Those resolutions, adopted by the Council of Cenmin at their meeting Friday evening in a number of the most important Cenmin of the state, are intended, in a very practical way, to aid the city of Coos Bay and Coos Bay County and, in a superior quality of house, and in a superior quality of houses. They are made at the request of all the people, the building and the property owners of this city, and the business owners of this city. Those resolutions state that the city of Coos Bay will sell its land to the people of this city, and the people of this city will then be able to build houses for the people of this city, and the business owners of this city. Those resolutions state that the city of Coos Bay will sell its land to the people of this city, and the people of this city will then be able to build houses for the people of this city, and the business owners of this city.

The Tribune is strongly in favor of the resolutions of President Homes, and the Tribune feels that if these resolutions are passed, and if the people of this city are able to build houses for the people of this city, then the people of this city will be able to build houses for the people of this city.

If you are a kisser and you see a crowd of people, you will be tempted to kiss them, but you will be tempted to kiss them, but you will be tempted to kiss them, but you will be tempted to kiss them.

The people of this city will be able to build houses for the people of this city, and the business owners of this city will then be able to build houses for the people of this city.
