

HUNTING PARTY IS RETURNING HOME

A friend has received a letter from the hunting party, consisting of Bert Hamrick, Jack Flanagan, Frank Lamberton and R. P. Smith, who went to Curry county about two weeks ago, which says they have killed their allotment of deer and are hiking homeward by easy stages. They were at Wedderburn when they wrote.

OUTLOOK GOOD FOR BUSINESS COLLEGE

M. G. Cleaver, of the North Bend business college, was a caller at the Times office yesterday. Mr. Cleaver is well pleased with the outlook for good attendance when the college opens on September 15th. He will make business trips to the three principal cities on the Coquille this week and solicit students while there. The college has secured the large room on the second floor of the Myers building which will be used for recitations. The college will teach business methods and stenography.

TOBACCO TRUST BADLY SCARED

Stocks Drops Twenty-Nine Points After President Delivers His Speech.

New York, Aug. 23.—Following the publication of the speech delivered yesterday by President Roosevelt at Provincetown, American Tobacco company's stock dropped 29 points. This trust is on the list scheduled for prosecution.

Wall Street bulls and bears are suddenly antithesizing the president, for the stand he has taken on the trust question. It was firmly believed on the street that the president would announce in his speech that the trust prosecutions were at an end. An alleged copy of the president's speech had been secured on the street and led the stock gamblers astray. The stand taken against the trusts by the president yesterday was like a blow in the face to the men on the street.

Ability demands recognition.

Miss Clara Louise Marye, a graduate of the Holmes Business College, starts for China this week, all traveling expenses paid, to accept a position with a large lumber importing firm at Hongkong.

Miss Marye in a letter to the Holmes Business College says: "The small amount of money I expended with the Holmes Business College for tuition, I consider one of the best investments I could possibly have made."

Miss Marye is a young woman of character and fine business ability. Faithfulness and technical knowledge have finally won for her an enviable distinction, and she is kind enough to attribute to the Holmes Business College credit for having equipped her with one of those necessary requisites.

The Holmes Business College has started hundreds of young men and women on the road to wealth and preferment.
