The WEEKLY Sun

NEW YORK. Eighteen hundred and seventy six is the Centennial year. It is also the year in which an Opposition House of Representatives, the first ce the close of the war, will be in power at Washington; and the year of the twenty-third election of a President of the United States. All of these events are sure to be of great interest and importance, especially the two latter; and all of them and everything connected with them will be fully and freshly reported and expounded in The Sun.

The Opposition House of Representatives, taking up the line of inquiry opened years ago by THE SUN, will sternly and dilligently investigate the corruptions and misdeeds of GRANT's administration; and will, it is to be hoped, lay the foundation for a newand better period in our national history. Of all this The Sun will contain complete and accurate accounts, furnishing its readers with early and trustworthy formation upon these absorbing topics.

The twenty third Presidential election, with the prepartious for it, will be memorable as deciding upon GRANT'S aspirations for a third term of power and plunder, and still more as deciding who shall be the candidate of the party of Reform and as electing that candidate. Concerning all these subjects, those who read

THE SUN will have the constant means of be rhoroughly well informed.

The WEEKLY SUN, which has attained a circu lation of over eighty thousand copies already has its readers in every State and Territory, and we trust that the year 1876 will see their numbers doubled. It will continue to be a thorough newspaper. All the general news of the day will be found in it, condensed when unimportant, at full length when of moment; and always, we trust, treated in a clear, interesting and instructive manner, It is our aim to make the WEEKLY SUN the best family newspaper in the world, and we shall continue to give in its columns a large amount of miscellaneous reading, such as sto-ries, tales, poems, scientific intelligence and ag-ricultural information, for which we are not able to make room in our daily edition. The able to make room in our daily edition. The agricultural department especially is one of its prominent features. The fashions are also regularly reported in its columns.
