she was engaged in the arms of slumber." The question is, who is in slumber?

Prof. Day will go to North Yamhill next week for the purpose of organizing a dancing school. To those who wish to learn how to trip the light fantastic too artistically, we recommend this gentleman.

A Gospel Ridge man dreamed the other night that he was going over the Falls, and he had his wife by the throat when he woke up. Next night the wife had a dream, and broke his nose as she struck at an Indian.

Watkins, was convicted of an assault with intent to kill; sentence will be passed this evening by Judge Bonham. Anthony Miller, was convicted of petit larceny at the present term of the Circuit Court, at Salem.

A letter from A. M. Waddle, of Broadmeads Farm, to Mr. Littlefield, says that the Chinaman, is doing well. It will be remembered that this is the Chinaman that the Dr. put a lip on. His appearance will be much improved, says the writer.

He came home very late one night, and after fumbling with his latch key a good while, muttered to himself, as he at length opened the door, I must have been noised, caught the doorman's asleep. He divested himself of his garments with some trouble, and was congratulating himself on his success as he was getting into bed, when a calm, clear, cold voice sent a chill down his spinal column. Why, my dear, you ain't going to sleep in your hat, are you?

MARRIED.

At the residence of the bride's parents, near St. Joe, March 6th, 1876, by J. H. Olds, J. P., Mr. William Lewis and Miss Eliza Martin. All of Yamhill.

Fortune favors the brave.

We suppose that Mr. Perry Hubbard, formerly of this county, has run his head into the matrimonial loop ere this, as we notice in a Polk county exchange that a marriage license was issued to him and Miss E. T. Cooper in February.

At the residence of Mr. Thos. Holcom, March 7th, by Rev. G. W. Goucher, A. Jackson and Maggie York.

At St. Joe, March 9, by Rev. J. H. Hobbs, Henry Hamilton, and Mary DeVinning.

(We quote at 82¢ a bushel because if you wanted wheat for feed the latter price would have to be paid.) Oats are held at 75 cents, and but few for sale, so we are informed. Feed—chop—is worth. Since the chop-mill has been in operation the price of feed has declined somewhat. Bran is worth at least 25¢ per ton. Flour is quoted at $5.50 a barrel. The principal supply is, we believe, brought from Dayton. Prints 13 yards for $1; Domestic, 10¢ a yard.

It is now thought by good judges that the Democracy will be able to carry Multnomah county, and elect their county and legislative ticket. The difficulty between the Mitchell and anti-Mitchell wings of the Republican party is becoming greater, and there is no prospect of harmonizing these matters. The removal of Scott has created a panic among them and they do all in their power to injure each other. The prospect for the Democracy was never brighter than now. Corruption and demoralization everywhere exist in the ranks of the Republican party.

Inadvertently we neglected to send the Press the COURIER. Now, Jos. you know we don't take much stock in the "whitewashing business." But simply wish to see justice done.

Sheriff's Sale.

NOTICE is hereby given that by virtue and authority of an execution issued out of the Hon. Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the county of Yamhill and to me directed by the Clerk of said court in favor of Jacob Sears, plaintiff, and against Jane Armstrong, defendant, for the sum of $750 in State of Oregon gold coin, I am now on said judgment, with interest at the rate of ten per cent. per annum from the 24th day of May, 1875, and the further sum of $1,000 I have levied upon all the right, title and interest of the above named defendant, Jane Armstrong, in and to the following described real estate, to-wit:
