TEN MILE HAS BIG CELEBRATION

One Hundred and Fifty Persons
Participate.

Races of Many Varieties Are Pulled Off—Dancing and Singing.

The people of the Ten Mile country held a successful celebration on the Fourth and pulled it off in the grove on North Lake. The gasoline boats gathered on the 150 participants and conveyed them to the scene of the celebration. The program was interesting and several odd contests took place. These events took place after the picnic dinner was served. Following is the list of events and the winners:

Boys' 100-yard race—Won by Emil Erickson; James Jordan second.

Men's 100-yard race—Peter Jordan first; Herman Carlson, second.

Girls' 100-yard race—Rose McDonald first; Kate McDonald second.

Tandem race—Four boys astride a pole or stick; won by Gus Carlson, Sanford Stonelake, James Jordan, Len McGee.

Boat race, quarter mile—Fred Pleep, first; Peter Jordan, second.

Ladies' boat race, one-eighth mile—Mrs. Gus Carlson first; B. M. Holcomb second.

Swimming race for $8 purse—Fred. Pleep, first; A. Pleep, second.

When the races and contests were concluded, the pleased crowd got out the well filled lunch baskets and had another feed, and this was followed later by a dance in the pavilion erected for that purpose. The festivities continued without interruption until 12 o'clock, when the baskets were again brought into service. After supper, a program of readings and vocal selections was rendered, and this consisted of some very excellent selections. The program:

A German song by Pleep Brothers. This made a hit, and it was followed by a Finnish song by three voices, which was well received.

Kickapoo Indian war dance by B. M. Holcomb.

Reading—Maud Muller, by Lizzie Carlson.

Old Settlers' Story, by Mrs. Thompson.

Upon conclusion of the program, dancing was resumed and continued until 2 o'clock the next day, being only interrupted at meal time for refreshments. The event was considered a big success and the most enjoyable time was experienced in the history of Ten Mile celebrations. The affair was managed and arranged by Simon Erickson and Mrs. Thompson and the participants feel highly grateful to these people for their work in connection with the ideal time.
