Love's Messengers.

Who will tell him? Who will teach him? Have you voices, merry birds? Then be voice for me, and reach him With a thousand pleading words. Sing my secret, East and West,

Till his answer be confessed!

Roses, when you see him coming, Light of heart and strong of limb, Make your lover-bees stop humming; Turn your blushes round to him-Blush, dear flowers, that he may learn, How a woman's heart can burn!

Wind-oh, wind-you happy rover! Oh that I were half as free-Leave your honey-bells and clover, Go and seek my love for me. Find, kiss, clasp him, make him know It is I who love him so!"
