General Statements Concerning Labor.
 —No manly man will say that his fellow's work is menial or degrading. All grades of work are honorable. Labor furnishes a means of support. Labor is a great source of true value. The laborer should receive fair treatment. Laborers have a right to combine for mutual protection. Clergymen, doctors, merchants, lawyers—do have their unions. Send 25 cents to W. C. B., to find out, who makes your clothes? 727 Hayes St. San Francisco, California.
