

RIOTS HELP TO AMERICA

Discrimination on Part of Japanese Between England and U. S. Unwise.

NEW CONDITIONS IN GAME

Belief That Japan-American Treaty Will Not Be Long Delayed.

London, Sept. 10.—Neither the Colonial office nor the foreign office have received official information regarding the anti-Asiatic riots at Vancouver.

Washington, Sept. 10.—That a stringent exclusion treaty between America and Japan is measurably nearer realization than the most optimistical administration officials have believed forty-eight hours ago.

The belief that the treaty is now within sight is based on the condition that the Japanese government will now be brought face to face with the fact that the Asiatic cannot discriminate between Great Britain and the United States in matters of demands for fair treatment for its subjects.

VISIT HIS OLD TIME COMPANION

Wealthy Nevada Mining Man Visits His Friend Clay Moore and a Brother.

J. W. Crossen, from Silver Peak, Nevada, is a guest of his old time friend, Clay Moore. Mr. Crossen and Clay were companions and friends twenty years ago, and punched cattle on the ranges in Eastern Oregon and Idaho together.

This week, Mr. Crossen received word from Silver Peak to return home on business matters and he will sail today on the Plant. He will return, however, and finish out his vacation on Coos Bay, which he thinks one of the most pleasant places he ever visited.

Mr. Crossen tried to prevail upon his friend Moore to accompany him to Nevada for the short stay, offering to pay all the expense incurred, but Clay has a certain pride in the way of money matters and so is not going.

Mr. Crossen, in his two years' experience in Nevada has seen and observed a great deal and his tales of the ups and downs among the mining men and others is interesting. He relates one instance of sudden acquisition of wealth which likely has been equaled but seldom is chronicled.

Mr. Crossen says it is gratifying to get out of such a country for a time and see trees and running water. In the section of Nevada where he is located there is no living thing in the way of verdure and water is such a rarity that it costs consumers from three and a half to seven dollars per barrel, and most people think it cheap at that.

Mr. Crossen has visited several sections of the county, and thinks of making investments when he returns. He suggested to the Times reporter that a good booster sent to the mining districts of Nevada could interest many people in Coos Bay, since there are many there with accumulated wealth which they desire to invest but do not know where to go, or what to do with their money.

Alliance Will Sail Today.

The Alliance will sail today at one o'clock from North Bend. The Flyer will connect with the boat, leaving Marshfield in time for the sailing. The steamer went down last night to North Bend where she was unloading during the night.

KELLY JURY CAME TO NO AGREEMENT

Word Came Late Last Night That the Jury Could Not Agree On Finding.

Coquille, Sept. 10.—The circuit court of Coos county was called to order yesterday by Judge Hamilton at 10:15 in the morning. The jurors were called and when the case of the State of Oregon vs. John Kelly, for assault with intent to kill was called the examination of Jurmen proceeded.

The accused appeared in good health and eagerly listened to the evidence and though at all times nervous, he seemed quite cheerful. His sister, Mrs. Cora Johnson was in court with him and cheered him with her attentions. A night session was held Monday evening in order to expedite the trial, as the witnesses, numbered at least twenty-five. These witnesses agreed that the man who was killed was a quarrelsome character, especially when under the influence of liquor.

NOTE:—The word reached Marshfield late last night that the jury had disagreed.

Noted Capitalist In Town.

Among the arrivals on the Steamer Plant today were Dr. W. H. Woods, of Alameda, Cal., a noted retired capitalist of the Garden City. The Dr. will remain in the city a few days looking over the country. He will return on the next Plant but will be back again in about thirty days.
