ENJOYED STAGE TRIP.

Long Beach, Cal., Sept. 7, 1907. Editor Coos Bay Times:

Dear Sir:—Mrs. Harriman and I recently took the trip overland from Coos Bay to Roseburg and we desire to be heard from in recommendation of Fred Wilson's private stage line.

Mrs. Gauntlett and son, Mrs. Harriman and I left Coos Bay on the boat "Sunner" at six o'clock Wednesday morning. At eight o'clock we were comfortably seated in a strong, easy-riding, three-seated rig drawn by a pair of good horses.

CONGRESSMAN SAW THE BAR

North Bend Boosters Took Him About the Bay and to the Entrance.

SOUNDINGS WERE 24 FEET

Mr. Hawley Looking Into All Questions of Interest to This Country.

If Congressman Hawley does not understand the situation on Coos Bay it is not because the citizens of North Bend did not do their share. Yesterday afternoon they acted on the presumption that Mr. Hawley was from Missouri and "showed him." They all boarded the Columbia and with a large lumber vessel in tow went out over the bar and turned the vessel loose.

While on the trip, soundings were taken on the bar, which showed 24 feet with the tide less than half in. The facts are what every man wants, and Coos Bay can always be depended upon to give them.

On his trip into this country Mr. Hawley has gathered a fund of information relative to its resources and waterways which will stand him in good stead when called upon by the citizens for aid in putting through the great event for the Bay, dredging it to a depth which will give it water enough to float the largest ocean going ships.

Attorney Seakrook In Town. Attorney E. B. Seakrook, of Portland, is calling on his Marshfield friends. He is here to attend a suit he has in court, the same having been postponed until the fore part of next week.

A Regular Customer. Uncle Erastus, the village plasterer and whitewasher, who had married and buried four wives, was about to acquire a fifth. He went to the house of the Presbyterian minister, a venerable man who had officiated at several of his previous weddings, to make arrangements to be married there the following evening.

"Of course I shall be glad to marry you to your new wife, Uncle Erastus," said the minister. "This will be the third or fourth time for me, won't it? How does it happen, uncle, that you never have a colored preacher to tie the knot for you?"
