BAY CITY NOTES.

Mrs. Walter Robertson has been ill for a few days.

There is now quite a number of different musical instruments in Bay City. Mr. Charles Smith has been entertaining the young people with his dandy phonograph for the last few weeks. Besides the phonograph there are other instruments such as mandolins, guitars, banjo accordions, violins, piano and mouth organs.

Either phone 1451, or leave orders at Lockhart & Parson's for all kinds of transferring. O. S. Torrey.

Lots in West Bunker Hill at $100 to $250. See J. D. Johnson & Co.

Fresh Flowers Given.

The profusion of flowers that beautified the Chamber of Commerce room since the exhibit of last week have withered, flavoring the room with a fragrance akin to that of new-mown hay. But the lustre that attracted so much attention ten days ago is lacking and the lifeless bouquets are this week being removed from view. Fresh flowers were, however, added yesterday by people who have abundance of flowers. The officers of the chamber are desirous of renewing the floral display this week, as the fruit and vegetable display is being renewed and any flowers brought in today will be thankfully received.
