Colonel Holden Here.—Col. C. H. Holden, an attorney and ex-land commissioner of Florence, arrived last night from that place for the purpose of attending to business matters concerning a new bank which may be established at the latter place. Mr. Holden will also visit his brother in Coquille while in this vicinity. The bank is not an assured proposition as yet, although there are a great many residents in Florence who favor the establishing of such an institution.

Erects Butcher Shop.—The C. A. Smith Lumber and Manufacturing Company is erecting a building at Bay City, to be occupied as a branch butcher shop by Henry Holm. This will be the first butcher shop on the east side of the bay, and will be quite an improvement for the residents of that side, rendering it unnecessary for them to come to Marshfield to trade, as a general store has already been started there.

Will Rough It.—Harry and Frank Tremain, who have been on the Bay for the past ten days visiting with friends, left yesterday morning for Bandon, from which place they will travel on foot down the coast to California on a two weeks' outing. They took an outfit with them for camping out and are prepared to do some hunting while away.

Cleans Chimneys.—George Stouch arrived on the Bay yesterday for the purpose of cleaning out chimneys and inspecting them to find whether or not they are defective and in danger of catching fire. He claims to be able to clean out chimneys and flues without damaging the house or other buildings in which he works. Mr. Stouch will have temporary headquarters at the Club cigar store.

Circulate Petition.—Messrs. Vigers, Wood and Lynch, North Bend real estate men, were in Marshfield Friday securing signers for a petition to bridge Coos Bay. L. J. Simpson, Mayor of North Bend, headed the list of signers and the gentleman circulating the petition say they have about 300 other names of North Bend men.

Brother Arrives.—Tom Wearn, brother of William Wearn, who lies in the Marshfield General Hospital, as the result of wounds received at Libby a few days ago at the hands of John Kelly, arrived from Nevada City, Nevada county, California, last evening by stage.

Correct Bandon Vote.—The vote in Bandon on the local option law was given out wrong. Bandon cast 194 votes for wet and 99 dry.

Market Quiet.—The local market was quiet yesterday, about the only noticeable change being the arrival of quite a lot of vegetables.

Dr. Leslie Returns.—Dr. George W. Leslie, who has been absent from the city for the past two weeks on a business trip to Florence and vicinity returned yesterday. The doctor spent the greater part of his time, while away, on his ranch near Florence.

La Bon Vivant Opening.—L. P. Wyatt, proprietor of the La Bon Vivant restaurant, has made arrangements to have the Coos Bay Orchestra furnish music Sunday afternoon at his grand opening.

Married at Blanco.—George O. Mather and Miss Violet Billings, both of Coos county, were quietly married yesterday afternoon at the Blanco Hotel by Rev. D. W. Thurston, pastor of the Baptist church in this city.

Painting Fence.—The fence along the Broadway side of the C. A. Smith retail lumber yard is receiving a coat of paint, which improves its appearance a great deal. A coat of paint is also being applied to the new retail office.

City Visitors.—C. D. McFarland, the pioneer cranberry raiser of North Slough, was in the city yesterday on business.

Charles Selander, a well known rancher of Catching Slough, spent yesterday in this city on business.

Born.—To Mr. and Mrs. Knight, a son.

Plant Sails.—The steamer M. F. Plant will sail from San Francisco for this port Monday afternoon at 4

Alliance Departures.—Mrs. J. T. Bridges and daughter, of Myrtle Point, have secured passage on the steamer Alliance for the next trip to Portland. Mrs. W. S. Chandler and daughter Helen will leave Sunday on the steamer Alliance for Portland.

BANDON NOTES

Joseph Jouy, a longshoreman, narrowly escaped serious injury while loading the steamer Elizabeth the other morning. A plank weighing over two hundred pounds fell off the truck and he escaped from being crushed only by suddenly jumping to one side. The plank, however, caught him on the toes and mashed them. He was rendered unconscious by the shock.

The city council of Bandon issued a ukase that the city should clean up on June 3, 4 and 5. The rubbish was piled in the middle of the streets and carted away, and the city looks like new.

Miss Elma Nelson, who had two fingers mashed in the machinery at the Bandon woolen mill, is able to resume work.

J. Barkley, A. B. Sargland, and M. Erwin, all of Marshfield, are working at the Kadus mill in Bandon.

Painter Brothers are building a stone house, two stories high, on Front street and will be moving their business in the course of a couple of weeks.

Bandon has a new cigar factory in the shape of the Bowman Cigar Company, and it is turning out some excellent goods.

Bandon has a new general merchandise store, with a capital of $10,000—the R. H. Rasco Company. The company owns the building, which is 24x80 feet and two stories high. The steamship Elizabeth left Wednesday with a big load of lumber for San Francisco. Included were 140 cords of white cedar, besides a load of butter.

J. Watson is having a fine building constructed which when completed will have thirteen rooms.

SALEM RACE MEET

Liberal Purses and Fast Stock Indicate This Feature of State Fair Will Be Interesting.

Salem, June 7.—(Times Special).—Almost 100 horses are entered for the race meet to be held at the State Fair in Salem this fall. Senator F. A. Welch, of the State Board of Agriculture, yesterday completed the list of entries for the State Fair race program, which closed the latter part of May. The events closed include the following stakes: Greater Salem, Lewis and Clark, Merchants' Farmers', Inland, Valley, Oregon, Rural Spirit and Illihee. All filled except the Rural Spirit (2:10 trot) and the Illihee (two-year-old pace). The Board is considering the matter of reopening the Rural Spirit stake, to close on August 31, on which date entries will also be closed for the following events: 2:18 trot, purse $500; 2:12 pace, $500; 2:20 pace, $500; 2:23 trot, $500, and 2:15 pace, $500.

The number of entries in the different events closed are as follows: Greater Salem stake (2:09 pace), purse $500, 21; Lewis and Clark stake (2:14 trot), $5,000, 23; Merchants' stake (2:25 pace), $1,000, 14; Farmers' stake (2:27 trot), $1,000, 17; Inland stake (three-year-old trot), $400, 9; Valley stake (three-year-old pace), $400, 8; Oregon stake (two-year-old trot), $300, six.

The entries include some of the fastest horses in the west, and the Fair management predicts the best race meet for the coming fall ever held at the Oregon State Fair grounds or in the northwest.

$250,000 MILL BURNED.

Tacoma, June 7.—The Dempsey Lumber Company's mill, recently completed at a cost of $250,000, was burned tonight; almost total loss.

BISHOP VISITS HERE

The Right Reverend Charles Scading and Wife Will Spend Sunday—Coast Trip.

The Right Reverend Charles Scading, Bishop of Oregon, of the Episcopal church, and Mrs. Scading will spend Sunday, June 23, in this city, the guests of Messrs. Dr. J. T. McCormac and Attorney J. W. Bennett. Bishop Scading is successor to Bishop Morris and is making his first visit to the Coos Bay country. He will go from Marshfield to Coquille and continue his journey from there down the beach to the Gold beach country.

SIOUSLAW BAR BOUND

Several Thousand Feet of Lumber Guaranteed in Florence—Vessels Tied Up.

Florence, June 7.—(Times Special).—The Hurd Lumber and Navigation company has a large force of men at work enlarging the capacity of its mill at this place. When finished the mill will have double its present capacity. This improvement has been made necessary owing to the increased demand for lumber in the past year.

The companies operating mills at Florence have experienced a great deal of trouble the past season in shipping their lumber owing to the shoal condition of the bar at the mouth of the Siuslaw river. At present there are several thousand feet of lumber on the docks awaiting shipment on this account. Several vessels are bar bound there now.

The timber values around Florence have doubled in the past year and at the present prices eastern firms are buying quite extensively in this district.

RACE HAS FATAL FINISH

Automobile Crashes Into Electric Car and One Is Killed While Two May Die.

Albany, N. Y., June 7.—The two hundred mile automobile endurance contest, run under the auspices of the New York Motor Club, ended in a loss of one life and serious if not fatal injury to two other persons about three miles east of Albany, last night, when one of the automobiles crashed into an electric car. Clarence McKensier, of New York, president of the Standard Brake Co., was instantly killed. Policeman Moser and Chauffeur Swan are in the hospital.

MAD KING 59 YEARS OLD.

Loyal Bavaria Observes Day as if Monarch Were Sane.

Munich, Bavaria, June 7.—Mad King Otto's fifty-ninth birthday was celebrated in the same loyal manner as if he were on the throne.

Nominally he succeeded his brother, Ludwig II, who also was insane, twenty years ago, but he has never wielded the scepter. He is an object lesson in the needlessness of kings. The affairs of the realm have prospered and he never has been missed, except sentimentally.

The unhappy monarch passes his days walking dreamily through the halls and gardens of the castle of Furstenried, in which he is confined. He keeps staring blankly into space, looking for the past, as he once phrased it, and often not speaking for weeks. Furstenried, once a favorite residence of the pleasure-loving kings of Bavaria, is now hidden behind high stone walls with sentries, armed to the teeth, patrolling outside. The king is attended by a court chamberlain, two gentlemen in waiting and two physicians skilled in mental disorders. The physicians are relieved every month, but while on service they must maintain an untiring vigil.

Court ceremony is as scrupulously observed as conditions will permit. Prince Luitpold, the regent, never visits his crazed relative, as the sight of kindred always throws the king into a savage rage.
