HAYWOOD IS "NOT GUILTY"

Jury Arrives at Verdict Freeing Federation Official On Third Ballot.

DEFENDANT BREAKS DOWN Decision Opens Flood-Gates to His Tears.

COURT ROOM GOES WILD

Cheering Crowd Rushes Upon Haywood and He is Showered With Congratulations.

FINDING OF THE VERDICT.
 Verdict "Not Guilty" arrived at after jury had been out 21 hours.
 First Ballot—Not guilty, 8; guilty, 2; blank, 2.
 Second Ballot—Not guilty, 9; guilty, 3; deadlock for twelve hours.
 Third Ballot—Verdict vindicating Haywood of the murder of Governor Steunenberg was arrived at shortly after day-break Sunday.
 (Special to The Times.)

Boise, July 29.—William D. Haywood, defendant in one of the most noted trials involving conspiracy and murder the country has ever known, left the jail Sunday a free man, acquitted of the murder of former Governor Frank Steunenberg. It was after being out twenty-one hours that the verdict was arrived at. The jurors were at first divided, eight for acquittal, two for conviction and two blank, and then seemed deadlocked at ten for acquittal to two for conviction, and finally came to an agreement shortly after daybreak Sunday.

Events moved rapidly after this and hardly had the principal actors in the trial been gathered into the court room a few moments before 8 o'clock when a white envelope was handed by the foreman to the judge. Judge Wood opened the envelope, hesitated, looked again, and then in some amazement said: "There is nothing in here."

"There's the right envelope in your coat pocket," said Juror Russell to Foreman Gess.

The foreman was palpably nervous and this added materially to the strain felt by all in the court room. The second envelope was handed up, Judge Wood glanced at it and tossed the paper to the clerk who read: "State of Idaho against William D. Haywood. We, the jury in the above entitled cause, find the defendant, William D. Haywood, not guilty. Thomas B. Gess, foreman."

Then came congratulations of Haywood in the midst of which Judge Wood said: "The defendant will be discharged and the jury dismissed for this term."

Tears swelled to the eyes of the man who during 80 days of trial, sat with stolid indifference written upon every feature. At last, the icy armor he had thrown about himself had been pierced, and whatever of pent-up feeling had been contained within was loosed. Haywood's attorneys were fairly lifted from their seats, and Judge Wood made no effort to restoring order as the crowd surrounded Haywood to shake his hands and shout aloud their congratulations. James H. Hawley, leading counsel for the state, and O. M. Van Dym, prosecuting attorney of the county in which former Governor Steunenberg was assassinated, sat gloomy and unresponsive in their places. Senator Borah, who made the closing plea for conviction, was not present.

COQUILLE TAKES ONE FROM BANDON

Neither Seemed to Care for Victory—News in General from Coos County Seat.

(By Special Service.)
 Coquille, July 29.—The leaders took the tallenders into camp by a score of 14 to 9. The game might have been termed a parody on "Gaston" and "Alphonse" with Coquille magnanimously insisting: "After you my dear Bandon. Please take the game, my dear Bandon," and Bandon, "After you, my dear Coquille, you take the game."

Each team seemed determined to give the game to the other and the result was in doubt till the last man was out. When Bandon was at the bat it looked as though Coquille would let them down without a score then Collier would get liberal and either poke one into their slats, or walk one, apparently with the king intention of giving them a chance to score if possible. With Coquille at the bat, the Bandon pitcher duplicated Collier's action.

The second inning Walker seemed to think Coquille had not scored soon enough, so proceeded to walk three men, and hit one, so to give the leaders a chance to score. Hahn replaced Walker in the fourth inning and shut Coquille out for a couple of innings.

Then he seemed to think he was too hard on the boys and commenced to hand them out to first base by walking four and hitting two. With a few errors and a hit now and then, the leaders kept the score growing.
 Score by innings:
 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9
 Coquille 0 5 4 0 3 1 0 1—14
 Bandon 0 4 1 1 0 0 1 2 0—9
 Hits by innings:
 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9
 Coquille 0 1 2 0 1 1 1 0 2—8
 Bandon 0 2 1 1 0 0 2 0—6
 Summary: Three-base hit, Thurman. Two-base hits, J. Collier, P. Collier, Hartley, Blackey, McNair. Base on balls, Collier 4, Walker 4, Hahn 4. Struck out, by Collier 4, by Walker 4, by Hahn 5. Wild pitch, Walker 2, Hahn 2. Pass balls, Peralta 2, Swift 4. Errors, Coquille 8, Bandon 9.

LADIES AID PICNIC

The Ladies Aid picnic at the farm of Mr. Ozier was a grand success. Conveyances met the steamer Echo at the landing and carried the crowd to the grounds near the house, where under the beautiful trees the tables were laid with every available good thing that could be thought of to tickle the palate. Everyone did justice to the dinner, and pronounced it good. After the sumptuous feast the pot of gold at the end of the rainbow was the next attraction. It consisted of crepe paper woven into the form of a rainbow and ending in a cupboard covered with evergreen, which concealed a jar of lemonade at the bottom of which a nugget of gold was found.

Though it grew on a lemon tree, instead of in mother earth, every one refreshed themselves with a cold drink. Then while some enjoyed themselves in social chat, others jumped the rope and played games. The milking contest however was the most exciting. The old bossy that had been selected to furnish the milk looked excited and scared as the ladies approached to enter the contest, but after several had tried their skill she became calm. Mrs. Burns took first prize, milking one quart in three-fourths of a minute. Mrs. Barrow took the booby prize. Then as the moon came up to light the way, all returned to town tired but happy with the day's pleasures.

UNDER ALMIGHTY'S ORDERS.

Hallucination Causes Insane Sheep Herder to Wreck Train.

Butte, July 29.—A special to the Miner from Great Falls says: Because he imagined the Almighty ordered him to do so, a crazed sheep herder, whose name cannot be learned, derailed passenger train No. 3 on the Great Northern at Toledo station, seven miles east of Havre, Sunday morning, causing the death of a fireman and slightly injuring a number of passengers. The train was going 30 miles an hour. When within 50 yards of the switch the engineer saw the man throw the switch, the light changing from white to red. He instantly applied the air but a moment later the engine, mail and baggage cars, and smoker were a mass of twisted and broken wreckage. When the passengers issued from the cars, remaining on the track they found the demented sheep herder sitting beside the switchstand calmly surveying the wreck. He volunteered the information that he wrecked the train because "God Almighty told me to do it." He was sent to Havre on the relief train and is now in jail there.

hours, the two men insisting upon a conviction in some degree being Thomas Powell and Samuel D. Gilman, ranchers.

The jurors in favor of acquittal took turns in arguing with the recalcitrants. At 3:30 a. m. Juror Powell succumbed and then all the jurymen turned in for a nap. It was a little after 6 o'clock when Juror Gilman was aroused, with the announcement that another vote was about to be taken.

HAND OF IRON RULES THE SEA

Sailing Masters Are Compelled To Run Vessels at Dangerous Speed.

SCHEDULES MUST BE MADE

Foggy Weather An Unknown Term, Officially.

COLUMBIA WRECK INQUIRY

Miss Alice Osterburg Refutes Statements that Officer Hawse Acted In Ungentlemanly Manner.

San Francisco, July 29.—The responsibility of the companies which by iron clad schedules compel their masters of ships to go at a speed their consciences tells them is unsafe was the feature of the Columbia wreck testimony taken before Captain Birmingham today. Second Officer Agerup's testimony established more clearly than has been done before the fact that captains are compelled to run their ships full speed along the dangerous coast in foggy weather in the course navigated by many vessels.

Birmingham asked if it was the usual practice to go at full speed ahead. Agerup replied the Captain always slowed down when he heard a steamer ahead. The question whether it was necessary to go at full speed in order to make schedule time elicited the statement there was certain time allowed for trips on coast steamships and it was necessary to arrive at a certain hour to get in on time and avoid delay.

"Does the ship never slow down unless there is a steamer ahead?"
 "I can't recollect we ever did. It might have been done once in awhile in especially bad weather," said Agerup.

Attorney Knight for the company took the witness and elicited from him that Captain Doran had never ordered him to push the vessel ahead at anytime and that he had never heard the captain say he must make certain time. Knight made not an effort to shake the dangerous testimony that dangerous runs were made to keep the vessel on its schedule and that moral suasion of the company was the reason for fast runs.

The first witness of the day, Miss Alice Osterburg, who was a passenger on the Columbia testified that the conduct of Officer Hawse was gentlemanly throughout the disaster. Her testimony indicates the charge against Hawse is a case of mistaken identity. She denied the story that Hawse procured whiskey for himself and testified the whiskey was given women passengers on the boat. She also denied Hawse was forced to give up his coat to a woman passenger and declared he did so voluntarily. She likewise denied he struck a passenger.

D. B. KEATING WEDS LAURA STURTEVANT

Marriage Ceremony Celebrated at Home of Mrs. A. Schroeder Near Coquille.

A wedding at which the guests consisted of only the immediate relatives of the bride, was celebrated on Sunday at noon, at the residence of Mrs. Alfred Schroeder, sister of the bride, near Coquille. Mr. Daniel B. Keating, of Marshfield, slipped away without informing his best friends of his intention, and when he returned, brought with him the bride, formerly Miss Laura B. Sturtevant. The marriage was performed by Rev. Thomas Barklow, of the Myrtle Point Baptist church. The bride wore cream silk and the groom the usual black.

After the ceremony, a wedding dinner was served, and Mr. and Mrs. Keating drove home to Marshfield later in the day. The groom is employed with Magné & Matson and is a young man with a host of friends. The bride is also well known in Marshfield where she has spent some time and made many close friends. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Sturtevant, of Myrtle Point. They will soon take up housekeeping and be at home to their friends.

COURTENAY MILL WORK PROGRESSING

Owner Says Delays On Material Have Hampered Buildings—Completed Last of August.

Mr. A. A. Courtenay was in the city yesterday and was queried about the progress being made with his mill on Isthmus Inlet. He said he was getting along as well as he could expect, considering the delays which are bound to occur so far away from supplies. He stated that one source of delay was in obtaining timbers for carriages. This, he had to order from Portland as the sawmills on the bay could not saw the material for him inside of three weeks. These supplies came on the Breakwater last week.

The brick work for boiler foundations and supports is about completed and will be finished this week. While not being certain as to when the mill will be ready for operation, he thought it should be completed by the last of August. Piling has been another source of delay, and he is building some large booms where these are required, in order to have room for a large supply of logs.

ST. BERNARD DOGS AND THEIR WORK

How the Lost in the Alps Are Rescued Shown at the Rink This Week.

An interesting, as well as thrilling, picture is being shown at the Rink this week, depicting the life of the mountaineers in the Alps. The picture tells the story of two children being lost in a snowstorm in the high altitudes, and their miraculous rescue by two St. Bernard dogs, trained by the Monks and kept for that purpose.

In the Alpine mountains they are to the traveler what the life saving sation is to the shipwrecked mariner on the sea coast. The picture must be seen to be fully appreciated, and the management says it is alone worth the price of admission. In addition to this interesting subject, a number of other amusing, as well as instructive pictures are shown. Prof. Cundiff has some new selections from his musical repertoire, and renders one of the latest illustrated song hits.

MOYER'S BOND IS $25,000

Release at Hand for Co-Defendant In the Steunenberg Murder Case.

MINERS RAISE THE MONEY

Western Federation Will Leave Boise at Once.

PETTIBONE'S TRIAL NEXT

Evidence Against Him Said to Be More Incriminating Than Any of the Others.

BULLETIN, 1 A. M.

Boise, July 30.—A telegram to Peter Breen, of the defendant's counsel, tonight from Butte said arrangements at Butte had been completed for Moyer's bail.

Boise, July 29.—Charles H. Moyer, co-defendant of Haywood, was ordered on $25,000 bond today by Judge Wood, who presided at the Haywood trial. Attorneys for the Federation attempted to have his bond ready for filing tonight, but arrangements had not been wholly completed at a late hour and Moyer resigned himself to another night in the jail. He probably will be released tomorrow and will leave within 24 hours for his home in Denver.

An effort was made by an attorney for the prosecution and defense to arrive at an agreement regarding bail for Pettibone, but it came to nothing and no application was made in his behalf. A motion was made for a speedy trial however and his case was set down for October 1. Counsel intimated today they might apply for bonds for Pettibone later, but it is not believed the state's attorney will consent.

It has been generally sated that there is more incriminating evidence against Pettibone than any of the others, while it has been generally conceded that the case against Moyer is the weakest of the three.

The defense in the Haywood case admitted there were a number of things for Pettibone to explain as to his association with Harry Orchard and the sending of money to him, but they said it would be "time enough to deal with these matters when Pettibone himself was placed on trial.

Haywood today continued to receive many congratulatory telegrams from all sections of the country. They came from individuals, from the local unions of the Western Federation, and from all classes of labor unions and from socialist organizations and leaders.

The bond for Moyer is to be given by the Butte local of the Western Federation, which is the richest local in the organization and which is said to carry a deposit of $100,000 to $140,000 constantly in the bank.

TRAIN DISASTER ON THE N. P.

Loss of Life and Burning Reported On Fast Passenger Train.

Helena, July 30.—It was reported late last night that No. 16 on the Northern Pacific was wrecked near Ellston and that five were killed and the train set on fire. This report could not be confirmed, he only information given out here coming from an irresponsible and unwilling source at the company's offices at the depot, which was to the effect: "Engine off the track." Later reports were that it was simply a freight wreck. It was reported however the wrecking train will be sent from here early this morning.

MARSHFIELD WINNER OVER NORTH BEND

Games From Now On Will Be Decisive—Dope In General For the Fans.

STANDING OF CLUBS.
 * Name P. W. L. Pct. *
 * Coquille 8 7 1 .875 *
 * North Bend 8 4 4 .500 *
 * Marshfield 8 4 4 .500 *
 * Bandon 8 1 7 .125 *

 * 4 to 2.
 * Marshfield beat North Bend.

Hand't you heard about it? It happened on Sunday, and the way the Marshfield boys played ball was a revelation. They took everything which came in reach, and batted the ball at times. The game was one of those snappy contests which delights a crowd. All the returning fans agreed that it was the best game that has been played on this side of the divide this season. And most of North Bend acquiesces. Wright officiated in the box for Marshfield and Foote served the benders for North Bend. The hitting was what is considered free, but most of the long hard drives went into the waiting mits of the opposition. There is little more to tell. The game was spirited and both teams were at their best. North Bend had twelve put-outs in the field, and Marshfield, seven.

This victory for Marshfield ties her with North Bend for second place and gives her an opportunity to forge ahead and overtake Coquille. By winning over Bandon on Sunday, Coquille has a lead of three games and Captain Peralta says that one more win for his team will give it a cinch on the pennant. It is therefore up to North Bend to take the county seat boys into camp next Sunday at Coquille if either of the Coos Bay teams hope to figure in the final round-up for first place. Marshfield will play at Bandon, and has confidence of winning. Marshfield will hence of winning. But Coquille must be held down for the one game which gives her the pennant or the contest will not be so interesting hereafter.

Score by innings:
 North Bend . . . 0 0 2 0 0 0 0—2
 Summary: Earned runs—Marshfield, 2. Bases stolen—Wickman, 2; Gaffney, 2; Paul, Tower. Double play—Wright, Foote, Lilljeqvist. Bases on balls—Off Tower, 2. Wild pitch—Foote, Wright. Passed balls—Cowan, Lyons. Struck out—By Foote, 3; by Wright, 3. Base hits—North Bend, 8; Marshfield, 6. Scorer—Mrs. Lyons.

COOS BAY NEEDS MEN FOR LABOR

A good advertisement for Coos Bay is the fact that the Anderson-Hall employment agency has places for 100 men. They are needed immediately, and the wages offered are sufficiently attractive if the men were in the country to take the work.
