Miss Drake is visiting at Coquille as the guest of Mrs. Levi Smith of that city.

Miss Georgia Gould has been appointed matron of the Coquille General Hospital.

Born—On Sept. 1st, 1907, to the wife of Arthur Vineyard, of East Marshfield, a son.

Miss Louise Ansley, of Vallejo, Cal., is visiting in the city with relatives and friends.

Mr. Clarence Tuttle returned to Coquille yesterday after a few days visit in this city.

James L. Ferry and George Ferry will leave this morning overland for Portland for a short stay.

Mrs. Laird returned to her home in Bandon yesterday after having spent a few days in this city.

Mr. T. T. Johnson has been very ill at his home on Broadway but is now improving and will soon be up again.

Eric Erickson has returned to Portland after a two weeks' visit with his parents and Marshfield friends.

Alton Cavanaugh, who recently underwent operation at his home is doing fine and will soon be outside again.

Miss Hattie Ferry left last night on the Breakwater for Portland where she will enter St. Helen's hall in that city.

Mr. T. Grimes left the city on the Breakwater for Lawrence, Kansas, where he will enter the university of art in that city.

Little Jim Mauzey whose life has been threatened for the last few days is not yet out of danger but at present his condition has slightly improved.

Major Kinney is very ill at his home in Plat B. The Major was suffering severely last evening, but it is hoped that this morning will bring him relief.

Melvin Belleu, who has been absent for something over a year, arrived in yesterday and will visit friends for a time. He is employed by the Northern Pacific railroad and lives in Washington.

Dr. Taggart, of Beaver Hill, came to the city Wednesday evening to attend the Medical Association meeting to have been held in this city the same evening, but which was postponed until later. The doctor left yesterday morning again for his home.

hotel should fall in line with them. At present there should not be any objection to this idea if the hotel proposition can be presented in the proper way. If Mr. Gibson had not come into the problem when he did and offered to build a hotel if the people would take a part of his bonds, the location selected would have been on Cedar street and not on "C" Street. It would have met with the favor of those who ignored the Gibson offer. It would have met the favor of the interest which introduced Mr. Hedwall of Minneapolis. The money would have been raised.

I think the paper is right when it says the city is disgraced by not having a hotel. We all hope the different factions will get together. No use to have a Kilkenny cat fight in which both cats will get the worst of it. The men who are at the head of the few can keep their lead if they are big enough to do it, and they will not prove themselves big enough unless they can consult and harmonize all sides. What a pity that they do not see the chance this city has now.

I propose that your plan that a hotel company be formed and the people be allowed to take one or two or ten shares of stock each and then that the rest of the stock be taken by those who will subscribe large amounts, be carried out. I admit that I think Mr. J. W. Bennett is the natural leader in Marshfield and that he deserves to be, and I hope he will be consulted. If he will head the subscription to the stock I know many other people who will subscribe and the majority of the subscribers can decide where the hotel will be located.

Another Monster Crowd With Hundreds Turned Away Who Were Unable to Gain Admission.

Last night another monster crowd gathered at Masonic Opera House to hear the Phenomenal Medical Expert and hear the high class entertainers accompanying him. Long before eight o'clock the house was packed to the doors. Hundreds came and could not even find standing room.

An ovation was given each appearance on the stage of the entertainers. When the phenomenal medical expert appeared he was greeted with thunderous applause. He received over one hundred people at his office yesterday. Many came who could not gain admission, who will return to consult the doctor today. His hours are 10 to 12 and 2 to 4, at Hotel Blanco.

PERSPECTIVE VIEW.

FIRST FLOOR PLAN.

SECOND FLOOR PLAN.

This handsome combination brick veneer and plaster frame house contains a large living room with open fireplace, lavatory, dining room, kitchen and complete pantry, four bedrooms and two bathrooms. It has a clothes chute and all the other latest improvements. The main bedroom has a fireplace, and all the bedrooms have plenty of good closets. The roof of the entry and the rear porch form a balcony on the second story on to which a door from the rear bedroom opens. The interior finish is oak, with oak floors in the first story, except in the kitchen and pantry, which are trimmed with birch and have maple floors. The bedrooms are finished in mahogany stained birch, with floors of maple. The attic is floored, but not otherwise finished. The basement is cemented and contains laundry with stationary tubs, boiler room and coal bins. Estimated cost, $4,500.
