

REVENUE MEN CALLED DOWN

Head of Service Criticises the Conduct of Some of His Subordinates.

FOLLOW A WRONG POLICY

Big Offenders Escape While the Officers Watch for Small Technicalities.

Washington, Sept. 17.—Commissioner of Internal Revenue Capons has written a circular letter to all internal revenue collectors and agents in which, while cautioning them not to "let up in a vigorous search" for violations of the law, he criticises the misjudged activity of internal revenue employes in the field. He says "their disposition to make a record subjects their bureau to endless annoyances and expense, makes a perfect fiasco in the courts of their undue and hasty action in seizing distilleries, making unfounded assessments and practically confiscating property of law-abiding citizens who are endeavoring to live under the law in a business—the whisky business in any of its forms—always open to suspicion."

The letter adds: "I have on my desk the record of a case where three revenue agents or their employes hung around a registered distillery hoping to find some sign of omission on the part of the bookkeeper for three weeks, while during that time there were live blockade (unlawful) distilleries in full operation within seven miles of the registered distillery. By the operation of the unlawful distilleries the government was losing probably $300 a day as tax on the whisky they were producing, while these revenue agents were sitting about for 'big game,' the registered distillery."

"There are two distinct classes of offenses—that is, sins of commission and sins of omission. I am astounded to find recommendations for the seizing of distilleries, the upsetting of business enterprises, involving investment of hundreds of thousands of dollars, because some clerk has failed to properly keep some blank form prescribed by the regulations. Revenue agents and collectors should proceed upon the proposition guaranteed us by the constitution, that all men are innocent until proved guilty, and when they find minor irregularities they should assume the attitude of advisers and counselors and, by virtue of their experience in the service, tell the people who know less about it what is expected of them. On the contrary, in too many instances they hastily use these sins of omission as a basis for their own self-glorification and embarrass this bureau and the entire service by stupid seizures and assessments."

Exhibit Still On.

Many new comers viewed the Chamber of Commerce display again yesterday. With the exception of a couple of boxes of apples that have been shipped east, and the withering of some of the more dainty flowers, the exhibit is intact and holds interest for visitors. A number of eastern ladies yesterday were very much interested in a pink dahlia and are very desirous of securing tubers from the plant in order to grow a similar flower. Unfortunately, the Marshfield lady who furnished the exquisite bouquet of dahlias did not leave her card. If she will kindly send in her name and street number the eastern ladies will appreciate it very much.

The Phenomenal Medical Expert Closes After a Three Weeks Engagement at Marshfield.

Last evening closed the work at Masonic opera house by the phenomenal medical expert. He is on his way to San Francisco where he will install the new and perfected method of Bloodless Surgery in the hospitals of that city. Many cures have been made during his stay here, and for three weeks the opera house has been packed to the doors to witness the marvelous demonstrations.

Read the Times, it prints all the news telegraph, local and personal.

LAST BUFFALO GO TO CANADA

The Only Herd in Existence Is Sold to the Canadian Government.

SHIPPING VERY DIFFICULT

Animals Are Not Familiar with Cars and They Object to Traveling.

Helena, Mont., Sept. 18.—Next week will witness the final shipment of the sole remaining herd of buffalo in the United States to Canada, Michael Pablo having disposed of the immense drove to the Canadian government, which has prepared a park for them near Calgary, N. W. T. The initial shipment was made several months ago and the trains attracted not a little attention as they passed through Missoula, Helena and other cities.

President Roosevelt made strenuous efforts to secure the herd for the Yellowstone National Park, but congress seemed loath to make the necessary appropriation. The officials of the Smithsonian Institution were also alert in their efforts to get control of the herd, but could not care for so large a number, and Pablo accepted the more fancy offer of the Canadian government.

"The loading of the animals promises to be exciting," said Pablo. "There will be far more trouble this time than before, and heaven knows we had a tough time then, for the animals had never seen a car or engine before and it was with the greatest difficulty we got them loaded. "All of the outlaws will be in this lot, as they ran away the time the others were rounded up, and they were too far away to chase. This time they will have to go and there will be some long runs after them. They will bad loading, too, and they will certainly make it warm for the leaders when they are placed in the corrals at Ravall. There will be 300 buffaloes in this shipment, not counting the calves, of which there are a large number."

The Pablo herd has been forming for many years. The Jones herd of Kansas was split, a few being sent to the Yellowstone Park and the balance to Ravall, where they have ranged for years on the Flathead reservation and, being unmolested, have multiplied rapidly. Whether the animals will be able to withstand the rigors of a Canadian winter is doubted by many, although the Flathead is a warm, protected valley abounding in rich feed.

REFUSES TO RISE WHEN ORCHESTRA PLAYS "AMERICA."

Everybody Else in the Restaurant Stands and Sings—Darrow Calmly Remains Seated.

(Oregonian.)

Spokane, Wash., Sept. 15.—Because he declined to rise when the orchestra in the grillroom of the Spokane Hotel late last night played "America," Clarence Darrow, counsel for Moyer, Haywood and Pettibone in the Steunenberg murder case, was hissed by scores of persons in the grill at the time. Cries of "get up," "rise to your feet" and "be an American citizen" floated about the room as the widely known attorney remained frozen to his chair calmly sipping drafts of ale while every other man, woman and child in the large dining room arose.

Mr. Darrow was at a table with his wife, Fred Miller, who was an attorney in the Haywood case, Judge Edwin McBee of Kootenai county, Idaho, Mr. and Mrs. McClarmont and Mr. and Mrs. J. Robinson. When the orchestra commenced playing "America" all the other members at the table, including Darrow's wife, arose with the others in the dining room. Many of the people joined in the national anthem. It was known that Darrow was in the grill and amazement arose when it was observed that he did not rise to his feet.

"I don't know as it is any one's business whether I sit or stand during the rendition of the national anthem," said Mr. Darrow when asked if he had any convictions about rising when "America" is sung. "It is my own business. If I wish to stand that is my business, if I choose to remain seated, that, too, is my own business." Further than that he refused to discuss the matter.

Mr. Darrow is in the city waiting the commencement of the Steve Adams case at Rathdrum, Idaho, next month. Adams who is alleged to have been Orchard's accomplice in many murders, is to be tried for the murder of Fred Tyler, which occurred two years ago.

GERMANS SNEER AT LUSITANIA

Failed to Reach the Hourly Speed of the Big Liner Deutschland.

OTHER DIFFERENT VIEWS

Believes Turbine Ship May Take the Blue Ribbon to England.

Berlin, Sept. 18.—Public attention is centered upon the reports of the steamship Lusitania's performance. Press comments generally reflecting the elation felt because the laurels of the transatlantic speed records still belong to the Germans. The building of English turbine boats has been regarded here all along as a measure aimed expressly at their German rivals. The Lusitania's inability to lower the Deutschland's average speed record is considered a sign that the blue ribbon will remain here indefinitely.

The officials of the German steamship companies, however, are less jubilant. "The Lusitania failed to break the average speed record," said an official of one German line this morning. "But this trial is not conclusive. Nobody can tell what she will do later. It is still possible for her to capture the prize, and the Germans will then be obliged to make heroic efforts to retake supremacy. Possibly we must consider the advisability of following the British example and adopting turbines."

Hamburg, Sept. 14.—German marine critics here say that although it has been asserted that there was no intention to drive the Lusitania during her first trip, there can be no doubt that the great hopes placed upon her performance were unrealized. They also say that it was not really her maiden voyage, because she had been on trial trips for more than a month, had made a voyage to Gibraltar and return, and had sailed approximately 3000 miles before she started for New York. She was expected to make twenty-four and a half to twenty-five knots, but it is scarcely believed likely she will be able to attain the hoped-for speed.

—Until you have found it, make "a better place to live in" your perpetual quest. Of course, that means that you must read the ads.

NORTH BEND BREWERY DELAYED BY LICENSE

The North Bend brewery has not opened for business as yet, owing to the snail pace of the government in sending the firm a government license which is necessary before the establishment can start. The government inspector was here some time since and satisfied himself that all conditions were complied with, but the license is yet lingering somewhere around where the red tape takes precedence.

—Your daily sales respond to your advertising as surely as the thermometer responds to the temperature.

Cultivate "Self-Interest" a Little More.

A little harmless selfishness is all that will keep you on the straight road to prosperity. Cultivate an interest in your own interests by reading and using the classified ads. regularly—making them serve you, taking them into daily partnership of effort. On the day that no one advertises the thing that you want, write an ad. yourself asking for it! Experiment with these want ads. Give them tasks to do—errands, quests, canvassing. Harness these publicity ponies—the want ads.—and keep them at work for you! It's a "harmless selfishness!"

Notice.

Holders of Kinney & Waite contracts for lots in Plats B, C and Boulevard Park are hereby notified to call at First National Bank of Marshfield and settle all payments now due or suit will be commenced at once. B. F. Waite.

—Use Bayside Paints and Imperial Varnishes and get the best. Flexo Ready Roofing never rusts, cracks or leaks.

—Dr. J. G. Goble, the well known optician, of Medford, Ore., will visit all Coos Bay towns during Sept. For dates see this paper later.

This is the "right time" to find the "right sort" of servant. Let an ad. help you "look."

BELIEVES IN GREATER POWER

Judge Parker Indorses Roosevelt's Idea That Constitution Should Be Enlarged.

SPEAKS AT JAMESTOWN

Gives President Credit for Frankness.—Other People Are Interested, Says Parker.

Norfolk, Sept. 18.—Judge Alton B. Parker, former democratic nominee for president and Samuel W. McCall, member of congress from Mass., were the principal speakers today at the Constitutional Day celebration at the Jamestown fair. Judge Parker in alluding to the President's view that the federal government needs an increase of power which Judge Parker declared had been deliberately withheld from it by the states and people when the government was created, declared there is a way to transfer the power to the federal government but he said no amount of labor would persuade the states to surrender their home rule of ours in sufficient measure to meet the President's views as to the national necessity.

The Judge said he did not know for what reason the President had arrived at his conclusion that the government should be seized with power not granted it by the constitution. It is to protect people and to defend the constitution, the speaker said. The President is not attempting to acquire this power by deceiving the people, on the contrary, he states with perfect frankness what he thinks and how he proposes it shall be done. There are others of us, said the Judge, who believe powers were wisely distributed by the constitution and such should speak. Many people have not had time to study the constitution and these are naturally inclined to be impressed with the suggestion that while the constitution did very well when it was made, that we have outgrown it. Judge Parker advocated that before it is too late those opposed to the federation idea should enter the lists and champion our constitutional system in its integrity.

Dissolution Notice.

Notice is hereby given that the partnership heretofore existing between A. Helming and George A. Baines, under the partnership name of A. Helming & Co., was dissolved on the 31st day of August, 1907. The said A. Helming continuing the business of said firm and assuming any and all liabilities of said partnership.

Dated this 14th day of September, 1907.

A. Helming,
Geo. A. Baines.

* EAST MARSHFIELD. *

Cyrus Steckel moved with family and household things on Tuesday from South Inlet, where has been employed for the past two months in the logging business.

Mrs. G. Peterson on Monday, while taking her exhibits and flowers to the Chamber of Commerce, was taken suddenly ill and had to be assisted home, but is slowly improving.

While returning from Coos river a few days ago we met with quite a remarkable sight, a mother and her 10 children had been for a day's outing to a picnic, and were returning home. She had a three weeks old baby in her arms and looked so young and happy. If all parents would make companions of their children there would be less sorrow and old age in the world. By associating with the young people it keeps our own life with much more of a progressive spirit.

The W. C. T. U. will meet on Thursday at 2 p. m. with Mrs. J. Tellfrom at this place. A cordial invitation is extended to all to visit these meetings.

Mrs. George Bolster and daughter, Mrs. H. Blaskinstol were here from North Bend attending to business and with a view of locating in Marshfield if they can find house-keeping rooms.

Fred Benty will visit his relatives near Port Orford before he returns to Nevada. Mrs. Benty will take a trip with him to see her son George and will return and visit her sister, Mrs. Frank Long in California, whom she has not seen for 20 years.

Mr. Sam Ott was calling on friends Sunday. This is getting to

"The noblest aim a man may have is to attain to independence, the furtherance of which is the buying of property and the establishment of a home."

You have been THINKING about owning your own home—why not DO it? . . .

BAY PARK

Offers you an easy opportunity.

Low Prices
Easy Terms
Sightly Lots
Beautiful View
Growing Values
Steady Improvements
Reached by Land or Water

I. S. Kaufman & Company

GENERAL AGENTS

Across From Chamber of Commerce.

WE ARE READY

To make all classes of furniture, fixtures and woodwork.

Our plant is equipped especially for this line of work and our mechanics are the best there is.

We make all kinds of special furniture to order. Also make mantles, pantry furnishings, store fixtures, in fact all kinds of job work.

We guarantee our work and the price is right.

Get our estimate on your job.

Coos Bay Furniture Co.

North Bend, Oregon.

"CRYSTAL"

be quite an interesting place.

We were sorry that our esteemed Sunday school superintendent, F. M. Stewart, was unable to be with us on last Sunday and hope he will soon be fully recovered from his recent attack of rheumatism.

Mrs. Nellie Owen of the Ladies' Emporium went up Coos River on Saturday to spend a few days with friends.

Mrs. Anna Lund, real estate agent of East Marshfield, made a sale of six lots a short time since to Mr. S. Archer.

We were all very proud of our flower exhibits, and there would have been a good many more only several people were prevented from getting to town with their offerings.