CARROLL TOWNSHIP,

[Image of a document page]

[Text begins]

SUMMER COMING

J. B. Bouts, of Marshfield, was visiting friends and relatives here this week. He returned to his home at Big Creek.

J. A. Booth, of Cox River, was Saturday morning in the hospital in Marshfield, where he is making his home.

Mrs. M. B. Tomlinson, who has been visiting her son at Big Creek, was here Saturday night, being met at the station by her brother, Mr. M. B. Tomlinson, and her son. She stayed until Sunday morning, when she started back to Big Creek.

Mrs. O. W. Eldridge, of Marion, who has been visiting her brother, Mr. A. P. Johnson, of Big Creek, was here Friday morning, being met at the station by her brother and his wife. She stayed until Sunday morning, when she returned to Big Creek.

Mrs. S. D. Therriault, of Big Creek, was here Friday morning, being met at the station by her brother and his wife. She stayed until Sunday morning, when she returned to Big Creek.

Mrs. J. B. Bouts, of Big Creek, was visiting friends and relatives here this week. She returned to her home at Big Creek.

Mrs. J. A. Booth, of Cox River, was Saturday morning in the hospital in Marshfield, where he is making his home.

Mrs. M. B. Tomlinson, who has been visiting her son at Big Creek, was here Saturday night, being met at the station by her brother, Mr. M. B. Tomlinson, and her son. She stayed until Sunday morning, when she started back to Big Creek.

Mrs. O. W. Eldridge, of Marion, who has been visiting her brother, Mr. A. P. Johnson, of Big Creek, was here Friday morning, being met at the station by her brother and his wife. She stayed until Sunday morning, when she returned to Big Creek.

Mrs. M. B. Therriault, of Big Creek, was here Friday morning, being met at the station by her brother and his wife. She stayed until Sunday morning, when she returned to Big Creek.