

GERMANY FEELS A JEALOUSY

Warning For France That Her Campaign Must Not Be Extended.

NEW PHASE OF CONFLICT

Paris Sees Seriousness of the Outlook.—No Sign of Retreat.

Berlin, September 9.—Foreign Secretary Tschirsky, in conversation with representatives of the powers, has stated that Germany accepted fully the French assurance that the operations of the allied forces in Morocco would be within the terms of the Algeiras convention. He casually added, in substance, that, of course, the Algeiras convention did not contemplate France and Spain undertaking to suppress a civil war in Morocco. This reservation shows that any military operation on the part of the allies must either arouse controversy or be preceded by the consent of the interested powers. The British government seems to be waiting to see what Germany will do, and Germany, the correspondent is informed is determined to prevent the "Egyptianization of Morocco.

Herr Tschirsky today received three leading German merchants of Casa Blanca, who filed claims for compensation for the needless destruction by the French, as they affirm, of German property at Casa Blanca. These merchants expressed their opinion that action of the French was hasty and provocative and that probably no fighting would have occurred had the French Consul been at Casa Blanca.

Paris, September 8.—While there has not been more fighting at Casa Blanca since the fierce engagement of Tuesday, the seriousness of the general situation in Morocco and the possibility of its leading France into diplomatic difficulties with the other powers of Europe, notably Germany and Great Britain, to say nothing of the apparently growing necessity of increasing the size of the French forces on the Morocco coast, is occupying the attention of the French people.

The press is calling attention to the difficulty of keeping within the terms of the Algeiras convention, and the call to convene Parliament to discuss and decide what course the nation should pursue is becoming more insistent. There is a growing feeling that the importance of the decision in the matter of France's policy in Morocco should not be left entirely to the members of the Cabinet.

The seriousness of the fighting of Tuesday, in which Major Prevost of the Foreign Legion was killed, further details of which are published today, has brought home to the French people a comprehension of the persistent resistance of the Moors, and a realization that France may be only at the threshold of a protracted campaign that may easily prove costly in lives and money. The situation is now referred to as a "war" and no longer as an expedition of pacification.

No other power has been drawn into the difficulty, but Germany is watching the progress of events in Morocco more closely every day, and as it becomes apparent that the situation there is not improving it is intimated in Berlin that the Algeiras convention, under the terms of which France and Spain are acting in Morocco prescribe certain limits and that France is approaching the bounds beyond which she should not go without first obtaining the special permission of the powers.

The situation at Mazagan is reported to be growing more threatening and the exodus of Europeans from Tangier continues. Premier Clemenceau announced today there was reason to believe that neither Abdut Aziz, the reigning Sultan, nor Mullah Hanq, his brother, who has been proclaimed Sultan in the south, intended to make war against France.

Native advices received at Tangier declare that 20,000 hostile Moors have concentrated not far from Casa Blanca and that 10,000 Kabyle tribesmen have mobilized near Alenabaza. Spain is preparing to send reinforcements of men and ships to Morocco. One Spanish battleship, the Emperor Carlos V, arrived at Tangier today.

16 ACRE PEAR CROP NETS GROWER $20,000

Snowy Butte, Oregon, Orchardist, Reaps Rich Harvest From Pear Orchard.

The world's record for pear prices has just been smashed to small bits by Fred H. Hopkins, formerly of Portland, who some years ago purchased the Olwell orchards at Central Point, for $34,000. It was believed by conservative ones at that time that Mr. Hopkins paid a high price for the property. He has in the last week sold a single crop of pears off of 16 acres, for the sum of $20,000 in cash. The following letter written by him to William McMurray, general passenger agent of the Harriman lines, is explanatory:

"Snowy Butte Orchards, F. H. Hopkins, owner. H. T. Pankey, superintendent, Central Point, Ore., U. S. A., Sept. 2, 1907.—William McMurray, Portland—Dear Sir: I wish to thank you very much for copies of 'Sunset' and 'Road of a Thousand Wonders.' They are both very fine. 'I should like to tell you that I have just sold the crop from the 16 acres of pears that you looked at for $20,000 (cash) in round figures. The question comes to my mind, 'would any one give me $20,000 for the 16 acres of land with the pear trees as they will be after the crop is picked?' This world is chock full of doubting Tom's. With kind regards, Fred H. Hopkins."

CORONER'S JURY SAID "ACCIDENTAL KILLING"

Coroner Mings has returned from the scene of Saturday's shooting near Whiskey Run, and says the evidence before the jury was substantially as given in Sunday's Times. The jury returned a verdict of accidental shooting, after examining the young man who was accountable for the death, besides several others. Young Hull and Mathers went out in the morning, agreeing to go in separate directions and finally came together, as stated in a previous issue of this paper. Hull saw Mathers, but could not make out what he was looking at, and whistled. Mathers was about to cross the stream he had approached and likely was kept from hearing the signal by the water. The bullet which ended his life struck him back of the left ear and nearly tore the upper part of his head off.

COLONIST RATES SEND EASTERNERS THIS WAY

Incoming Trains Have Extra Coaches And Some Run in Double Sections.

Colonists are again pouring into Oregon. The Union Pacific system being the main artery of transportation from the Omaha territory, is carrying hundreds of homeseekers from the middle west who are intent upon examining the Oregon country, or are locating here permanently as a result of former investigations.

Overland train No. 5 has for the last three days been running in two sections on account of the heavy travel. In addition the train carries an extra tourist sleeping car that has been put on for the two months' colonist rate season. It is predicted by railroad men that the colonist movement this fall will break all records and will foot up at least 12,000 persons for Oregon. A year ago the same rate was in effect in August and September and the actual count of tickets showed 9,014 homeseekers landed in Oregon by the O. R. & N. alone. The beginning of this fall's movement as indicated by the first week's travel is much heavier than last year, and there is no reason to doubt that the proportion of increase will not be kept up, and O. R. & N. passenger officials say it will be the largest in the history of the road.

LEWISTON INVENTS NEW SORT OF DAY

That is Grape Day—It Will Occur in Course of Interstate Fair—Free Fruit For All.

Lewiston, Ind., Sept. 9.—Rose days, melon days and peach days are matters of annual occurrence, but it has remained to Lewiston and the rich vineyard country surrounding to outline plans for the initial grape day in the history of the country. Wednesday of fair week, October 7 to 12, has been set apart by the board of directors of the Lewiston-Clarkston Interstate Fair Association for this purpose, and on that day grapes—great, juicy clusters of them, such as are raised in no other portion of the country—will be given to all comers free.

The details of the plan have not as yet been completed, but it is probable that boys and girls nattily dressed, will walk about the streets carrying wide baskets loaded with the luscious fruit. Those who desire may take a cluster. There will be no charge. Funds to meet the expense of the day have been subscribed by private parties.

Many of the varieties of grapes that will be given out are famous throughout the world. The Hamburg, New York society's favorite which retails in that metropolis for from $5 to $6 a pound in winter, will be found in the baskets. There will also be the Sweetwater, or Chaselsais, the famous table grape of Paris. For years it was thought it could be grown successfully only in the south of Europe.

Persons with large appetites will find their need met in the large bunches of Flame Tokays, grapes averaging from four to seven pounds to the cluster. The Malaga, until recent years shipped into this country in cask dust from southern France and Spain, will also be found in the collection, as will many other equally well known varieties, all raised in the Lewiston valley.

KELLY ON TRIAL FOR WEARN MURDER

The case of John Kelly for the murder of Billy Wearn at Libby some months ago was called in the circuit court at Coquille yesterday. The murder grew out of a quarrel after an evening session of the rounders, and the quarrel was said to have been started by Wearn. Kelly cut Wearn so badly that he died after a lingering illness in the hospital of about a week. Coke and Goss are defending Kelly and the prosecution is being waged by Prosecuting Attorney Brown, and Deputy E. L. C. Farrin.

ANOTHER TUMOR REMOVED WITHOUT KNIFE BLOOD OR PAIN.

Last night Phenomenal Medical Expert removed another tumor in plain view of the audience which filled every inch of the Masonic Opera House.

Mr. William Hutchinson, of Marshfield, was the fortunate man who had the operation performed.

Mrs. E. A. May, of Marshfield, who is very deaf and has to use a trumpet to hear, was made to hear a low tone of voice with the ear she uses the trumpet in. The other ear has been totally deaf for 15 years and she could not even hear with the ear trumpet; after five minutes the doctor made her hear an ordinary tone voice. The lady said she had not heard a sound before from that ear for over 15 years of time. The roaring noise in the head she suffered from was removed in one minute. Great applause was given at the conclusion of this demonstration.

The entertainment was one of the best ever given in the city. The program is changed every night.

Doors will be opened tonight at 7 o'clock. Performance at 8. Admission 10 cents to everybody who has not coupon tickets.

The Doctor can be consulted in private rooms at Hotel Blanco, 10 to 12 and 2 to 4.
