

PERSONAL MENTION.

Miss Susie Eickworth left this city yesterday. Frank Sumner is visiting his parents at Bandon. Mr. J. Fitzgerald of Coos River was here yesterday. Mr. Albert Seelig returned from Coquille yesterday. Mr. John Anderson of South Inlet was in the city yesterday. Miss Maggie Miller returned from her summer school at Monmoth Wednesday. Miss Maud Painter and Miss Helen Chandler came down from the river yesterday. Mrs. Pendergrass and daughter Edith returned yesterday from a few days visit at North Bend. Milo Sumner leaves today on a hunting expedition in the Coast Range mountains. Mrs. Joe. Russel left for Portland on the Breakwater after having visited here for a number of weeks. Mrs. Wilson who has been here visiting her sister-in-law Mrs. Friedberg left yesterday on the Breakwater for Portland. Mr. A. S. Milne representing the Union Meat Market of Portland passed through Marshfield yesterday on his way to Coquille. Mr. L. C. Collins the Fillman and Bendell representative has moved his family into the McArthur residence in South Marshfield. Mr. and Mrs. M. Jutstrom celebrated their 20th anniversary Wednesday by entertaining their many friends. A large number of guests were present and an excellent time was enjoyed by all. Mrs. Geo. Farrin entertained a number of guests Wednesday evening in honor of Professor Ball. Excellent selections of classical music were rendered by the Professor and highly appreciated by the guests. Refreshments were served and a delightful time was enjoyed by all. A letter received from Miss Annie Johannesson tells of her safe arrival in Bremen-Germany, where she is now visiting with relatives. Miss Johannesson tells of her safe arrival will go to Paris and remain for some time. From there she will return to Germany and then back to Coos Bay.

EAST MARSHFIELD NEWS.

Charles Olsen and family late of Wisconsin have moved in their new residence at this place. Miss Josie Peterson was down from Bay City for a short visit with her parents at this place. The Despatch has been laid up for repairs all week causing great inconvenience for those who must go back and forth to Marshfield. Frank Dillon, a very promising young man of Coos Bay, has secured a good position in Los Angeles, Cal., and likes it there very much. Mrs. E. Davenport, of Millington, accompanied by her three boys, was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Ray Watson, at Coquille City, last week. Gilbert Steckle and Mrs. S. C. Steckle have purchased five acres more off the Buckman tract opposite Millington and will clear it up, making a very sightly home. Miss Lillian McCann and Miss Bronta Jennings have gone to Bandon to attend the teachers' institute. Miss McCann on her return will be the guest of the Misses Kerr at Coquille City for a few days. Robt. Agers, a former resident of the Bay, now has a home in Berkeley. He has been seriously ill with kidney disease and has been a patient at the St. Helena sanitarium for the past two months. His many friends here will be pleased to hear of his improvement. Mrs. Thomas Buckman, a former resident of this place, who has been in poor health, is not improving. She is twenty miles from Ashland, up in the mountains. Mr. Buckman has bought several hundred acres of land and is opening a gold mine. He is enjoying splendid health. Mrs. E. R. Hodson, with her little daughter, Miss Erma, who had been visiting her mother, Mrs. Robert McCann, at this place, returned to their home on South Coos river yesterday. Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Steckle have been here for a few days. Cyrus is expecting a raft of logs from his camp on South Inlet for the A. A. Courtney mill at Millington. If our worthy road commissioners will give some of their valuable time to the east side and have that long bridge and county road repaired it would please the people of this neighborhood. The county road has had no improvements for the past two seasons and this is the nearest and best road to Roseburg. East Marshfield would make as beautiful a city to Marshfield as Oakland is to San Francisco. This is certainly the most desirable residence place of any part of the bay. Give us a ferry to Marshfield. Coquille has splendid roads on each side of the river and many valuable bridges, also a free ferry. Yet the people on the bay pay double the taxes and have no roads. For no other reason many look around and say, "This is a lovely place to live" then go away again.

ALLEGANY NOTES.

Chas. Rodine has commenced a fine new house. Mrs. Peterson of East Marshfield is on Coos River. Wm. Robinson moved to the Peterson camp on the 18th. Jack Paker of Ash brought produce over the trail Sunday. Miss Irma Camp closed her school at Allegany the 15th inst. Rev. Miller of U. B. church is expected in our midst Thursday. Repairing the Allegany school house was commenced Saturday. Miss Carrie Rodine is in Coquille and Bandon for a couple of weeks. The Salvation Army officers will hold meetings at Allegany Tuesday. Work on the new road over the Golden Falls began last Wednesday. Miss Devore close her school at Glenn Creek the 14th and left for her home immediately. Miss Effie Rodine of Marshfield spent Sunday with her parents Mrs. and Mrs. Charles Rodine. The taking of the large engine into the Peterson camp is necessitating widening the road a great deal. Mrs. Eve Piper is in Allegany laying in a supply of fruit and is helping Mrs. Edwards and Mrs. Thomas put up fruit. Miss Mae Peterson who has been at Peterson's camp returned to her home in Marshfield on account of her brother Norman's illness. Miss Turillot expects to leave for the Coquille Tuesday. She has spent two or three weeks very pleasantly with her brother, G. A. Gould and family. Mrs. Bradberry and family of Marshfield and sister Mrs. Wise, of Portland, are camping in Price's grove. A company from North Bend are camping in the grove also. T. E. Collins, of Belleville, Kans., and nephew H. D. Savage, of Marshfield visited at the Price home last week. Mr. Collins has lived in a level corn country and does not seem able to see the money values in Coos Bay rich dairy and fruit land and did not remain long enough to be enlightened.

HENRYVILLE ITEMS.

Mr. M. J. Bowron was in Marshfield, Thursday. They started boring for coal at Henryville Tuesday. Mr. J. L. Perrey visited his ranch on the Isthmus, Wednesday. A number of Marshfield people were trolling on the Isthmus, Sunday. Mr. Oran, Mr. Watson and Mr. Utter were visitors at the brickyard, Wednesday. Miss Sadie Kruse left the first of the week for Bandon, where she will camp for a few days. Mr. W. S. Chandler has a crew of surveyors at work surveying the S. P. property on the Isthmus.
