Times' Man Leaves.—Geo. Neergard, who has been with the Coos Bay Times for some time in the capacity of linotype operator, departed yesterday for Portland. He will work in Portland and Seattle before starting on his way east. Mr. Neergard is employed by the Mergenthaler Linotype company to fill vacancies, and finds the occupation affords opportunity for extensive travel.

Buys Plat E Lots.—H. J. Isaacs has sold a half interest in twenty-three Plat E lots to Mr. Savage, of Grants Pass. Mr. Savage also bought two lots at the corner of State and Union streets in Plat B of Mr. Isaacs. He intends building a home on the two last named lots.

Ten Mile Vacation.—Charles Kronholm of North Bend was in Marshfield, just returned from Ten Mile, where he had spent a week. He found good hunting and fishing and enjoyed the outing very much. Mrs. Kronholm and the children are still at the lake.

Return From Portland.—Dr. Bert E. Schoonmaker and Mrs. Schoonmaker have returned from a visit to Portland. They were accompanied by Miss Edith Potter of Portland, daughter of A. H. Potter, manager of the Atkins Saw Company for the Pacific coast.

Returns to Bay.—Bert Rush arrived in yesterday over the Coos Bay wagon road from Los Angeles to look after his property interests. He says that Marshfield has made wonderful growth since he left here last fall to winter in Los Angeles.

Installs Electric Motor.—Mr. Whaley, of the Coos Bay Bedding and Upholstery Company, has installed a five-horse power electric motor, and contemplates putting in another motor of the same capacity.

Fitting Up Houses.—Robert Marsden has moved two houses on his lots on Pine street and is fitting them for dwellings, by repairing and making additions to both.

Water Front Lights.—The city of North Bend has put in three new arc lights on the water front. Heretofore the darkness has inconvenienced small boats bringing and taking passengers.
