CHURCHES.

REV. J. HOBBERG, P. E. Sunday of each month at 11 A. M. Regular appointments of Rev. J. W. Watts, second Sunday of each month at 11 o'clock A. M. and 7 o'clock P. M. Rev. T. P. Haynes, pastor in charge of this district, for the M. E. Church, South, will preach at this place on the 4th Sunday of each month, at 11 o'clock and also in the evening.

WHAT WAS IT?—Not long since, as Mr. Thomas Nelson, living in Chobalem valley, was returning home from this place, as he says, remembering a kite air-thing, as he says, resembling a kite air-thing from the ground, only a few feet in advance of him. When it had got a few feet above the ground it sailed along in front of him some distance when it disappeared as mysteriously as it had arisen. All who know Tom well know that he would not get frightened easily; nor did he this time, but on the contrary, he plunged his spurs into his horse and endeavored to overtake the something—but it out-traveled him, and soon vanished. This occurred a short distance on this side of Mr. Jake Williamson's residence. It is not the first mythical thing that has been seen in this locality. At two different times a man has been seen laying in the road and was run over by a wagon—the rise and fall of the wheel being distinctly felt—and when the occupants alighted to see what it meant there would be nothing there. At other times something white, resembling a man, has been seen riding a horse at break-neck speed. Other times it has taken the form of a sheep. Some men whose courage can not be doubted are reported as having seen something near this place.

KEELER FAMILY.—This family, consisting of two brothers, gave one of their entertainments or seasons at this place last Tuesday evening, to a well-filled house. Messrs. Kelly and Ferguson were selected by the audience to give them. After being tied securely, as the committee thought, to stationary boxes in the cabinet, the curtains were let down, and almost immediately hands appeared at the apertures, bells were heard to ring, and music produced within. When the curtains were again raised the brothers were, apparently, as the committee had tied them. We do not believe that any unseemly agony or power had anything to do with it, neither do we attempt to explain how it was done, but leave that with our readers. To say the least, it was truly marvelous and baffled the know-alls who were present.

KIND ADVICE.—An observer hands the following: "What do young men go to church for? Do they go there for the purpose of reading the newspapers or writing notes to the other sex, and carry on in those evil ways generally? Every young man knows better, and he knows that he is disobeying the laws that are laid down before him and the precepts that have been taught him from his childhood up to the present day. We are all supposed to have plenty of time for all such luxuries outside of the time that we should be listening to what is said. Now let us do our work at the proper time and at the proper place."

BULL DOZING.—Do you know what bulldozing is? I asked one of our citizens of an old granger a few days ago. The granger not being read up was not aware that a new word had been introduced in our vocabulary, replied: I thought I did, but the bull wasn't dozing; he was only making believe, and being in the middle of a forty-acre lot, I naturally had to make pretty quick time to reach the fence ahead of him.

THE BUTTER.—She was fond of conundrums, and when she learned that mulier was Latin for woman she thought she had a difficult one to guess. So she asked her husband what was the difference between herself and a mule. And as he had been married several years, he was too thoughtful to trouble her by guessing, but kindly remarked that he had never been able to see any.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS AND OINTMENT.—Borellus was considered incurable until the great discovery of "Holloway's Pills and Ointment" flashed upon the world. Diseases which baffled the skill of the medical schools, readily yield to these peerless remedies. Scoury, Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Itch, and all cutaneous eruptions are curable by them. 25 cents per box or pot.

DRIED FRUIT.—Mr. Frank Hubbard brought us a specimen of the fruit dried by Mr. Alderman drier at Dayton. The samples consisted of apples, pears, pumpkin, etc., which after being cooked tasted almost like the fresh article itself. This is a good way to put up your fruit, and should be adopted by every farmer instead of allowing their fruit to rot in the orchard. Try it, farmers, it will put money into your pockets.

TO RENT.—The St. Joe Hotel property is for rent. Enquire of Mrs. Watts or John Milroy, for particulars.

HERE AND THERE.

Still it freezes. Beautiful weather. Rather squally yesterday. Read the new advertisements. Spiritualism is the main topic. Don't pack out your stove yet. What about that neck-tie sociable? Light fall of snow Saturday night. Was Babbie founded by women? Ice these mornings, but rather thin. The farmers are still plowing and seeding. G. W. Snyder gave us a call during the week. The beginners class now numbers over 40 singers. The mountains look beautiful in their covering of snow. Even the prattling children have got the singing fever.

The thermometer stood 20 feet off of the porch Thursday morning. An enormous amount of wheat had ought to be raised this year. Drop letters are fashionable again. The droppers are known this time. J. H. Olds is acting as postmaster at St. Joe, in place of L. L. Williams resigned.

Pinbacks are a nuisance when the sidewalks are as slippery as they are at present. Mrs. H. A. Loughary has been selected to deliver the address at the Grange installation to-morrow. Ye that are slow to pay will do well to glance your hazle optics over the notice of Littlefield & Hill.

A Robert-tailed dog came into town the other day and worried some of our curs in a shameful manner. The Grange officers will be publicly installed to-morrow at 12 o'clock M. After which a dinner will be served. Dr. Roberts will be in town again on next Thursday. Those desiring anything in the dentistry line should give him a call.

When a young lady goes back on her beaux he remarks, "Now I'm done." Two or three have made the remark this week. The west wind that was blowing directly from the snow covered hills yesterday made the people hunt the warm side of a fire.

Dr. Watts writes to his family from Washington City that he has not seen the ground since he left Salt Lake City, on account of snow. A little six year-old remarked the other night "that he wished that man would peddle him one of them papers," meaning the show bills.

Some person fastened wires across the sidewalk last Tuesday evening, greatly to the annoyance of pedestrians. Trouble will be the result if it is not stopped. That was a graceful bow a young lady made to us on the corner of Third and Jefferson the other morning. As we passed on we heard her mutter something that sounded like, "Darn the slippery sidewalk."

When a woman can feel a mouse crawling along her spinal column, and yet stop to think whether she has on striped stockings, before kneeling over in a St. she is at least qualified to enjoy the elective franchise.

Rev. L. T. Nichols finished up his protracted meeting at this place on last Sunday evening. He tried to make the people believe that the world is going to come to an end in 1883. We have not heard whether he succeeded in convincing anyone or not.

McMINNVILLE.

Our County Seat has improved more in the last year than it had during the past five years we have been a resident of the county. New residences loom up on every hand, and give the place a neat and pleasing appearance, while the repairs and renovations among the old residential buildings add another mark of freshness and tone in cheerful contrast with the quiet and timeworn aspect that reigned there heretofore. Lafayette is one of the oldest towns in Oregon, and her veteran habitations have weathered the blasts of a score of years, yielding gradually under the spoilsations of time until they became as so many tottering relics of a preceding generation. There are gradually giving their places to neat, new buildings of modern style, and soon the old landmarks will be known only in the imagination of those who have lived with them and outlived them. The effect is a pleasing one. We are glad to note the change. Every citizen in the county should feel a pride in his county's institutions, and encourage their development to a parallel at least with those of the other counties, and should our county seat continue to improve at the present rate, we will ere long be able to boast over some of our neighboring counties. So mote it be.

At a meeting of the Council of this City, held Saturday, January 6, 1877. Mr. R. M. Gilbert was appointed City Marshal for the ensuing year, Mr. B. D. Gaunt resigned. We learn that there is a case of small pox in Moores valley. Who it is and what the condition of the patient is, we could not learn.

The Elgin Chronometer Watches are true time-pieces; I have one—a solid, 18-karat, 4-ounce case, warranted for eight years; its price is $77. Uncle Harris, 702 Kearny Street, four doors from the City Hall, San Francisco.

EDUCATIONAL COLUMN.

This column is open for all educational items and articles. Persons contributing to it must always give their names, but should a contributor desire his name not to appear a request of that kind will be heeded.—[E.]

Normal Schools. Many of the States of our Union are making great efforts to perfect a system of schools that will materially change modes and methods of instruction in our common schools. For this purpose large costly edifices have been erected at one, two or three points in the State, and a faculty of instructors employed with the expectation that in process of time, a number of first-class school teachers would be equipped and ready for the great work of teaching. Against this plan it is argued that each teacher thus sent out has been prepared at a cost so extravagantly great, that to supply the demand of all the schools would be a financial expenditure beyond the means of any State or people. Again it is urged that those localities where schools are located, are the only ones benefited, and that while remote communities pay a proportionate share of the expenses of the school they receive none of the benefits. Couple with these arguments the facts of the limited number each school can supply, and that not more than one in five who are educated in these schools make successful teachers—that professional qualifications cannot be coined in any institution, or by any faculty, to fit all candidates for such honors. So this high-toned preparation appears rather insignificant and altogether inadequate to meet the demands of society.

Presuming that long articles are not desirable we will resume this topic in your next issue.

Total $517 00 GRAND BALL.—Elsewhere in this issue will be found an advertisement of Prof. Henry and band who will give a grand ball at this place on February 14th 1877. It is hard to find better dancing music than is furnished by this band, so a good you see, for a general invitation is extended to all.

Returning Board Hayes is as calm as a clam, and just about as sensible. The mud is drying up all around him, but he still hopes for high water.

DAYTON ITEMS.

Our regular correspondent sends us the following items from Dayton, under date of Jan. 17th: The Dayton Amateur Dramatic Club met at the club rooms Thursday night and elected the following officers: T. H. Dupuy, President; Len Moor, Secretary; Frank McCoy, Treasurer. They intend to hold their first entertainment sometime in March.

A select few met at the Grange Hall Tuesday night and spent a few pleasant hours in the giddy mazes, &c. Miss Willie Harris of your burg has been visiting friends at this place. Charade parties are the chief amusements here now. Wheat still $1. None coming in.

Mr. Watson cavers that the large bill of expenses incurred by Sherman, Eugene Hale, Sigsbought, and the other Republicans who went to New Orleans to give the returning board a lift, has been paid out of the United States Treasury by Secretary Morrill. If Mr. Watson is correctly informed, Morrill is guilty of an offence for which he should be impeached. Sherman and his companions went South in the capacity of private citizens and in the interest of a partisan conspiracy. It makes no difference whether they went at the request of Grant or their own motion. The Government has no more to do with their hotel and railroad bills than it has to do with Stanley's traveling expenses in Ethiopia or Bob Ingersoll's campaign expenses in Maine. If Mr. Morrill has taken money from the Treasury for this purpose he has committed theft.

The Herald has news that it is the intention of the British Government to arrest the pirate Stanley upon his return from Africa. Stanley and his gang, have been engaged in plundering and butchering the hapless natives of Central Africa, and while doing so he has had the impudence to raise and carry the British flag. The British Government certainly has the right to say that its flag shall not be used by this piratical adventurer as a cover for his atrocious operations; and if it does not punish him for what he has already done, it can prevent him from making any similar attempts hereafter.

The radical papers and managers would like to make the people believe that there will be war in case their treasonable designs are not carried out. And there is no doubt that many of them would sacrifice the peace and order of society rather than give up the management of affairs to the people; but it is not probable under the circumstances, that they will presume far enough upon the forbearance of the people to resort to such expedients. But as these threats don't frighten any one, had they not as well stop this talk about the danger of war and try something else?

Pinback has become disgusted with the radical rascality practiced in Louisiana and is using his influence in favor of the Democratic Legislature of that State. Things must be rotten when such men as Pinback desert the party.

Watts has had an interview with Grant and has since taken permanent quarters at Washington, perhaps Grant has promised him a pull at the public tent because of his ignorance of the constitution.

The House represents the people, and in their behalf will refuse to compromise concerning its right to have a voice in the counting of the electoral votes and will refuse to have the fraudulent votes counted.

Agout Flower. The most miserable beings in the world are those suffering from Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint. More than twenty-five per cent. of the people in the United States are afflicted with these two diseases and their effects, such as sour stomach, sick headache, habitual constipation, palpitation of the heart, heart-burn, water-brash, gnawing and burning pains at the pit of the stomach, yellow skin, coated tongue and disagreeable taste in the mouth, coming up of food after eating, low spirits, &c. Go your drugist and get a 75 cent bottle of AGOUT FLOWER or a Sample Bottle for 10 cents. Try it—Two doses will relieve you. Agents, Crane & Brigham, San Francisco.

THE SUN.

1877. NEW YORK 1877. The different editions of THE SUN during the present year will be the same as during the year that has just passed. The daily edition will on week days be a sheet of four pages, and on Sunday a sheet of eight pages of 50 columns; while the weekly edition will be a sheet of eight pages of the same dimensions and character that are already familiar to our friends.

THE SUN will continue to be the strenuous advocate of reform and reformation, and of the substitution of statesmanship, wisdom and integrity for hollow pretence, insincerity and fraud in the administration of public affairs. It will contend for the government of the people by the people and for the people, as opposed to government by frauds in the ballot-box and in the counting of votes, enforced by military violence. It will endeavor to supply its readers—a body now not far from a million of souls—with the most careful, complete, and trustworthy accounts of current events, and will employ for this purpose a numerous and carefully selected staff of reporters and correspondents. Its reports from Washington, especially, will be full, accurate, and fearless; and it will doubtless continue to observe and enjoy the hatred of those who thrive by plundering the Treasury or by usurping what the law does not give them, while it endeavors to merit the confidence of the public by defending the rights of the people against the encroachments of unjustified power.

The price of the daily Sun will be 50 cents a month or $6.50 a year, post paid, or with the Sunday edition $7.50 a year. The Sunday edition alone, eight pages, at the rate of $1 a year, post paid. The benefits of this large reduction from the previous rate for THE SUN, which can be enjoyed by individual subscribers without the necessity of making up clubs. At the same time, if any of our friends choose to aid in extending our circulation, we shall be grateful to them, and every such person who sends us ten or more subscribers from one place will be entitled to one copy of the paper for himself without charge. At one dollar a year, postage paid, the expense of paper and printing are barely repaid; and, considering the size of the sheet and the quality of its contents, we are confident the people will consider THE SUN the cheapest newspaper published in the world, and we trust also one of the very best.
