Extended Visit.—Will and Mrs. Rohrer will leave today on the Breakwater for a month's visit in Oregon and California. They will stop in Portland, Grants Pass, a week at Shasta Springs, and some time in San Francisco, and return from there on the Plant.

Returns From Boise.—J. P. Morris returned from a business trip to Boise on the Breakwater. He left here last Thursday and spent two days in the Idaho capital, and considers he made some pretty good time.

County Assessor Here.—Olin Arnsperger, deputy county assessor, was in from South Inlet yesterday. He has a crew of men in the neighborhood of the Boutin logging camp doing surveying for landowners in that vicinity.

Believes in Coos Bay.—A. A. Adams, who had been here from Los Angeles for several months, left yesterday morning for home. Mr. Adams is a firm believer in the future of Coos Bay and boosts whenever he has opportunity.

Trip to Philadelphia.—Mr. W. Magee brought his mother to this city from Ten Mile yesterday and secured her passage on the Breakwater to Portland. From there she will go to her home in Philadelphia. Building Bungalow.—D. Utter, who is interested in the Isthmus Inlet brickyard, commenced the erection of a five-room bungalow on a fine site between Marshfield and Ferndale, yesterday.

Week's Outing.—Victor Wickman, C. Stafford, G. Chambers and O. Hopson returned from a week's outing on the divide, centering Ten Mile. The Umpqua Valley and Coos river.

Painful Accident.—Johnny Haglund, of South Marshfield, cut his foot very badly, severing three toes. He dropped a sharp axe on his foot thus causing the injury.

Big Order of Cheese.—Captain W. C. Harris came down from Sumner yesterday with 3500 pounds of choice cheese for the Davis-Shultz Company, of North Bend.

Breakwater Arrives.—The Breakwater left Portland three hours late on Monday night, and arrived in North Bend Tuesday at midnight.

New Cheese Vat.—A new cheese vat is being lined for the Coos Bay Creamery and will be sent across the bay today.

Re-Roofing Building.—The McPherson-Ginsler Company's business building is being re-roofed.

Building Sidewalks.—Mr. Nelson is building sidewalks in front of his three business buildings on Front street.
