

IN THE SCHOOL REALM

ALUMNI BANQUET.

On Friday night, June 28, the Marshfield High School Alumni Association will give its eighth annual banquet in the Masonic Hall in Marshfield. Fifty covers will be laid and toasts given. Tom Bennett, president of the Association, will officiate as toastmaster. The list of toasts have not been prepared and therefore it is impossible at this time to print them. The banquet will follow immediately after the graduating exercises of the Marshfield High School.

PROMENADE.

Saturday night, June 29, the Alumni Association will give its first annual promenade and the affair will undoubtedly be the event of the social season on Coos Bay. Dancing will begin at 8:30 o'clock and during the intervening hours till closing time light refreshments will be served the guests. Over five hundred invitations have been issued for the affair. Music will be furnished by the Coos Bay Orchestra. The decorations of the hall will be unusually beautiful and elaborate.

TEACHERS' VACATIONS.

Vacation days are here once more and the school teachers are enjoying well earned relaxation. Practically all of them will leave Coos Bay for the summer months. The North Bend school teachers have now about all departed. G. E. Finnerty has returned to his home in Cottage Grove, Miss Arda Edwards has gone to Drain, Miss Mabel Wilson has left for Yoncalla, Miss Rodine and Miss Coke departed Monday to spend the summer in Salem. Miss Murphy left Wednesday to attend summer school in Newport. Miss Kirkpatrick will remain in North Bend for a time and will have charge of the school library which will be open from 3 to 5 on Wednesdays. Miss Ida Gamble spent the first of the week in Coquille grading the eighth grade papers and has now returned to North Bend, where she will be the greater part of the summer. A. G. Raab, principal of the North Bend school, will shortly take a trip to Ten Mile and will then go down the coast into Curry county.

In the Marshfield school Miss Olive Easterday will spend the summer in Tacoma and will not again return to the Marshfield school. Miss Bradley will remain here and Miss Nellie Lyon will probably spend the summer in Denver with her sister. Mrs. Rude will visit in Binghampton with her mother. Miss Alice McCormac will probably take a pleasure trip though she has not definitely decided where she will go. Miss Agnes Gulovson will visit with her people in Portland. Mrs. P. M. Wilbur will remain in the city the greater part of the summer. Prof. Golden will devote his time to the supervision of the handsome residence which he is erecting in Boulevard Park just north of the city.

IN SOCIETY.

MUSICAL.

Mrs. E. M. Farringer held her third students' recital Friday afternoon at her home on South Broadway, Marshfield. The students showed marked improvement over their previous efforts. Following is the program given: Duet, "La Gracieuse," C. Bohn. Misses Maud and Mabel Lang. "Les Myrtes," The Myrtes, Nora Tower. "Pempo de Tarrantell," Hughes; Ruth Allen. "Fascination Waltz," Paul Wachs, Madge Savage. "Pas de Amphores," Chaminade; Gertrude Mandigo.

DOUBLE WEDDING.

A double wedding was the chief event in Marshfield Saturday night when Herman Hill and Miss Adele Stone, and William Hagquist and Brita Stone were united in marriage by the Rev. Bengtson in the I. O. O. F. Hall, in the presence of almost 300 friends. The ceremony began at 8:30 o'clock and consumed about an hour. When over, the couples were showered with congratulations and gifts. Dancing was indulged in and a banquet served. Both the grooms are employed in the Kruse and Banks shipbuilding yards and are well known on Coos Bay. The young ladies enjoy a wide acquaintance and the many friends of the couples wish them a long and happy married life.

MISS McARTHUR ENTERTAINS.
Mary Louise McArthur entertained about twenty of her little friends in a royal manner at her home in South Marshfield Saturday. The occasion was in honor of her sixth birthday. She was the recipient of many remembrances.

HIGH SCHOOL AND ALUMNI.

The High School course was adopted in Marshfield in 1896, and since that time there has been seventy-eight graduates. Of that number fifty were women and twenty-seven were men. All of the graduating classes have passed with unusually high grades; the present class, however, averaged the highest grade on record in the State of Oregon and graduated honorarily. Of the fifty girls who have passed out of the portals of the Marshfield High School eighteen have gone down before the marksmanship of that diligent little archer, Cupid. Two of the seventy-seven graduates—Miss Gussie Smith, 1897, and Miss Daisy Edwards, 1900, are deceased. The Alumni Association was organized in 1900 and the first banquet was given in the school house. Prof. Golden has been at the head of the Marshfield school for the past sixteen years, the last fifteen of which have been consecutive. Mrs. P. M. Wilbur has been teaching the first grade for thirteen consecutive years. Following are the graduating classes:

- 1897. Margaret Anderson, Jottie Watson, Archie Palmer.

SUCCESSFUL SCHOOL YEAR.

North Bend's school year just closed was most successful and the management is encouraged greatly by the showing of the pupils. The average daily attendance this year exceeded by thirteen pupils the total enrollment last year. On Monday Attorney J. W. Pixley and George Schlegel were elected to hold office on the board of education. The following pupils successfully passed the eighth grade examination and are eligible to the High School course, which opens next year:

NORTH BEND SCHOOL.

Through the generosity of L. A. Frey, the North Bend clothier, prizes were awarded to the pupils in the different grades in the North Bend school for the most marked improvement in writing. Owing to delay in shipping, the prizes can not be distributed before July. Every school pupil on Coos Bay will next year be given a chance to show his or her ability in oratory. Mr. Frey will hereafter give three prizes annually for the pupils making the best showing in this line. The details for the contests will be arranged later. Besides the prizes offered this year for the most marked improvement in copy the teachers put up prizes in the different grades for the pupils who turned out the best copy. C. A. Wood, C. R. Wis-son, and C. A. Boies acted as judges. Following are the pupils who are awarded prizes:

- First Grade.—Best copy, Hilda Nelson; most improvement, Dorsey Masterson.
- Second Grade.—Best copy, Goldje Riggs; most improvement, Fred. Hogadone.
- Third Grade.—Best copy, Ina Johnson; most improvement, Mary Ackley.
- Fourth Grade.—Best copy, Earl McKellips; most improvement, Curtis Sanford.
