Games To-Day.

- Marshfield at Coquille. North Bend at Bandon. Independents vs. Smith Team.

Marshfield will journey over to the county seat today and make a big bluff at winning from the Coquille team.

For example, we need not make the rule applicable to the smaller and less experienced teams.

Marshfield is anxious to win this game, as they are now third in the pennant race.

Should the unlooked-for happen, then Marshfield would occupy first place.

Marshfield's line-up: Tower, s. s.; Cowan, c.; Ferrey, r. f.; Snyder, c. f.; Wells or Pohlenus, l. f.; Wright, p.; Dimmick, 1b.; McLain, 2b.; Liljeqvist, 3b.

INDEPENDENTS VS. C. A. SMITH.

The Marshfield Independent ball team will meet the C. A. Smith team this afternoon on the local grounds.

BUSINESS DEMANDS ADDITIONAL ROOM.

Additional Equipment Will Be Added In Order to Increase Capacity.

W. L. Whaley, proprietor of the Coos Bay Mattress Company, is preparing to move into new and larger quarters on July 15.

Mr. Whaley purchased the business on the first of the present year, and since then has increased it so largely that more room was necessary to care for the trade.

It is interesting to know how the large variety of mattresses which Mr. Whaley is now manufacturing.

One who sees a mattress considers little the possibilities there are in their manufacture.
