Sealing Crew Help Themselves to Stores and Cattle.

Seattle, Sept. 30.—Captain Morrow of the sailing schooner Case, reported to United States Consul Smith of Vancouver today that a crew of a Japanese sealing schooner operating in Bearing sea this season landed at an Alaska village in Litak bay on the southwest of Kodiak island, broke open houses and looted right and left. Another report says the Japanese landed on Sheelkoff island and killed cattle on the ranges there.

—Before sending your children to school have their eyes examined by an expert. We have both the knowledge and patience to properly fit the eyes of children.

F. J. Hayes,
Optometrist.

Home from Missouri.

Dr. Leslie arrived home yesterday from a three months' trip to his old home in the vicinity of Kirksville, Missouri. The doctor says that while he enjoyed the time he spent with his old associates and relatives, he is glad to see Coos Bay again, though it means work. His friends have been asking embarrassing questions since he returned, but there were only the usual imaginations, as the doctor says he has no immediate prospects.

To Contractors.

—Sealed bids will be received until 7 p. m. October 1, 1907, for the construction of a third story on H. Lockhart building. Plans and specifications may be obtained at Lockhart's drug store, Marshfield, Ore.
