An exceptionally jolly number of young men returned yesterday from a week's outing in the country surrounding Elks Peak. They report an excellent time. Fine game, and good walking. Those of the party were Messrs. Goodrum, Charles Jensen, Ray Golden and Geo. Baines.

Union Meeting.

The mothers' Club and the afternoon revival service held a union meeting last Friday in the Baptist church. There was a good attendance, and judging from the several short talks and the happy faces of the men and women, one was made to believe that "Optimism," the topic under discussion, was practiced as well as preached. "Faith in the Home" will be the subject for next Friday's club, which will unite as on last Friday.

GREAT GOOD IS EXPECTED

National Conference on Trusts and Combinations Will Have Curbing Effect

PROMINENT MEN ATTEND

All Classes View Coming Meeting as Likely to Bring About Reforms.

New York, Sept. 11.—That the national conference on trusts and combinations which is to be held in Chicago in October will create unusual interest already is apparent. Scores of letters from men prominent in the various pursuits have been received by the National Civic Federation, under whose auspices the conference is to be held. Almost without exception the expressions of the writers are highly commendatory and the opinion that great good will result from the exchange of ideas appears to be general. Among those who have written in this vein are the Rev. Dr. Lyman Abbott, D. D., editor of The Outlook; Samuel Gompers, President of the American Federation of Labor; Richard Watson Gilder, editor of The Century; John Mitchell, President of the United Mine Workers of America; Judge Peter S. Grosscup, of Chicago, Bishop Henry C. Potter; Charles G. Dawes, the Chicago banker; John M. Stahl, President of the Farmers National Congress and Nahum J. Bacheider, Grand Master of the National Grange.

Dr. Abbott in his letter voices the sentiment which runs through all the communications when he says, "This is a time when we need light, not heat." Nearly all the writers believe that the greatest good will come from the wide publicity which will be given the trust question as a result of open discussion by the leaders of thought who will take part in the conference. "It seems to me fundamentally true," writes Dr. Abbott, "that the interests of the railroads, the shippers and the general public are essentially one, and that it is of the utmost importance that men representing all these classes should get together, compare views and endeavor to come to some agreement as to the general principles by which these common interests can be best served." Mr. Gilder believes that, "This talk will help to bring calmness and coolness to the public mind, and Heaven knows it needs them." Judge Grosscup says that it is full time that the corporations, "which have grown up as developments of our business life without much reference to their relation to the people as institutions of, and for, the people, be looked into as institutions of, and for, the people." Bishop Potter believes that by "bringing the whole subject of the administration of corporations into the light we may be assisted by the best intelligence of the land" in clearing up a subject concerning which there is "so much ignorance and so much curious misapprehension." That the conference will be productive of much good in that it will allow all sides to meet and freely express their opinion on what he regards as one of the greatest subjects the country has to deal with, is the opinion of President Gompers. John Mitchell also sees much possible good in open and free discussion. Mr. Dawes regards the calling of the conference at this time as a highly useful piece of work. He believes that the industrial problems confronting the country today demand consideration by the best brains of the nation. The questions to be discussed at the conference are declared by President Stahl of the Farmers Congress to be "the most important pressing for solution before our people today." Grand Master Bacheider believes it is time "for serious people to discuss the trust problem when President Roosevelt and the law officers of the government, whose duty it is to enforce the Sherman Anti-Trust Act, openly say that under it the business of the country cannot be done today without violating it."

Bryan Speaks at Boise.

Boise, Idaho, Sept. 11.—William J. Bryan made an address here this evening under auspices of the Democratic state central committee. Mr. and Mrs. Bryan will tomorrow go to Blue Lake, where for several days, they will be guests of L. B. Perrine, at his famous fruit farm in Snake River canyon.

BANDON NEWS ITEMS

Bandon, Sept. 11.—The steamer Elizabeth arrived last night from Frisco with 250 tons of merchandise for local and up-river at Prosper, whence the schooner Ruby left tonight with lumber. Attorney C. R. Wade and T. B. Wheeler returned yesterday from attendance upon Circuit Court. Congressman W. C. Hawley passed through town yesterday. He made no speech as politics are somewhat disorganized by Circuit Court attendance. He went over the bar on the tug Triumph and spent a half day on Bandon Beach, leaving for Coquille last night. Alvin Munck, W. D. Clark, and Miss Lou Jenkins, left for Coquille this morning, the victims of subpoenas in the case of Boone vs. Strang.
